Whiteness Fractured Cynthia Levine-Rasky, 2016-02-11 Whiteness Fractured examines the many ways in which whiteness is conceptualized today and how it is understood to operate and to effect social relationships Exploring the intersections between whiteness social class ethnicity and psychosocial phenomena this book is framed by the question of how whiteness works and what it does With attention to central concepts and the history of whiteness it explains the four ways in which whiteness works In its examination of the outward and inward fractures of whiteness the book sheds light on both its connections with social class and ethnicity and with the epistemology of ignorance and the psychoanalytic Representing the long career of whiteness on the one hand and investigating its expansion into new areas on the other Whiteness Fractured reflects the growing maturity of critical whiteness studies It undertakes a critical analysis of approaches to whiteness and proposes new directions for future action and enquiry As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in race and ethnicity intersectionality colonialism and post colonialism and cultural studies

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora

Mendoza, Traci Brynne Voyles, 2025 This collection analyzes the relationships between environment race and justice through a historical lens exploring how environmental injustices have profoundly shaped communities of color throughout U S history and today     Four Fields Tim Dee, 2016-01-12 In this book Tim Dee tells the story of four green fields spread around the world their grasses their hedges their birds their skies and both their natural and human histories These four fields walkable mappable man made mowable knowable but also secretive mysterious wild contested and changing play central roles in the sweeping panorama of world history and in the lives of individuals In Dee s telling a field is never just a setting for great battles or natural disasters though it is often this as well A field is the oldest and simplest and truest measure of what a man needs in life especially when looked at contemplated worked in lived with and written about Dee s four fields which he has known and studied for more than twenty years are the fen field at the bottom of his private garden a field in southern Zambia a prairie in Little Bighorn Montana and a grass meadow in the Exclusion Zone at Chernobyl Ukraine Meditating on these four fields Dee makes us look anew at where we live and how He argues that we must attend to what we have made of the wild     Canadian Literature Index , 1991

Exhausting Dance Andre Lepecki, 2006-07-13 The only scholarly book in English dedicated to recent European contemporary dance Exhausting Dance Performance and the Politics of Movement examines the work of key contemporary choreographers who have transformed the dance scene since the early 1990s in Europe and the US Through their vivid and explicit dialogue with performance art visual arts and critical theory from the past thirty years this new generation of choreographers challenge our understanding of dance by exhausting the concept of movement Their work demands to be read as performed extensions of the radical politics implied in performance art in post structuralist and critical theory in post colonial theory and in critical race studies In this far ranging and exceptional study Andre Lepecki brilliantly analyzes the work of the choreographers Jerome Bel France Juan Dominguez Spain Trisha Brown US La Ribot Spain Xavier Le Roy France Germany Vera Mantero Portugal and visual and performance artists Bruce Nauman US William Pope L US This book offers a significant and radical revision of the way we think about dance arguing for the necessity of a renewed engagement between dance studies and experimental artistic and philosophical practices     Sorry I Don't Dance Maxine Leeds Craig, 2014 Explores the feminization sexualization and racialization of dance in America since the 1960s     Songs of Social Protest Aileen Dillane, Martin J. Power, Eoin Devereux, Amanda Haynes, 2018-09-30 Songs of Social Protest is a comprehensive companion guide to music and social protest globally Bringing together scholars from a range of fields it explores a wide range of examples of and contexts for songs and their performance that have been deployed as part of local regional and global social protest movements both in historical and contemporary times Topics covered include Aesthetics Authenticity African American Music Anti capitalism Community Collective Movements Counter hegemonic Discourses Critical Pedagogy Folk Music Identity Memory Performance Popular Culture By placing historical approaches alongside cutting edge ethnography philosophical excursions alongside socio political and economic perspectives and cultural context alongside detailed musicological textual and performance analysis Songs of Social Protest offers a dynamic resource for scholars and students exploring song and singing as a form of protest The LAST FRACTION: An incredible journey into the gold fields of the Yukon D. L. Sigler, 2017-12-14 The Sawyer saga continues when Tom takes his teenage daughter and young son on an adventure that will change their lives forever It was the Gay Nineties for an elite few but most of America suffered from severe economic depression When gold was discovered in a remote part of the Yukon territories a hundred thousand desperate souls packed up and headed north to seek their fortune in the shadow of the North Pole The Sawyer family was among them Blackening Europe Heike Raphael-Hernandez, 2012-11-12 Traditional Scholars have often looked at African American studies through the lens of European theories resulting in the secondarization of the African American presence in Europe and its contributions to European culture Blackening Europe reverses this pattern by using African American culture as the starting point for a discussion of its influences over traditional European structures Evidence of Europe's blackening abound from French ministers of Hip hop and British incarnations of Shaft to slavery memorial in the Netherlands and German youth sporting dreadlocks Collecting essays by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic and fields as diverse as history literature politics social studies art film and music Blackening Europe explores the implications of these cultural hybrids and extends the growing dialogues about Europe's fascination with African America

