Saddam Hussein Chris Sheridan, Nicholas Owen, 1991 Middle East Leaders G. O. Zinaki, 2001 The Middle East remains a veritable powder keg after decades of peace processes wars accords discords agreements disagreements suicide bombings retaliatory attacks cease fires and resume fires Although the root causes of the flaming conflict are not new the leaders of the countries involved are a part and parcel of the current situation and its history This book presents citations to the literature on some of the key players who have shaped the history of this incendiary region of the world Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 Catalog of Visual Media Suburban Library System (Burr Ridge, Ill.). Audio Visual Service, 1995 A Tale of Four Worlds David Ottaway, Marina Ottaway, 2019-08-01 First came the disintegration of the Ottoman Empire following World War I then in the 1950s and 60s the Nasser inspired wave of Arab nationalism and socialism The Arab world's third great political cataclysm of the past 100 years has also brought permanent changes but not as its activists had hoped the 2011 uprisings Their consequences have differed greatly from area to area splintering the Arab region into four different worlds The Levant states have disintegrated possibly irreversibly The Gulf monarchies have embarked on far reaching plans of economic and social change to stave off discontent Egypt has retreated into military authoritarianism and a war on Islamists threatening its future stability Only the Maghreb countries which have started integrating Islamists into their political systems offer some hope for progress toward democracy Marina and David Ottaway have brought together fifty years of experience observing the Arab world and a wealth of first hand information gathered from living and travelling extensively in the region A Tale of Four Worlds is an indispensable analysis of the profound upheavals that have shaken and continue to transform Arab and global politics Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East Christiane Gruber, Sune Haugbolle, 2013-07-17 A collection of essays examining the role and power of images from a wide variety of media in today's Middle Eastern societies This timely book examines the power and role of the image in modern Middle Eastern societies The essays explore the role and function of image making to highlight the ways in which the images speak and what visual languages mean for the construction of Islamic subjectivities the distribution of power and the formation of identity and belonging Visual Culture in the Modern Middle East addresses aspects of the visual in the Islamic world including the presentation of Islam on television on the internet and other digital media in banners posters murals and graffiti and in the satirical press cartoons and children's books This volume takes a new approach to the subject and will be an important contribution to our knowledge in this area It is comprehensive and well structured with fascinating material and analysis Peter Chelkowski New York University An innovative volume analyzing and instantiating the visual culture of a variety of Muslim societies which constitutes a substantially new object of study in the regional literature and one that creates productive links with history anthropology political science art history media studies and urban studies as well as area studies and Islamic studies Walter Armbrust University of Oxford Icons of Dissent Jeremy Prestholdt, 2019-07-01

The global icon is an omnipresent but poorly understood element of mass culture This book asks why audiences around the world have embraced particular iconic figures how perceptions of these figures have changed and what this tells us about transnational relations since the Cold War era Prestholdt addresses these questions by examining one type of icon the anti establishment figure As symbols that represent sentiments ideals or something else recognizable to a wide audience icons of dissent have been integrated into diverse political and consumer cultures and global audiences have reinterpreted them over time To illustrate these points the book examines four of the most evocative and controversial figures of the past fifty years Che Guevara Bob Marley Tupac Shakur and Osama bin Laden Each has embodied a convergence of dissent cultural politics and consumerism yet popular perceptions of each reveal the dissonance between shared global references and locally contingent interpretations By examining four very different figures Icons of Dissent offers new insights into global symbolic idioms the mutability of common references and the commodification of political sentiment in the contemporary world

World War III! Michael Campbell,2008-04 The Book of Revelations describes the events leading up to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ The Apostle John describes the 21st Century while giving us essential information Was 9 11 the beginning of World War III Are both Bush administrations playing key roles in the incredible drama of the last days Is President George W Bush a hero or a villain Will the next terrorist attack include nuclear radiation Will the Iraq War be the catalyst precipitating a series of events that will result in the death of one third of the human race What should we be doing now to become fully prepared for these cataclysmic events Despite the terrible turmoil and the gathering clouds of doom we need not fear The Plan of God will prevail Satan will be defeated because the Atonement of Jesus Christ has made it impossible for evil to survive In the end good will conquer evil The purpose of life is to make choices People who choose to love others and to be kind will fulfill the purpose of their mortal existence They are the people who are embracing the eternal opportunities that have been provided by God They will be happy forever School Library Journal ,1991

