M. Fethullah Gulen Light Incorporated, The, 2002-01-01 M. Fethullah Gulen: Essays – Perspectives – Opinions Tughra Books, 2004-01-01 An intellectual with a distinctive spiritual charisma a prolific writer and poet M Fethullah G len has been an extremely effective and popular scholar of Islam for the last 3 decades This work presents G len through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media It is by no means a comprehensive presentation of his life and influence upon millions of people rather it is meant to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of G len s message and what it has accomplished over the years M.F. Gülen Fethullah Gülen, 2002 Presents Gulen through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media This book aims to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of Gulen s message and what it has accomplished over the years

A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton, 2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse contemporary and historical Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments The result is a multi faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination self reflection and collaborative service Islamophobia and Radicalization John L. Esposito, Derya Iner, 2018-10-13 While the themes of radicalization and Islamophobia have been broadly addressed by academia to date there has been little investigation of the crosspollination between the two Is Islamophobia a significant catalyst or influence on radicalization and recruitment How do radicalization and Islamophobia interact operate feed one another and ultimately pull societies toward polar extremes in domestic and foreign policy The wide ranging and global contributions collected here explore these questions through perspectives grounded in sociology political theory psychology and religion The volume provides an urgently needed and timely examination of the root causes of both radicalization and Islamophobia the cultural construction and consumption of radical and Islamophobic discourses the local and global contexts that fertilize these extreme stances and finally the everyday Muslim in the shadow of these opposing but equally vociferous forces Embracing the World Ori Z. Soltes, 2013-08-07 This book is not a comprehensive study of Rumi and G len but it seeks to explore the places where the thought of the one is echoed in the thinking of the other either overtly or indirectly and to note ways in which the opposite is true that G len diverges from Rumi The book is also seeking to suggest some of the larger contexts in which the thinking of both resides Given the wide ranging aspects of their respective writings it should not be surprising if minimally we can find important foundation stones in both philosophy and theology in the edifices that they each construct Minority Religions in Europe and the Middle East George D.

Chryssides,2018-08-06 Minority religions not only New Religious Movements are explored in this innovative book including the predicament of ancient religions such as Zoroastrianism old new religions such as Baha i and traditional religions that are minorities elsewhere The book is divided into two parts the gathering of data on religious minorities mapping and the ways in which governments and interest groups respond to them monitoring The international group examine which new religions exist in particular countries what their uptake is and how allegiance can be ascertained They explore a range of issues faced by minority religions encompassing official state recognition and registration unequal treatment in comparison with a dominant religion how changes in government can affect how they fare the extent to which members are free to practise their faith how they sometimes seek to influence politics and how they can be affected by harassment and persecution Bringing together debates concerning the social and political issues facing new religions in Europe and the Middle East this collection extends its focus to Middle Eastern minority faiths enabling exposition of spiritual movements such as the G len Movement Paganism in Israel and the Zoroastrians in Tehran

Conversations on Fethullah Gülen and the Hizmet Movement Peter Barnes,Gregory Baum,2015-12-16 This book entitled Conversations on Fethullah G len and the Hizmet Movement Dreaming for a Better World is intended to represent an open perspective on the influence of the Hizmet Movement including Fethullah Gülen in particular on the theme of dreaming for a better world based on a variety of Christian and Muslim world views. This theme is approached from three specific perspectives: education and an emphasis on interfaith and intercultural dialogue; a comparison of various spiritualities; and a consideration of the shared dreams of the two religions. The essays in this volume are adapted from talks presented by eleven authors from Canada and the United States at the Gülen Symposium at Carleton University in October 2009. The panel discussion that followed the individual presentations enhanced the overall theme of dreaming for a better world. The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes.

The House of Service David Tittensor, 2014. David Tittensor offers a groundbreaking new perspective on the Gülen movement: a Turkish Muslim educational activist network that emerged in the 1960s and has grown into a global empire with an estimated worth of 25 billion. Named after its leader Fethullah Gülen, the movement has established more than 1,000 secular educational institutions in over 140 countries, aiming to provide holistic education that incorporates both spirituality and the secular sciences. Despite the movement's success, little is known about how its schools are run or how Islam is operationalized. Drawing on thirteen months of ethnographic fieldwork in Turkey, Tittensor explores the movement's ideology and how it is practiced in the schools. His interviews with both teachers and graduates from Africa, Indonesia, Central Asia, and Turkey show that the movement is a missionary organization but of a singular kind: its goal is not simply widespread religious conversion but a quest to recoup those Muslims who have apparently lost their way and to show non-Muslims that Muslims can embrace modernity and integrate into the wider community. Tittensor also examines the movement's operational side and shows how the schools represent an example of Muhammad Yunus's social business model: a business with a social cause at its heart. The House of Service is an insightful exploration of one of the world's largest transnational Muslim associations and will be invaluable for those seeking to understand how Islam will be perceived and practiced in the future.

African Contextual Realities Rodney L. Reed, 2018-08-14. Everyone who has eyes to see acknowledges the growing importance of the African church to the future of global Christianity. But what does it mean for the church to take root in Africa? How should the message of the gospel and the practice of Christianity be contextualized for Africa? African Contextual Realities addresses many of the questions surrounding contextualization from a practical point of view and is the fruit of the 6th Annual Conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology held in Nairobi in 2016. The book explores such questions as: In what ways should the mission of God be universally recognizable in every cultural context? In our efforts to contextualize, how do we avoid compromising the very gospel we are to proclaim? How can the African church wean itself away from dependency on the Western church? How does Christianity speak into some of the cultural and social issues arising out of contemporary African settings, issues like widow cleansing, Christian-Muslim relations, and peace building? All those who are interested to learn more about the contextualization of African Christianity will find this volume to be an important resource

Phan, Jonathan Ray, 2014-08-01 Our contemporary world is fast becoming religiously diverse in a variety of ways Thanks to globalization and migration to mention only two current worldwide trends people of diverse and sometimes mutually hostile faiths are now sharing neighborhoods and encountering one another's religious traditions on a daily basis For scholars in religious studies and theology the issue to be examined is whether religious diversity is merely the result of historical development and social interaction or whether it is inherent in the object of belief part of the very structure of faith and our attempts to understand and express it The essays in this volume range from explorations of the impact of religious diversity on religious studies to examples of interfaith encounter and dialogue and current debates on Christian theology of religion These essays examine not only the theoretical issues posed by religious pluralism to the study of religion and Christian theology but also concrete cases in which religious pluralism has been a bone of contention Together they open up new vistas for further conversation on the nature and development of religious pluralism
