Daniel, M.D., 2013-09-30 This is a study of changing attitudes of patients the medical community and society in general towards tuberculosis over the course of a century and a half As TB became better understood scientifically treatment of the disease changed for the better and the attitudes became more hopeful This book illustrates these changing attitudes with the life stories and sample works of well known writers novelists essayists and poets Not all of these writers had TB themselves but they all were well enough acquainted with the disease to write about it eloquently This added dimension gives the book another identity in addition to medical and social history Times and Tides of Tuberculosis offers literary history and criticism The Wunderkammer of Lady Charlotte Guest Erica Obey, 2007 Lady Charlotte s translation of the Mabinogion opens a window into several important nineteenth century intellectual issues It sheds light on the interrelationships among antiquarianism philosophy folklore collection and children s literature that underlie the works of such seminal creators of the Victorian fairy tale as the Brothers Grimm Miss Rutherford's Historical Notes , 1925 Studies in Poetry and Criticism John Churton Collins, 1905 The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, 1896 Miss Rutherford's Scrap Book Mildred Lewis Rutherford, 1926 THE CHIEF AMERICAN POETS CURTIS HIDDEN PAGE, PH. D., 1905 Slavery, Race and American History John David Smith, 2015-03-04 These essays introduce the complexities of researching and analyzing race This book focuses on problems confronted while researching writing and interpreting race and slavery such as conflict between ideological perspectives and changing interpretations of the questions Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest ,1897 Stories with a Moral Michael E. Price,2000-01-01 Stories with a Moral is the first comprehensive study of the effects of plantation society on literature and the influences of literature on social practices in nineteenth century Georgia During the years of frontier settlement the Civil War and Reconstruction Georgia authors voiced their support for the slave system the planter class and the ideals of the Confederacy presenting a humorous passionate and at times tragic view of a rapidly changing world Michael E Price examines works of fiction travel accounts diaries and personal letters in this thorough survey of King Cotton s literary influence showing how Georgia authors romanticized agrarian themes to present an appealing image of plantation economy and social structure Stories with a Moral focuses on the importance of literature as a mode of ideological communication Even more significant the book shows how the writing of one century shaped the development of social practices and beliefs that persist in legend and memory to this day The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1978 Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,1980-09-01 Biographical sketches of 378 writers associated with the American South are included in this important new reference work Compiled by 172 scholars these summaries many of which are not readily available elsewhere provide in their total effect a brief history of southern literature from colonial times to the present The volume is in part a companion to A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature Louis D Rubin Jr ed a work that has become a standard reference for anyone seriously interested in the literature of the South With its wealth of essential biographical information on the region s writers both major and minor this new guide will take its place alongside that earlier volume as an invaluable aid to the study of southern writing Especially useful will be complete listings of the first printings of the books by each writer provided after the respective summaries Included as contributors of the individual biographical summaries are most of the better known scholars of southern literature plus a number of promising young scholars The editors each of whom is an outstanding scholar in southern literary studies are Critic and Literary World ,1888 The Nation ,1890 The American ,1899
