Short Short Stories:

Micro Fiction Jerome H. Stern, 1996 Ten years ago Jerome Stern director of the writing program at Florida State initiated the World's Best Short Short Story Contest Stories were to be about 250 words long first prize was a check and a crate of oranges Two to three thousand stories began to show up annually in Tallahassee and National Public Radio regularly broadcast the winner But more important the Micro form turned out to be contagious stories of this lack of length now dot the literary magazines The time seemed right then for this anthology presenting a decade of contest winners and selected finalists In addition Stern commissioned Micros persuading a roster of writers to accept the challenge of completing a story in one page Jesse Lee Kercheval has a new spin on the sinking of the Titanic Virgil Suarez sets his sights on the notorious Singapore caning George Garrett conjures up a wondrous screen treatment pitch and Antonya Nelson invites us into an eerie landscape Verve and nerve and astonishing variety are here with some wild denouements How short can a Micro be you wonder Look up Amy Hempel's contribution and you'll see Short! Kevin Crossley-Holland, 1998 The longest of the stories in this book is short and the shortest is just one sentence long Which means there are lots of stories a whole bookful to make you think laugh Shiver and think again Collected Short Stories: Volume 1 W. Somerset Maugham, 1992-09-01 These 30 short stories comprising Somerset Maugham's first collection are set in locations ranging from England France and Spain to the silver sands of the South Pacific They include Rain The Three Fat Women of Antibes The Voice of the Turtle and Before the Party For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators You've Got to Read this Ron Hansen, Jim Shepard, 1994 An exciting new anthology of short fiction chosen by thirty five of this country's most distinguished and popular fiction writers You've Got to Read This offers readers an unusually intimate glimpse into how accomplished writers experience literature Here are stories that inspired today's leading novelists and short story writers to embark on their own writing careers stories that took their breath away and changed them or the way they responded to literature forever Oscar Hijuelos confesses his debt to the great Argentine writer Jorge Luis Borges whose brilliant story The Aleph inspired him to become a writer himself Mary Gordon stands in awe of what James Joyce wrought in The Dead and wonders how writers who come after him can equal it Robert Coover writes movingly of Angela Carter and her mysterious story Reflections while Kenneth A McClane says that Sonny's Blues by James Baldwin literally saved his life Some of the stories presented here are classics like Anton Chekhov's Gooseberries introduced by Eudora Welty or Flannery O'Connor's A Good Man Is Hard to Find selected by Sue Miller Some are less well known like Lars Gustafsson's Greatness Strikes Where It Pleases introduced by Charles Baxter or John Updike's Packed Dirt Churchgoing a Dying Cat a Traded Car

The Best American Humorous Short Stories Various, Alexander Jessup, 2014-02-11

The Best American Humorous Short Stories By Various Edited by Alexander Jessup Brand New Edition This volume does not aim to contain all the best American humorous short stories there are many other stories equally as good I suppose in much the same vein scattered through the range of American literature I have tried to keep a certain unity of aim and impression in selecting these stories In the first place I determined that the pieces of brief fiction which I included must first of all be not merely good stories but good short stories I put myself in the position of one who was about to select the best short stories in the whole range of American literature but who just before he started to do this was notified that he must refrain from selecting any of the best American short stories that did not contain the element of humor to a marked degree But I have kept in mind the wide boundaries of the term humor and also the fact that the humorous standard should be kept second although a close second to the short story standard Short Stories for Short People Mrs. Alicia (Stuart) Aspinwall, 1896
