Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue IV, 1970      The One Mediator, the Saints, and Mary Hugh George Anderson, J. Francis Stafford, Joseph A. Burgess, 1992      Faithful Teaching Lowell G. Almen, Denis J. Madden, 2023-12-05 For more than fifty years Lutherans and Catholics in the United States have listened to the word of God in dialogue with one another The conversation has borne great fruit in overcoming past misunderstandings prejudices and even at times enmity between the two communions It has fostered mutual appreciation respect and significant agreement on what were once thought to be irreconcilable doctrinal differences But as major changes in church and society accelerate the process by which communions make judgments and teach them to the faithful is of vital importance Faithful Teaching is the twelfth dialogue of the U S Lutheran Catholic Dialogue It seeks greater mutual understanding of the two communions respective processes of faithful teaching It is offered in the hope that such understanding will contribute to our common efforts to witness more faithfully to the gospel of Jesus Christ in the world In challenging times the call to continue to preach and teach the gospel together resounds with new urgency      Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue, I-III Paul C. Empie, Thomas Austin Murphy, 1974

Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue Paul C. Empie, 1981      The Hope of Eternal Life Lowell G. Almen, Richard J. Sklba, 2011 Our churches affirm that death cannot destroy the communion with God of those redeemed and justified The nature of the life that the justified departed share with God cannot be described in great detail and in this life it remains a great mystery Nevertheless Catholics and Lutherans share the sure and certain hope that the justified departed are in Christ and enjoy the rest that belongs to those who have run the race This common statement of Round XI offers fresh insights into some issues that proved contentious in the debates of the sixteenth century Among the issues explored in this dialogue were continuity in the communion of saints prayers for or about the dead the meaning of death purification an interim state between death and the final general judgment and the promise of resurrection Agreements are affirmed on the basis of new insights as readers will discover in this statement of Round XI      Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue United States.