White Scholars/African American Texts Lisa A. Long, 2005 Funny painful and disturbing by turns this absolutely necessary volume powerfully engages readers in passionate debates about the place of the non African American teacher of African American literature Maureen Reddy coeditor of Race in the College Classroom Pedagogy and Politics What makes someone an authority What makes one person's knowledge more credible than another's In the ongoing debates over racial authenticity some attest that we can know each other's experiences simply because we are all human while others assume a more skeptical stance insisting that racial differences create unbridgeable gaps in knowledge Bringing new perspectives to these perennial questions the essays in this collection explore the many difficulties created by the fact that white scholars greatly outnumber black scholars in the study and teaching of African American literature Contributors including some of the most prominent theorists in the field as well as younger scholars examine who is speaking what is being spoken and what is not and why framing African American literature in terms of an exclusive black white racial divide is problematic and limiting

In highlighting the whiteness of some African Americanists the collection does not imply that the teaching or understanding of black literature by white scholars is definitively impossible. Indeed such work is not only possible but imperative. Instead the essays aim to open a much needed public conversation about the real and pressing challenges that white scholars face in this type of work as well as the implications of how these challenges are met.

Folk Music and Song in the WPA Ex-Slave Narratives John Minton, 2025-02-17 Between 1937 and 1940 fieldworkers in the Works Progress Administration's Federal Writers Project interviewed around 3 500 formerly enslaved people in North America resulting in roughly 20 000 pages of still unedited and inadequately indexed typescript. These accounts, the WPA ex slave narratives, are the most substantial collection by far of folklore and oral history gathered directly from enslaved people in America. It is arguably the single greatest body of African American folklore extant and a significant portion is devoted to folk music and song. This book considers this treasure trove in all its relevant social, cultural and historical contexts. Nineteenth century Black folk music developed against the backdrop of North American slavery, the American Civil War, Emancipation, the Federal occupation of the South and a successful white supremacist paramilitary and political insurgency that led to Federal withdrawal, officially sanctioned racial terror and Southern apartheid. The WPA ex slave narratives describe that history in remarkable detail. Despite their inestimable value, most of the ex slave narratives remained unpublished until the late 1970s, being almost unknown except to folklorists. Even after publication, the collection's sheer size was a barrier. Quoting extensively from the narratives and exhaustively annotated and indexed, this volume provides readers with detailed explanations and full references for every musical item or tradition featured in the ex slave narratives. John Minton covers instrumental music and social dancing, spirituals and hymns, singing games and lullabies, ring plays and reels, work songs, minstrel songs, ballads, war songs, slavery laments and much much more. Written for both specialists and general readers, with 134 illustrations, the book also offers a general overview of the ex slave narratives, their contents, creation and relation to the field of African American folklore as a whole.

The Burr McIntosh Monthly, 1905      Kate Field's Washington, 1893      Scalp Dance Th Goodrich, Thomas Goodrich, 2002-07 Some of the most savage war in world history was waged on the American Plains from 1865 to 1879. As settlers moved west following the Civil War, they found powerful Indian tribes barring the way. When the U S Army intervened, a bloody and prolonged conflict ensued. Drawing heavily from diaries, letters and memoirs from American Plains settlers, historian Thomas Goodrich weaves a spellbinding tale of life and death on the prairie, told in the timeless words of the participants themselves. Scalp Dance is a powerful unforgettable epic that shatters modern myths. Within its pages, the reader will find a truthful account of Indian warfare as it occurred.
