Wanke,2021-08-10 What does a one hour contemporary orchestral piece by Georg Friedrich Haas have in common with a series of glitch noise electronic tracks by Pan Sonic This book proposes that despite their differences they share a particular understanding of sound that is found across several quite distinct genres of contemporary art music the ecstatic materialist perspective Sound in the ecstatic materialist perspective is considered as a material mass or element unfolding in time encountered by a listener for whom the experience of that sound exceeds the purely sonic without becoming entirely divorced from its materiality It is material by virtue of the focus on the texture consistency and density of sound it is ecstatic in the etymological sense that is to say that the experience of this sound involves an instability an inclination to depart from material appearance an ephemeral and transitory impulse in the very perception of sound to something beyond but still related to it By examining musical pieces from spectralism to electroacoustic domains from minimalism to glitch electronica and dubstep this book identifies the key intrinsic characteristics of this musical perspective To fully account for this perspective on sonic experience listener feedback and interviews with composers and performers are also incorporated Sound in the ecstatic materialist perspective is the common territory where composers sound artists performers and listeners converge Louis Spohr's Grand Violin School Louis Spohr,1833 Women in Nineteenth-Century Czech Musical Culture Anja Bunzel,Christopher Campo-Bowen,2024-02-23 This volume focuses on the circumstances of women's music making in the vibrant and diverse environment of the Czech lands during the nineteenth century It sheds light on little known women musicians while also considering more well known works and composers from new woman centric perspectives It shows how the unique environment of Habsburg Central Europe especially Bohemia and Lower Austria intersects with gender to reveal hitherto unexplored networks that challenge the methodological nationalism of music studies as well as the discipline s continued emphasis on singular canonical figures The main areas of enquiry address aspects of performance and identity both within the Czech lands and abroad women s impact on social life with a view to different private semiprivate and public contexts and networks and compositional aesthetics in musical works by and about women analysed through the lens of piano works song choir music and opera always with the reception of these works in mind
