Siddur Sha'ar Zahav Sha'ar Zahav, 2009-01-01 Congregation Sha'ar Zahav's first siddur appeared in 1982 It was revised in 1994 and again in 2000 The richness of this siddur like the Sha'ar Zahav community is rooted in its integration of Jewish tradition with egalitarian feminist and LGBTQ positive ideas and language With this edition we have sought to continue and expand the Sha'ar Zahav tradition of creating liturgy that reflects who we are The compilers of the 2000 edition wrote A Jewish prayer book which had nothing in common with the traditional siddur would lack the wealth of history which connects our worship with Jewish practice around the world and over the centuries On the other hand many of us are uncomfortable with some of the imagery and language found in the prayer books of the major Jewish denominations in the United States With this prayer book we have attempted to capture the spirit of Jewish liturgy while avoiding the objectionable elements When Congregation Sha'ar Zahav was founded in 1977 only a handful of synagogues offered full acceptance to bisexual transgender lesbian gay and queer identified Jews From the outset Sha'ar Zahav has been a community that is open to all Sha'ar Zahav is affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism URJ and this siddur reflects many of the innovations of the Reform movement as well as the URJ's commitment to an evolving liturgical tradition The members of Congregation Sha'ar Zahav the authors of most of the new material in this siddur come from many varied backgrounds movements affiliations traditions and practices Some identify with Ashkenazi Sephardi or Mizrahi traditions Some were born into Jewish families while some chose Judaism We are young and old and every age in between We have sought to reflect both our shared traditions and our differences in our liturgy In order to create a spiritual home for all who choose to enter our gates and in order to develop a siddur which will continue to resonate with the congregation and reflect our community's diversity we have tried to cast a wide liturgical net We have drawn from the traditions we have been handed we have sought out sources that have been hidden and we have tapped the creative gifts of our own community In this edition we have been mindful of and have sought to expand the principles which have distinguished this siddur in the past using non sexist language when referring to both people and God restoring visibility to women throughout Jewish tradition speaking directly to the experience of lesbian gay bisexual transgender and queer identified people understanding the concept of Jewish chosenness as uniqueness envisioning the Messianic time as the fulfillment of tikkun olam the repair of the world and seeing ourselves as participants in the holy work of repair Siddur Sha'ar Zahav includes alternative English versions of prayers and alternative Hebrew and Aramaic so that our values can be reflected in all of our languages of prayer Because of the gravity of altering wording that may be hundreds of years old we spent considerable time developing guidelines for Hebrew prayers In keeping with the Sha ar Zahav tradition we decided not to remove customary versions of prayers but to add new versions alongside them We did not alter any passages taken from the Torah except to ensure gender inclusivity which is noted in the text Nor did we alter prayers such as the Mourners Kaddish which serve so powerfully to connect us to the Jewish people across time and space Where we did create new Hebrew versions we followed a set of principles which are discussed in the appendices Siddur Sha ar Zahav endeavors to respect the varied and at times contradictory sensibilities of our people and our congregation Our goal is for all of us progressive Jews within the Reform movement's umbrella regardless of gender identity or sexual orientation to see ourselves reflected in our liturgy so that none of us experience the invisibility and exclusion we have historically encountered Our prayer book attempts to embody the teaching that each of us is created b'tzelem Elohim in the image of God While we know that not every reading will speak to each of us we hope that in these pages all of us will find a point of departure for prayer and for dialogue with the Source of creation

Siddur Hatefillah Eliezer Schweid, 2022-08-30 Hebrew University Professor Emeritus and Israel Prize recipient Eliezer Schweid 1929-2022 is widely regarded as one of the greatest historians of Jewish thought of our era In Siddur Hatefillah he probes the Jewish prayer book as a reflection of Judaism's unity and continuity as a unique spiritual entity and as the most popular most uttered and internalized text of the Jewish people Schweid explores texts which process religious philosophical teaching into the language of prayer and or express philosophical ideas in prayer's special language which the worshipper reflects upon in order to direct prayer and through which flows hoped for feedback With the addition of historical philological and literary contexts the study provides the reader with first time access to the comprehensive meaning of Jewish prayer filling a vacuum in both the experience and scholarship of Jewish worship

Dear friend If you do not yet read Hebrew and need an alternative resource for your daily davvenen prayer or if you are not used to reading the Hebrew with comprehension and the ability to dilate it from its literal meaning I offer you this concise translation of the Jewish siddur or prayer book which I frequently use for my own davvenen I have translated the liturgy of the siddur here according to the way in which I experience it in my own feeling consciousness Thus my translations do not so much offer the p'shat or the literal meaning of the words as they do a devotional interpretation that can make them into prayers of the heart This siddur is meant to help you stay in touch with God on a daily basis to gain divine assistance to lighten your burdens not to add to them May you come to experience your own prayer as a blessed meeting with your own
