The Werewolf Filmography Bryan Senn, 2017-02-06 From the horrific to the heroic cinematic werewolves are metaphors for our savage nature symbolizing the secret bestial side of humanity that hides beneath our civilized veneer Examining acknowledged classics like The Wolf Man 1941 and The Howling 1981 as well as overlooked gems like Dog Soldiers 2011 this comprehensive filmography covers the highs and lows of the genre Information is provided on production cast and filmmakers along with critical discussion of the tropes and underlying themes that make the werewolf a terrifying but fascinating figure Bloody Murder Michelle Ann Abate, 2013-03 Off with her head decreed the Queen of Hearts one of a multitude of murderous villains populating the pages of children's literature explored in this volume. Given the long standing belief that children ought to be shielded from disturbing life events it is surprising to see how many stories for kids involve killing. Bloody Murder is the first full length critical study of this pervasive theme of murder in children's literature. Through rereadings of well known works such as Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, the Nancy Drew Mystery Stories and The Outsiders, Michelle Ann Abate explores how acts of homicide connect these works with an array of previously unforeseen literary, social, political and cultural issues. Topics range from changes in the American criminal justice system, the rise of forensic science and shifting attitudes about crime and punishment to changing cultural conceptions about the nature of evil and the different ways that murder has been popularly presented and socially interpreted. Bloody Murder adds to the body of inquiry into America's ongoing fascination with violent crime. Abate argues that when narratives for children are considered along with other representations of homicide in the United States, they not only provide a more accurate portrait of the range, depth and variety of crime literature, they also alter existing ideas about the meaning of violence, the emotional appeal of fear and the cultural construction of death and dying.
