

"Blind" / "The Blind Seer of Ambon" / "On His Blindness"

Fatima Nassif / W.S. Merwin / Jorge Luis Borges

Analogy

An analogy is a way of comparing two things to explain something complex or unfamiliar by likening it to something more familiar. It's like saying, "This is similar to that," to help people understand the concept better. For example, explaining how a cell works by comparing it to a factory, where different parts of the cell are like different parts of the factory.

Directions: Answer the following questions about analogies found in the poems using complete sentences.

1. In "Blind," the speaker talks about a "dimmed memory" in certain parts of the poem. What memory is this, and how does the speaker use this idea to think about being blind?
2. In the beginning of "The Blind Seer of Ambon," the speaker talks about coming from a "different language." Trying to "find words" explains the speaker mean by this "different language"? And how does this poem help us understand what it's like to be blind?
3. In "On His Blindness," the speaker talks about a "bright mist" that "surrounds me all the time, making everything seem the same without color or shape." Does the speaker mean by this "bright mist," and why does he say it? What is something that look the same without any color or shape?

Word Choice

Sensory details are words and descriptions that help you experience things more fully—like what you can see, hear, smell, taste, or feel. They make writing more vivid by painting a picture in your mind. For example, instead of just saying "the flower," sensory details might describe the flower as "fragrant" or "soft with a sweet fragrance."

Imagery involves using sensory details in words and phrases to create a picture in the mind of the reader.

Juxtaposition means putting two different things next to each other to show how they're different or similar. One way to do this is by using an oxymoron, which is when you put two words together that mean opposite things of each other. For instance, "open secret" is an oxymoron because a secret is something that is both hidden and known at the same time.

Directions: Underline the sensory details in the following excerpts from the poems that are juxtaposed. What ideas are being juxtaposed?

1. "When she danced with Lania/On the hillside,/he told her that the soul can travel with the eye/ freed from the retina."
2. "I may have seemed somewhat strangulating in my own time for living things/with no value that we know/languages wash over them one wave at a time."
3. "The elemental vast night and the day/heaving with people have become that fog/of constant, tentative light that does not fog,/and lies in wait at dawn."

Sight Behind Blindness A Collection Of Poetry:

Sight Behind Blindness: A Collection of Poetry Carolyn L. Miller, 2002-12-01 To read these poems is to experience life through the eyes of a tiny ant carrying food to its nest or to imagine yourself as a mosquito intent on biting humans While she expertly uses the natural world to help the reader see life in a new way she will also bring you deep inside yourself to view your own soul Her gentle poetry will forever change the way you see yourself and your relationship to the world music and words This compensation becomes associated with the loss and gain involved in the modernity of a post bardic age Representations of blindness and the blind are found to elucidate a tension at the heart of the Romantic period between the desire for immediacy of vision on the one hand and on the other the historical self consciousness which always attends it

b 1962 who is considered by some to be Iceland's most distinctive and multifaceted contemporary author. This collection of essays introduces readers to Sjö's rich body of writing and its transmedial and stylistic range, cultural breadth, thematic diversity, and intellectual depth. Essays in the volume have been brought together from around the world and cover Sjö's beginnings as a neo-surrealist performance artist and poet, translated into over 20 languages; his career as a novelist, translated into over 30 languages; and his collaborations with translators, singer-songwriters, film directors, and other writers. Approaches range from the narratological, historical, ethical, epistemological, and mythological to theoretical methodologies such as thing theory, queer theory, disability studies, and ecocriticism.
