L. The Astral Body and Other Astral Phenomena Arthur Edward Powell, 1926

Time, Tense, and Reference Aleksandar Jokic, Quentin Smith, 2003-09-12 Among the many branches of philosophy the philosophy of time and the philosophy of language are more intimately interconnected than most yet their practitioners have long pursued independent paths This book helps to bridge the gap between the two groups As it makes clear it is increasingly difficult to do philosophy of language without any metaphysical commitments as to the nature of time and it is equally difficult to resolve the metaphysical question of whether time is tensed or tenseless independently of the philosophy of language Indeed one is tempted to see philosophy of language and metaphysics as a continuum with no sharp boundary The essays which were written expressly for this book by leading philosophers of language and philosophers of time discuss the philosophy of language and its implications for the philosophy of time and vice versa The intention is not only to further dialogue between philosophers of language and of time but also to present new theories to advance the state of knowledge in the two fields The essays are organized in two sections one on the philosophy of tensed language the other on the metaphysics of time

From Modernity to Cosmodernity Basarab Nicolescu, 2014-01-01 Offers a new paradigm of reality based on the interaction between science culture spirituality religion and society The quantum biological and information revolutions of the twentieth and twenty first centuries should have thoroughly changed our view of reality yet the old viewpoint based on classical science remains dominant reinforcing a notion of a rational mechanistic world that allows for endless progress In practice this view has promoted much violence among humans Basarab Nicolescu heralds a new era cosmodernity founded on a contemporary vision of the interaction between science culture spirituality religion and society Here reality is plastic and its people are active participants in the cosmos and the world is simultaneously knowable and unknowable Ultimately every human recognizes his or her face in the face of every other human being independent of his or her particular religious or philosophical beliefs Nicolescu notes a new spirituality free of dogmas and looks at quantum physics literature theater and art to reveal the emergence of a newer cosmodern consciousness
