Creative Learning Robert W. Lucas, 2007-04-27 Creative Learning is written by master trainer Bob Lucas and offers a treasure trove of innovative and highly effective activities to simulate learning The activities are tailor made for trainers presenters and educators and can be put to use in virtually any type of learning environment Each activity offers a different approach to learning but all are designed using a brain based learning approach that is proven to mentally or physically engage learners and enhance their learning experience

Training Disciplined Soldiers for Christ Tim W. Callaway, 2013-04-17 The comparative scarcity of academic attention given Prairie Bible Institute located at Three Hills Alberta Canada serves as the primary motivation behind this book This work should therefore be regarded as an attempt to contribute to and refine the very small amount of research available regarding how Prairie Bible Institutes first half century should be understood and interpreted by students of North American church history Drawing on an insiders perspective of PBI former PBI staff kid Tim W Callaway challenges the adequacy and accuracy of Canadian scholar Dr John G Stackhouse Jr's inference that the kind of sectish evangelicalism that typified PBI in the twentieth century was substantially different from the characteristics that define the traditional understanding of American fundamentalism The undertaking contained in these pages advances the perspective that Prairie Bible Institute during the L E Maxwell era did in fact reflect the influence and attributes of American fundamentalism to a far greater extent than what Stackhouse allowed for in his research

The Arc of Boxing Mike Silver, 2012-09-21 Are

today's boxers better than their predecessors or is modern boxing a shadow of its former self? Boxing historians discuss the socioeconomic and demographic changes that have affected the quality, prominence, and popularity of the sport over the past century. Among the interviewees are world-renowned scholars, some of the sport's premier trainers, and former amateur and professional world champions. Chapters cover such topics as the ongoing deterioration of boxers' skills, their endurance, the decline in the number of fights, and the psychological readiness of championship-caliber boxers. The strengths and weaknesses of today's superstars are analyzed and compared to those of such past greats as Joe Louis, Sugar Ray Robinson, Jack Dempsey, and Jake LaMotta.

The 2006 ASTD Training & Performance Sourcebook Mel Silberman, Patricia Philips, American Society for Training and Development, 2006. The 2006 edition of the ASTD Training and Performance Sourcebook, edited by training guru Dr. Mel Silberman, draws on the knowledge and expertise of today's best trainers and consultants. In this one comprehensive book, you will find the tools you need in such important areas as e-learning, communication skills, diversity, and cross-cultural awareness, performance improvement, and management development. Tools in the Sourcebook are organized into four categories: training activities and group learning exercises, assessment instruments, helpful handouts, and practical guides to understanding and implementing important training and performance trends.

Double Dog Dare Linda O. Johnston, 2008.
