The Poems of François Villon François Villon, 1982 This new bilingual edition of the 15th century poet's work incorporates recent scholarship Poems François Villon, 2013 One of the most original and influential European poets of the Middle Ages François Villon took his inspiration from the streets taverns and jails of Paris Villon was a subversive voice speaking from the margins of society He wrote about love and sex money trouble the thieving rich and the consolations of good food and wine His work is striking in its directness wit and gritty urban realism Villon's writing spurred the development of the psychologically complex first person voice in lyric poetry He has influenced generations of avant garde poets and artists Arthur Rimbaud and Paul Verlaine have emulated Villon's poetry Claude Debussy set it to music and Bertolt Brecht adapted it for the stage Ezra Pound championed Villon's poetry and became largely responsible for its impact on modern verse With David Georgi's ingenious translation English speaking audiences finally have a text that captures the riotous energy and wordplay of the original With a newly revised French text that reflects the latest scholarship this bilingual edition also features inviting and informative notes that illuminate the nuances of Villon's poems and the world of medieval Paris The Lyrical Poems of François Villon François Villon, Algernon Charles Swinburne, Dante Gabriel Rossetti, William Ernest Henley, Léonie Adams, Robert Louis Stevenson, John Payne, 1979 The lyrical poems of François Villon François Villon, 1979 Poems of François Villon François Villon, 2001 Bilingual edition of the medieval French poet ideal for both the general reader and the scholar The Poems of Francois Villon François Villon, This bilingual edition of the 15th century poet's work incorporates recent scholarship Complete Poems of François Villon François Villon, 1968 Some poems have parallel French text English translations The Poetry of François Villon Jane H. predecessors He explores the influence of poets such as Francois Villon Guido Cavalcanti Robert Burns Robert Browning Algernon Charles Swinburne and Walt Whitman on Pound s lyrical style For Stark Pound s multi vocalism arises out of his interest in dialect and the acoustic qualities of speech which leads to a modern barbarous language marked by polysemy and heterogeneity Book Notes Illustrated ,1924 Telling the Story in the Middle Ages Kathryn A. Duys,Elizabeth Nicole Emery,Laurie Postlewate,2015 Much of our modern understanding of medieval society and cultures comes through the stories people told and the way they told them Storytelling was for this period not only entertainment it was central to the law religious ritual and teaching as well as the primary mode of delivering news The essays in this volume raise and discuss a number of questions concerning the strategies contexts and narratological features of medieval storytelling They look particularly at who tells the story the audience how a story is told and performed and the manuscript and social context for such tales Laurie Postlewate is Senior Lecturer Department of French Barnard College Kathryn Duys is Associate Professor Department of English and Foreign Languages University of St Francis Elizabeth Emery is Professor of French Montclair State University
