Markus Lüpertz Markus Lüpertz, 2009 Anti abstract Markus Lüpertz has never believed in the purely representational purpose of art but in his own words has always been searching for the potential picture and thus doesn't feel bound by any one style Precisely for this reason he has succeeded in freely creating works from a vast fund of artistic and historic cultural material devising coded paintings that bear his emphatic signature and which are themselves redolent of a mature and energetic freedom which is in turn regarded by many a generation of artists as exemplary In this way younger artists such as Peter Doig Tal R or Thomas Houseago have been avid fans for some time now The exhibition and the comprehensive accompanying catalogue set out to investigate the large gesture as well as to explore Lüpertz's conscious play with the role of the artist duly presenting his multifaceted oeuvre and his passion and intellectual rigour in a large selection of 150 paintings and sculptures including a number of early works which still have the capacity to surprise one today They range from the early examples of the dithyrambic anti abstract painting from the 1960s with their proximity to pop art to the intensive engagement with the mythological and classical canon of themes during the past few decades all of which is impressively accompanied by an extensive section containing photographic documents The retrospective exhibition held at the Kunst und Ausstellungshalle der Bundesrepublik Deutschland Bonn builds on a successful series of exhibitions featuring leading German painters over the past twenty years placing Lüpertz alongside artists such as Gerhard Richter Sigmar Polke and Georg Baselitz Exhibition Kunst und Ausstellungshalle der Bundesrepublik Deutschland Bonn 09 10 2009 17 01 2010

1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period Flash Art, 1988
