The Unveiling Quan Barry, 2025-10-14 From the award winning author of We Ride Upon Sticks and When I'm Gone Look for Me in the East a genre bending novel of literary horror set in Antarctica that explores abandonment guilt and survival in the shadow of America's racial legacy Striker isn't entirely sure she should be on this luxury Antarctic cruise A Black film scout her mission is to photograph potential locations for a big budget movie about Ernest Shackleton's doomed expedition Along the way she finds private if cautious amusement in the behavior of both the native wildlife and the group of wealthy mostly white tourists who have chosen to spend Christmas on the Weddell Sea But when a kayaking excursion goes horribly wrong Striker and a group of survivors become stranded on a remote island along the Antarctic Peninsula a desolate setting complete with boiling geothermal vents and vicious birds Soon the hostile environment will show each survivor their true face and as the polar ice thaws in the unseasonable warmth the group's secrets prejudices and inner demons will also emerge including revelations from Striker's past that could irrevocably shatter her world With her signature lyricism and humor Quan Barry offers neither comfort nor closure as she questions the limits of the human bonds that connect us to one another affirming there are no such things as haunted places only haunted people Gripping lucid and imaginative The Unveiling is an astonishing ghost story about the masks we wear and the truths we hide even from ourselves

Borders and Border Crossings in the Contemporary British Short Story Barbara Korte, Laura Ma Lojo-Rodríguez, 2020-01-02 This book represents a contribution to both border studies and short story studies In today s world there is ample evidence of the return of borders worldwide as material reality as a concept and as a way of thinking This collection of critical essays focuses on the ways in which the contemporary British short story mirrors questions and engages with border issues in national and individual life At the same time the concept of the border as well as neighbouring notions of liminality and intersectionality is used to illuminate the short story s unique aesthetic potential The first section Geopolitics and Grievable Lives includes chapters that address the various ways in which contemporary stories engage with our newly bordered world and borders within contemporary Britain The second section examines how British short stories engage with Ethnicity and Liminal Identities while the third Animal Encounters and Metamorphic Bodies focuses on stories concerned with epistemological borders and borderlands of existence and identity Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the varied and complex ways in which British short stories in the twenty first century engage with the concept of the border
