Shortest Shadow:

The Shortest Shadow Alenka Zupancic, 2003-09-26 Restoring Nietzsche to a Nietzschean context examining the definitive element that animates his work What is it that makes Nietzsche Nietzsche In The Shortest Shadow Alenka Zupan i counters the currently fashionable appropriation of Nietzsche as a philosopher who was ahead of his time but whose time has finally come the rather patronizing reduction of his often extraordinary statements to mere opinions that we can share Zupan i argues that the definitive Nietzschean quality is his very unfashionableness his being out of the mainstream of his or any time To restore Nietzsche to a context in which the thought lives on its own credit Zupan i examines two aspects of his philosophy First in Nietzsche as Metapsychologist she revisits the principal Nietzschean themes his declaration of the death of God which had a twofold meaning God is dead and Christianity survived the death of God the ascetic ideal and nihilism as ideas that are very much present in our hedonist postmodern condition Then in the second part of the book she considers Nietzsche s figure of the Noon and its consequences for his notion of the truth Nietzsche describes the Noon not as the moment when all shadows disappear but as the moment of the shortest shadow not the unity of all things embraced by the sun but the moment of splitting when one turns into two Zupan i argues that this notion of the Two as the minimal and irreducible difference within the same animates all of Nietzsche s work generating its permanent and inherent tension

Meiklejohn, 1881      The Notebooks of Leonardo Da Vinci (Complete) Leonardo da Vinci, 2020-09-28 A singular fatality has ruled the destiny of nearly all the most famous of Leonardo da Vinci's works Two of the three most important were never completed obstacles having arisen during his life time which obliged him to leave them unfinished namely the Sforza Monument and the Wall painting of the Battle of Anghiari while the third the picture of the Last Supper at Milan has suffered irremediable injury from decay and the repeated restorations to which it was recklessly subjected during the XVIIth and XVIIIth centuries Nevertheless no other picture of the Renaissance has become so wellknown and popular through copies of every description Vasari says and rightly in his Life of Leonardo that he laboured much more by his word than in fact or by deed and the biographer evidently had in his mind the numerous works in Manuscript which have been preserved to this day To us now it seems almost inexplicable that these valuable and interesting original texts should have remained so long unpublished and indeed forgotten It is certain that during the XVIth and XVIIth centuries their exceptional value was highly appreciated This is proved not merely by the prices which they commanded but also by the exceptional interest which has been attached to the change of ownership of merely a few pages of Manuscript That notwithstanding this eagerness to possess the Manuscripts their contents remained a mystery can only be accounted for by the many and great difficulties attending the task of deciphering them The handwriting is so peculiar that it requires considerable practice to read even a few detached phrases much more to solve with any certainty the numerous difficulties of alternative readings and to master the sense as a connected whole Vasari observes with reference to Leonardos writing he wrote backwards in rude characters and with the left hand so that any one who is not practised in reading them cannot understand them The aid of a mirror in reading reversed handwriting appears to me available only for a first experimental reading Speaking from my own experience the persistent use of it is too fatiguing and inconvenient to be practically advisable considering the enormous mass of Manuscripts to be deciphered And as after all Leonardo s handwriting runs backwards just as all Oriental character runs backwards that is to say from right to left the difficulty of reading direct from the writing is not insuperable This obvious peculiarity in the writing is not however by any means the only obstacle in the way of mastering the text Leonardo made use of an orthography peculiar to himself he had a fashion of amalgamating several short words into one long one or again he would quite arbitrarily divide a long word into two separate halves added to this there is no punctuation whatever to regulate the division and construction of the sentences nor are there any accents and the reader may imagine that such difficulties were almost sufficient to make the task seem a desperate one to a beginner It is therefore not surprising that the good intentions of some of Leonardo s most reverent admirers should have failed
