LONEY, 2017 The Erasure Tapes Alan Loney, 1994-01-01 Three long poems or sections juxtaposing idea and experience One section is made up of translations of phrases from the letters of 20th century composer Webern in a structure which can be read down or across inviting the reader's creativity This is the author's fifth book of poems and is published with the help of the QEII Arts Council

Crankhandle Alan Loney, Michael Farrell, 2015 Over the nearly forty years of this endeavour there have of course been gaps but the Notebooks provide a way for me to be quickly attentive to my environment and to circumstances of wherever I might happen to be sitting standing waiting travelling at any time Perhaps one could speak of the individual pieces as fragments but they are not fragments in the way that ancient Greek poetry has come to us on torn worn eaten half destroyed bits of papyrus If these works are fragments then each of Ezra Pound's cantos are also fragments placed against the totality of all poetry from all over the planet and from throughout recorded world history In this sense fragments are all we have and will ever have If some are very long and some very short then that is simply how things are Alan Loney
