A History of Thailand

Chris Baker, Pasuk Phongpaichit, 2009-04-14 In A History of Thailand Chris Baker and Pasuk Phongpaichit reveal how a world of mandarin nobles and unfree labour evolved into a rural society of smallholder peasants and an urban society populated mainly by migrants from southern China They trace how a Buddhist cosmography adapted to new ideas of time and space and a traditional polity was transformed into a new nation state under a strengthened monarchy The authors cover the contests between urban nationalists ambitious generals communist rebels business politicians and social movements to control the nation state and redefine its purpose They describe the dramatic changes wrought by a booming economy globalization and the evolution of mass society Finally they show how Thailand's path is still being contested by those who believe in change from above and those who fight for democracy and liberal values Drawing on new Thai language research this second edition brings the Thai story up to date and includes a new section on the 2006 coup and the restoration of an elected government in 2008

Prince Charoon et al Andrew Dalby, 2011-04-19 Southeast Asia needs to be dealt with as a whole because although the one national delegation from the region Siam took a minor part nationalist movements in several Southeast Asian countries reached an early climax significant though inconclusive in the years 1919-1920 The planned Peace Conference Wilson s Fourteen Points and the victory of Communism in Russia all contributed to this activity and in spite of national differences it needs to be seen as a whole The focus of the book will be on developments around 1919 thus it will bring out for the first time the unexpected significance for South east Asia of the 1919 milestone It will also have a biographical bias taking a special interest in the personalities of major figures in this important period in order to show the influences and the patterns of thought that underlie their activities at the time of the Peace Conference Following a brief introduction making the link between world events in 1919 and South east Asia the book sets the scene in the region Succeeding chapters deal with the five countries Siam Vietnam Burma Indonesia Philippines in which the years 1919 21 were of special significance as well as the impact of the peace conferences in relationships with their neighbours the growth of international Communism and global politics in later years Imperial Policy and Southeast Asian Nationalism Hans Antlov, Stein Tonnesson, 2013-10-08 Traditionally the tumultuous period 1930 50 in South East Asia has been viewed as a dichotomy of European vs Asian or imperialist vs nationalist This highly acclaimed volume presents another triangular perspective and challenges established wisdom about the period Politics and Constitutions in Southeast Asia Marco Bünte, Björn Dressel, 2016-07-15 In recent years the constitutional landscape of Southeast Asia has changed tremendously Against a worldwide background of liberalization globalization and democratization states in the region have begun to alter their constitutions reinforcing human rights provisions and putting in place institutional safeguards such as constitutional courts and human rights commissions On closer examination however the picture is very complex with constitutional developments differing greatly between states This book explores a range of current constitutional developments in the different states of Southeast Asia through a distinct political lens Drawing on comparative and single case studies it considers various constitutional areas including constitution drafting human rights legal safeguards and the continuing role of the military sets constitutional developments in the wider political and historical context of each country and makes comparisons both with Western democracies and with other developing regions The book concludes by assessing overall how far constitutional practices and trajectories are converging towards a liberal Western model or towards a distinctly Southeast Asian model Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order Oláyínká Àkànlé, 2022-08-10 The first volume of Youth Exclusion and Empowerment in the Contemporary Global Order focuses particularly on contexts of economic educational and governance concerns that confront youths globally the complex consequences of these issues their experience of exclusion and sustainable pathways forward Occupied Aviel Roshwald, 2023-04-27 A comparative treatment of European and Asian responses to German and Japanese occupation during the Second World War Defence and Decolonisation in Southeast Asia Karl Hack, 2001 This text explains British defence policy by examining the overlapping of colonial military economic and Cold War factors in Southeast Asia Refashioning Pop Music in Asia Allen Chun, Ned Rossiter, Brian Shoesmith, 2004-07-31 This collection of thirteen essays examines cultural political economic technological and institutional aspects of popular music across Asia from India to Japan Defence and Decolonisation in South-East Asia Karl Hack, 2013-12-16 This book explains why British defence policy and practice emerged as it did in the period 1941 67 by looking at the overlapping of colonial military economic and Cold War factors in the area Its main focus is on the 1950s and the decolonisation era but it argues that the plans and conditions of this period can only be understood by tracing them back to their origins in the fall of Singapore Also it shows how
