Richardson,2007-01-01 Renaissance art history is traditionally identified with Italian centers of production and Florence in particular. Instead, this book explores the dynamic interchange between European artistic centers and artists and the trade in works of art. It also considers the impact of differing locations on art and artists and some of the economic, political, and cultural factors crucial to the emergence of an artistic center. During c. 1420-1520, no city or court could succeed in isolation, and so artists operated within a network of interests and local and international identities. The case studies presented in this book portray the Renaissance as an exciting international phenomenon with cities and courts inextricably bound together in a web of economic and political interests.

Sieneese Painting Bruce Cole, 1987      Art as Politics in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena Timothy B.

Smith, 2017-07-05 In Art as Politics in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena, contributors explore the evolving relationship between image and politics in Siena from the time of the city state's defeat of Florence at the Battle of Montaperti in 1260 to the end of the Sieneese Republic in 1550. Engaging issues of the politicization of art in Sieneese painting, sculpture, architecture, and urban design, the volume challenges the still prevalent myth of Siena's cultural and artistic conservatism after the mid-fourteenth century. Clearly establishing uniquely Sieneese artistic agendas and vocabulary, these essays broaden our understanding of the intersection of art, politics, and religion in Siena by revisiting its medieval origins and exploring its continuing role in the Renaissance.      The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century. Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries, it offers students, researchers, and the general public a reliable, up-to-date, and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture.

Painting in Late Medieval and Renaissance Siena, 1260-1555 Diana Norman, 2003-01-01 The city of Siena, one of Italy's major artistic centers, was home to many celebrated painters among them Duccio, Simone Martini, Ambrogio and Pietro Lorenzetti, Sassetta, and Beccafumi. This generously illustrated book provides a survey of Sieneese painting from 1260 to 1555, an era of extraordinary artistic creativity in the Tuscan city. Art historian Diana Norman addresses the style and artistic technique of Sieneese painters throughout the three centuries and explores why paintings were made where they were originally seen and how they were used and enjoyed by their audiences. The book focuses on works of art made for Siena itself, many of which are still to be seen within the city. Norman organizes the discussion around types of commissions, and throughout the book situates the paintings within the context of the political, social, and religious circumstances of late medieval and renaissance Siena.      Love, Lust, and Loss in Venetian Painting of the Golden Age Bruce Cole, 1988
