Sicilian Antigruppo Stanley H. Barkan, Saverio A. Scammacca, 1976-12 Dagoes Read Fred L. Gardaphé, 1996 Since 1987 writer and critic Fred Gardaph has regularly reviewed Italian North American literature in Fra Noi an Italian American monthly newspaper based in Chicago This volume features the best of Parole Scritte his monthly columns Introduced by an essay from which the collection gets its title Dagoes Read is the first publication of its kind in the history of Italian North American literature It serves as a fine introduction to this literary movement as well as a survey of recent publications by Italian North Americans Works reviewed include those by Tony Ardiaone Dorothy Bryant Pietro di Donato John Fante Maria Mazziotti Gillan Frank Lentricchia Jay Parini Diane Raptosh Gay Talese Sal LaPuma and many others Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli, 2015-08-04 In The Heart and the Island Chiara Mazzucchelli explores the strong bond between Sicilian American writers and the island of Sicily Self contained yet connected to the mainland geographically separated from yet politically united to the rest of Italy Sicily occupies a unique position Throughout the twentieth century the sense of a distinct sicilianit or Sicilianness has manifested itself in a corpus of texts that although subsumed under the broader context of Italian literature have distinguished themselves as examples of an exquisitely Sicilian literary experience Mazzucchelli argues that a parallel phenomenon sicilianamericanit has emerged in the United States Focusing on the island's geography history and culture she examines how many American authors of Sicilian descent derive inspiration from their ethnic milieu and lay out a recognizable set of Sicilian culture markers in their works thereby producing a literature that is distinctly Sicilian American Drawing on both Italian and Italian American scholarship The Heart and the Island is the first full length study of Sicilian American literature and it opens a space for new interdisciplinary discussions on what it means to be Italian on both sides of the ocean Transnational Working-Class Literatures Wiktor Marzec, Magnus Nilsson, Mike Sanders, 2025-08-26 This book offers a pioneering study of the national transnational and international dimensions of working class literature It explores both the historically and geographically varied nature of the relationship between working class literatures and national canons and the importance of international and transnational exchanges in the development of working class literature Through a series of detailed case studies its sixteen essays analyse working class literatures from the early nineteenth century to the present day and cover thirteen countries across three continents this collection not only analyses the factors which lead to the incorporation or exclusion of working class literature from a given national canon but also traces the various ways in which working class literatures participate in international networks of exchange With its wide historical range extensive geographical coverage and broad definition of working class literature which includes samba poetry as well as socialist realism this collection charts new territory for the study of working class literature Multicultural
