Reconstructing the Canon Austine Amanze Akpuda, 2001      Make it Work Jan Ellyn Goggans, 2019-04-17 Imagine a new critical theory that bases its literary value on fashion In this theory exists a community that explores and interrogates conventionality and in American literature of the 20th century it includes fashion and home decoration two paths to achieving white femininity a prized component of many novels written by and for women Drawing on cultural materialism and its connection to the cultural forms of objects including apparel Making it Work 20th Century American Fiction and Fashion provides readers a new understanding of the aims of American writers and the desires of their readers      Whose Land? Whose Promise?: Gary M. Burge, 2013-10-30 Because events in the Middle East continue to escalate in tragic complexity Christians still struggle with making sense of it all In this updated version of Whose Land Whose Promise Gary Burge further explores the personal emotions and opinions and sharpens his theological argument in the context of the new developments surrounding the crisis in the Middle East Whose Land Whose Promise offers insight for the thoughtful reader on an explosive topic and challenges personal truths on peace      The Real Special Relationship Michael Smith, 2023-07-18 Gripping deeply researched and authoritative the history of one of the closest intelligence and security relationships in the world The Special Relationship between the United States and Britain is touted by politicians when it suits their purpose and as frequently dismissed as myth not least by the media Yet the truth is that the two countries are bound together more closely than either is to any other ally In The Real Special Relationship Michael Smith reveals how it all began eighty years ago when a top secret visit by four American codebreakers to Bletchley Park in February 1941 ten months before the US entered World War II marked the start of a close collaboration between the intelligence services of the two nations When that war ended and the Cold War began both sides recognized that the way they worked together to decode German and Japanese ciphers could be used to counter the Soviet threat They laid the foundation for the behind the scenes intelligence sharing that has continued despite rivalries among the services and occasional political conflict and public disputes between the two nations through the collapse of the Soviet Union 9 11 the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and to the threats of the present moment Smith who served in British military intelligence brings together a fascinating range of characters from Winston Churchill and Ian Fleming to John F Kennedy Ronald Reagan Margaret Thatcher and Edward Snowden Supported by in depth interviews and a broad range of personal contacts in the intelligence community he takes the reader into the workings of MI6 the CIA the NSA and all those who strive to keep us safe Sir John Scarlett former chief of MI6 has written the introduction and Michael Hayden former director of the CIA and the NSA has provided the foreword      Accessions List, South Asia Library of Congress. The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction
