Luminous Mind:

The Continuity of Madhyamaka and Yogācāra in Indian Mahāyāna Buddhism Ian Charles Harris, 2023-11-27 In the past European scholars have tended to treat both Madhyamaka and Yogācāra as separate and fundamentally opposed trends in Mahāyāna Buddhist thought Drawing heavily on early textual evidence this work questions the validity of such a Mahāyāna schools hypothesis By down playing the late commentarial traditions the author attempts a general reappraisal of the epistemological and ontological writings of Nagarjuna Asanga and Vasubandhu He concludes that the overlap in all areas of doctrine is significant but particularly with respect to the teachings on the levels of truth the enlightened and unenlightened states the status of language and the nature of reality It is hoped that such investigations may provide the basis for a new theory on the proliferation of Indian Mahāyāna Buddhism as an organic process of assimilation to new audiences and specific contemporary problems rather than in the more schismatic manner favoured by past researchers

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bahā'ī religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistance of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

God or the Divine? Bernhard Nitsche,Marcus Schmücker,2023-03-20 Is there a language of transcendence which does not fall under the well worn categories of monism theism pantheism biblical or pagan monotheism personal or tripersonal God or an impersonal absolute conceived as immanent and or transcendent The present set of studies from different fields of research centers on the question whether it is possible to speak at all of transcendence or a divinity and if it is under what limitations does such speech proceed In current discussion in theology and in philosophy of religion there is a pervasive awareness that the inherited terms and alternatives developed in the western tradition no longer facilitate an adequate understanding of the divine Increasing familiarity with the languages of immanence and transcendence under erasure in Hindu and Buddhist thought has further jumbled our coordinates while holding out the promise of a more subtle and vital engagement with the matter itself of religious inquiry A further long established distinction between personal and impersonal also takes on rich new hues in Asian contexts where the very notion of person may undergo unsettling critiques Transgressing the categories of personal and impersonal points to the mystical depth of religious traditions emphasizes their openness and reintegrates essential elements of both perspectives Advancing with curiosity and caution all the contributors take seriously the diversity of historical religious traditions while nevertheless searching for a fresh language that may connect these traditions and provide a common ground of understanding Profound Meditation Practices in Tibetan Buddhism Prof. (Dr.) Jai Paul Dudeja, 2023-03-14 There have been reports of the amazing capacity of some of the Tibetan Buddhist Monks practicing Tummo meditation in Tibetan Buddhism at temperatures of around 250 C in the Himalayas A team of scientists from USA and Israel went to these spots by carrying some dry towels with them When these towels were made wet in the snow and spread on the naked bodies of the semi nude meditating monks practicing Tummo meditation to the surprise of these scientists these towels were getting dried up in no time Subsequently the analysts came to the conclusion that this meditation generated a lot of heat inner fire in the bodies of these meditators who were using it for the spiritual purpose This incident triggered me to go deep in not only about Tummo meditation but many other profound meditation practices in Tibetan Buddhism in this book The Other Emptiness Michael R.

Sheehy, Klaus-Dieter Mathes, 2019-12-01 This book brings together perspectives of leading international Tibetan studies scholars on the subject of zhentong or other emptiness Defined as the emptiness of everything other than the continuous luminous awareness that is one s own enlightened nature this distinctive philosophical and contemplative presentation of emptiness is quite different from rangtong emptiness that lacks independent existence which has had a strong influence on the dissemination of Buddhist philosophy in the West Important topics are addressed including the history literature and philosophy of emptiness that have contributed to zhentong thinking in Tibet from the thirteenth century until today The contributors examine a wide range of views on zhentong from each of the major orders of Tibetan Buddhism highlighting the key Tibetan thinkers in the zhentong philosophical tradition Also discussed are the early formulations of buddhanature interpretations of cosmic time polemical debates about emptiness in Tibet the zhentong view of contemplation and creative innovations of thought in Tibetan Buddhism Highly accessible and informative this book can be used as a scholarly resource as well as a textbook for teaching graduate and undergraduate courses on Buddhist philosophy The Yoga S tra of

Patañjali : Translations and Commentary Wim van den Dungen, 2016-04-06 This book offers translations of the Yoga S tra of Patajali in English French and Dutch as well as a commentary from the perspective of a practicing Buddhist The Yoga S tra of Patajali is a remarkable short text of about 1200 words codifying the best yoga practices in 195 Sanskrit aphorisms

