dramatic lyrical poem Gitagovinda is a unique work in Indian literature and a source of inspiration in both medieval and contemporary Vaisnavism It concentrates on Krsna s love with the Cowherdess Radha Intense earthly passion is the example Jayadeva uses to express the complexities of divine and human love It describes the loves of Krsna and Radha in twelve cantos containing twenty four songs The songs are sung by Krsna or Radha or Radha s maid and are connected by a brief narrative of descriptive passages The appropriate musical mode and rhythm for each song are noted in the text This poem is really a kind of drama of the ragakavya type since it is usually acted Critical acclaim of the poem has been high but its frank eroticism has led many Indian commentators to interpret the love between Radha and Krsna as an allegory of the human soul's love for God Learned and popular audiences in India and elsewhere have continued to appreciate the emotional lyricism the poem expresses in its variations on the theme of separated lover's passion mind as inherently pure and free The book traces a history of the concept of mind from early sources especially Buddhism through to the tantric medieval period and ending with the eighteenth century The author shows how the concept changes and what is retained A comparison of the tantric ideas of mind with those of some European philosophy notably Descartes dualism and German idealism s non dualism sharpens the concept of mind in the tantric tradition A historical and philosophical study of key ideas in the tantric traditions this book will be of interest to researchers in the field of Religious Studies Asian Religion Hindu Studies Indian philosophy and comparative philosophy      The Golden Bough James George Frazer,1913      The Golden Bough: The Magic Art and the Evolution of Kings.
