Sicily Traditional Cuisine From The Sicilian Provinces:

Lathyrus sativus and Nutrition Michele Barone,Rita Tulumello,2020-10-07 This book addresses the traditional use of a specific crop legume grass pea Lathyrus sativus as a food product and ingredient for typical food products Grass pea has very interesting nutritional qualities including an abundance of proteins and peculiar organoleptic properties As the crop also shows an enhanced resistance to adverse conditions it is used in many geographical areas as the main ingredient of certain traditional foods On the other hand grass pea is questionable as a source of human and animal nutrition because it contains a neurotoxin N oxalyl L diaminopropionic acid that is known for its neurological effects The related disease is referred to as neurolathyrism and occurs when grass pea based foods are consumed in large quantities The book is divided into five chapters the first of which summarizes the chemical and biochemical properties of grass pea and provides nutritional evaluations The second chapter provides an overview of foods containing Lathyrus sativus around the world while the third describes Italian foods in detail The fourth chapter focuses on the problem of neurolathyrism in connection with human nutrition and health In closing the fifth chapter sheds light on the historical and traditional food products sector from a food traceability and authenticity standpoint Food Diversity Between Rights, Duties and Autonomies Alessandro Isoni,Michele Troisi,Maurizia Pierri,2018-04-25

The book reflects on the issues concerning on the one hand the difficulty in feeding an ever increasing world population and on the other hand the need to build new productive systems able to protect the planet from overexploitation The concept of food diversity is a synthesis of diversities biodiversity of ecological sources of food supply socio territorial diversity and cultural diversity of food traditions In keeping with this transdisciplinary perspective the book collects a large number of contributions that examine firstly the relationships between agrobiodiversity rural sustainable systems and food diversity and secondly the issues concerning typicality food specialties food identities rural development and territorial communities Lastly it explores legal questions concerning the regulations aiming to protect both the food diversity and the right to food in the light of the political economic and social implications related to the problem of feeding the world population while at the same time respecting local communities rights especially in the developing countries The book collects the works of legal scholars agroecologists historians and sociologists from around the globe Handbook of Research on Agricultural Policy, Rural Development, and Entrepreneurship in Contemporary Economies Jean Vasile, Andrei,Subic, Jonel,Grubor, Aleksander,Privitera, Donatella,2019-11-29 Promoting rural entrepreneurship is a necessary step to limit the negative effects of classical agricultural policy based on a linear process and attracting secondary resources to the economic process The analysis of agricultural policy and rural development in conjunction to entrepreneurship in terms of production may represent a further step in understanding the role and importance of diversifying the rural potentials in contemporary economies The Handbook of Research on Agricultural Policy Rural Development and Entrepreneurship in Contemporary Economies is an essential publication of academic research that examines agricultural policy and its impact on shaping future resilient economy in rural areas and identifies green business models and new business patterns in rural communities Covering a range of topics such as entrepreneurship product management and marketing this book is ideal for researchers policymakers academicians economists agriculture professionals rural developers business investors and students The Ionian Sea Encyclopedia Igor S.
