Prestwich Christopher Taylor Muriel A Whitaker A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland's castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland

Anglo-Norman Castles Robert Liddiard, 2003 Wide ranging studies offer an in depth analysis of castle building 11th 12th centuries and place castles within their broader social and political context The castles of the eleventh and twelfth centuries remain among the most visible symbols of the Anglo Norman world This collection brings together for the first time some of the most significant articles in castle studies with contributions from experts in history archaeology and historic buildings Castles remain a controversial topic of academic debate and here equal weight is given to seminal articles that have defined the study of the subject while at the same time emphasising newer approaches to the fortresses of the Anglo Norman aristocracy The studies in this volume range from discussions of the residential and military role of the castle to architectural symbolism and royal attitudes to baronial fortification The result is a survey that offers an in depth analysis of castle building during the eleventh and twelfth centuries but which also places Anglo Norman castles within their broader social architectural and political context Contributors ANN WILLIAMS RICHARD EALES DEREK RENN LAWRENCE BUTLER ROBERT HIGHAM MARJORIE CHIBNALL R ALLEN BROWN CHARLES COULSON SIDNEY PAINTER FREDERICK C SUPPE GRANT G SIMPSON BRUCE WEBSTER J R KENYON THOMAS McNEILL T A HESLOP PHILIP DIXON PAMELA MARSHALL JOHN BLAIR CHARLES COULSON ROBERT LIDDIARD Scotland Josephine Buchanan, 2005 This is a comprehensive guide to travel in Scotland that includes historical information places to visit hotels restaurants shopping and entertainment plus planning advice The Medieval Castle in England and Wales Norman J. G. Pounds, 1994 This original and pioneering book examines the role of the castle in the Norman conquest of England and in the subsequent administration of the country The castle is seen primarily as an instrument of peaceful administration which rarely had a garrison and was more often where the sheriff kept his files and employed his secretariat In most cases the military significance of the castle was minimal and only a very few ever saw military action For the first time the medieval castle in England is seen in a new light which will attract the general reader of history and archaeology as much as the specialist in economic and social history