Yoga became one of the six schools of Hindu philosophy. In contrast to Jainism and Buddhism it always kept close to the Vedas. These crucial scriptures speak of three paths to freedom from ignorance and the suffering it brings: Ritual, Mystical Devotion, and Yoga. The Yoga Sūtra of Patañjali turned Hindu Yoga systematic and close to direct yogic experience. Besides a critique of the eternal substances of seer, the self, and seen Nature, the commentary also identifies correspondences between Jhāna Yoga and the various types of union (samādhi) mentioned by Patañjali and compares constraint, the application of concentration, contemplation, and union with the Nine Stages of Calm Abiding. Love's Oneing Kerrie Hide, 2022-11-08

Grounded in Christian love mysticism, Love's Oneing gives voice to the luminous consciousness that awakens from within our oneness in God in contemplation. With great sensitivity, the book offers nuanced insight into the marriage of kenosis and desire in contemplation through the rich tapestry of writings from nine mystics: Julian of Norwich, the Cloud of Unknowing, author Meister Eckhart, Mechthild of Magdeburg, Clare of Assisi, John of the Cross, Teilhard de Chardin, Beatrice Bruteau, and Ilia Delio. With the delicate eye of a spiritual director immersed in mystical literature, Kerrie Hide situates these mystical teachings within contemplative prayer whilst offering a scholarly exploration of contemplative practice to embody the insights. Deeply grounded in traditional and contemporary mystical classics, Hide celebrates how the Christian mystical tradition lays a foundation for the evolutionary growth of communion, consciousness, and the insights of quantum science, highlighting key moments in contemplation that when surrendered into open, into divine love. Born of intellectual reflection, lived experience, and contemplative wisdom, Love's Oneing makes a unique contribution to the existing literature on contemplation at a time when the recovery of the mystical dimension of life is crucial for the future of our planet in this climate crisis moment. Naturalism, Human Flourishing, and Asian Philosophy Bongrae Seok, 2019-09-17

Naturalism, Human Flourishing, and Asian Philosophy Owen Flanagan and Beyond is an edited volume of philosophical essays focusing on Owen Flanagan's naturalized comparative philosophy and moral psychology of human flourishing. Flanagan is a philosopher well known for his naturalized approach to philosophical issues such as meaning, physicalism, causation, and consciousness in the analytic school of Western philosophy. The current volume discusses his philosophy of human flourishing and his naturalized approaches to Buddhism and Confucianism. The volume consists of five sections with eleven chapters written by leading experts in the fields of philosophy, religion, and psychology. The first section is an introduction to Flanagan's philosophy. The introductory chapter provides a general overview of Flanagan's philosophy, i.e., his philosophy of naturalization, comparative approach to human flourishing, and detailed summaries of the following chapters. In the second section, the three chapters discuss Flanagan's naturalized eudaimonics of human flourishing. The third section discusses Flanagan's naturalized Buddhism. The fourth section analyzes Flanagan's interpretation of Confucian philosophy, specifically Mencius's moral sprouts from the viewpoint of moral modularity and human flourishing The fifth section is Flanagan s responses to the comments and criticisms developed in this volume

It includes an edition and translation of the section on the cessation of suffering according to Manorathanandin, the last commentator on Dharmakṛtī's Pramāṇavarttika in the Sanskrit cosmopolis. Being Human and a Buddha Too Anne Klein, 2023-08-15 In writing that sparkles and inspires Anne Klein Lama Rigzin Drolma shows us how to liberate our buddha nature to be both human and a buddha too. This first volume in the House of Adzom series centers on Longchenpa's seven trainings in bodhicitta, our awakened mind, the ultimate purpose of our practice and training. Anne Klein's original composition masterfully weaves in Adzom Paylo Rinpoche's commentary and Jigme Lingpa's five pith practices and commentary on the trainings in keeping with Longchenpa's skillful integration of sutra, tantra and Dzogchen to resolve our most challenging questions about what awakening involves and how it relates to the truth of our human situation right now. As foundational teachings for Dzogchen practitioners, the seven trainings are framed as contemplations on impermanence, the adventitiousness of happiness and its short duration, the multiple causes of death, the meaninglessness of our worldly activities, reliance on the Buddha's good qualities, the teacher's pith instructions and ultimately nonconceptual meditation on bliss and emptiness, clarity and emptiness and reality itself.