Graphic Encounters Dale Jacobs,2013-08-29 With the recent explosion of activity and discussion surrounding comics it seems timely to examine how we might think about the multiple ways in which comics are read and consumed Graphic Encounters moves beyond seeing the reading of comics as a debased or simplified word based literacy Dale Jacobs argues compellingly that we should consider comics as multimodal texts in which meaning is created through linguistic visual audio gestural and spatial realms in order to achieve effects and meanings that would not be possible in either a strictly print or strictly visual text Jacobs advances two key ideas one that reading comics involves a complex multimodal literacy and two that by studying how comics are used to sponsor multimodal literacy we can engage more deeply with the ways students encounter and use these and other multimodal texts Looking at the history of how comics have been used by churches schools and libraries among others will help us as literacy teachers best use that knowledge within our curricula even as we act as sponsors ourselves

Engelhardt, 1996-08-15 From the taming of the West to the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima the portrayal of the past has become a battleground at the heart of American politics What kind of history Americans should read see or fund is no longer merely a matter of professional interest to teachers historians and museum curators Everywhere now history is increasingly being held hostage but to what end and why In History Wars eight prominent historians consider the angry swirl of emotions that now surrounds public memory Included are trenchant essays by Paul Boyer John W Dower Tom Engelhardt Richard H Kohn Edward Linenthal Micahel S Sherry Marilyn B Young and Mike Wallace Daitokuji Gregory P. A.

Levine, 2005 The Zen Buddhist monastery Daitokuji in Kyoto has long been revered as a cloistered meditation centre a repository of art treasures and a wellspring of the Zen aesthetic Gregory Levine's Daitokuji unsettles these conventional notions with groundbreaking inquiry into the significant and surprising visual and social identities of sculpture painting and calligraphy associated with this fourteenth century monastery and its enduring monastic and lay communities The book begins with a study of Zen portraiture at Daitokuji that reveals the precariousness of portrait likeness the face that gazes out from an abbot's painting or statue may not be who we expect it to be or submit quietly to interpretation By tracing the life of Daitokuji's famed statue of the chanoyu patriarch Sen no Rikyū 1522-91 which was all but destroyed by the ruler Toyotomi

Hideyoshi 1537-98 but survived in Rashomon like narratives and reconstituted sculptural forms Levine throws light upon the contested status of images and their mythopoetic potential Levine then draws from the seventeenth century journal of Kōgetsu Sōgan Bokuseki no utsushi to explore practices of calligraphy connoisseurship at Daitokuji and the pivotal role played by the monastery's abbots within Kyoto art circles The book's final section explores Daitokuji's annual airings of temple treasures not merely as a practice geared toward preservation but also as a space in which different communities vie for authority over the artistic past An epilogue follows the peripatetic journey of the monastery's scrolls of the 500 Luohan from China to Japan to exhibition and partial sale in the West and back to Daitokuji Illuminating canonical and heretofore ignored works and mining a trove of documents diaries and modern writings Levine argues for the plurality of Daitokuji's visual arts and the breadth of social and ritual circumstances of art making and viewing within the monastery This diversity encourages reconsideration of stereotyped notions of Zen art and offers specialists and general readers alike opportunity to explore the fertile and sometimes volatile nexus of the visual arts and religious sites in Japan Memory Remains Francesc Torres, 2011 A collection of photographs cataloging the contents of Hangar 17 at JFK International Airport where artifacts from the World Trade Center were stored and preserved after the September 11 2001 attacks accompanied by essays reflecting on the events and the items Daily Graphic Elvis Aryeh, 2000-02-19 Defending America's Security Frederick H. Hartmann, Robert L. Wendzel, 1990 Revised to take into account new geopolitical trends including the pre-war stage of the US Iraq conflict as well as the latest changes in the US government this classroom oriented text examines US defense policies in the broader arenas of national security and international affairs Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Information Visualization in The Era of Innovative Journalism Carlos Toural-Bran, Ángel Vizoso, Sara Pérez-Seijo, Marta Rodríguez-Castro, María-Cruz Negreira-Rey, 2020-04-21 Information Visualization in the Era of Innovative Journalism brings together over 30 authors from countries around the world to synthesize how recent technological innovations have impacted the development practice and consumption of contemporary journalism As technology rapidly progresses shifts and innovates there have been immense changes in the way we communicate This book collects research from around the world that takes an in-depth look at the primary transformations related to journalistic innovation in recent times High profile contributors provide cutting edge scholarship on innovation in journalism as it relates to emergent topics such as virtual reality podcasting multimedia infographics social media mobile storytelling and others The book pays special attention to the development of information visualization and the ability of recent innovations to meet audience needs and desires Students and scholars studying contemporary journalism history and practice will find this a vital and up-to-date resource as well as those studying communication technology as it relates to marketing PR or mass media broadly Choice, 1991
