The Law Reports ,1912 The Law Reports of the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting Great Britain. High Court of Justice. Chancery Division,1912 Law Reports Under the Superintendence and Control of the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for England and Wales. Supreme Court of Judicature : Cases Determined in the Chancery Division and in Bankruptcy and Lunacy and on Appeal Therefrom in the Court of Appeal ,1912 From the Outside Looking In Reid L. Neilson,Matthew J. Grow,2016 This book contains fifteen essays from leading historians and religious studies scholars each originally presented as the annual Tanner lecture at the conference of the Mormon History Association Approaching Mormon history from a variety of angles such as gender identity creation American imperialism and globalization these scholars all experts in their fields but new to the study of Mormon history itself ask intriguing questions about Mormonism s past and future and analyze familiar sources in unexpected ways The Twenty-First-Century Legacy of the Beatles Michael Brocken,2016-03-03 It has taken Liverpool almost half a century to come to terms with the musical cultural and now economic legacy of the Beatles and popular music At times the group was negatively associated with sex and drugs images surrounding rock music deemed unacceptable by the city fathers and unworthy of their support Liverpoolian musicians believe that the musical legacy of the Beatles can be a burden especially when the British music industry continues to brand the latest white male group to emerge from Liverpool as the next Beatles Furthermore Liverpoolians of perhaps differing ethnicities find images of four white boys with guitars and drums not only problematic in a musical roots sense but for them culturally devoid of meaning and musically generic The musical and cultural legacy of the Beatles remains complex In a post industrial setting in which both popular and traditional heritage tourism have emerged as providers of regular employment on Merseyside major players in what might be described as a Beatles music tourism industry have constructed new interpretations of the past and placed these in such an order as to re confirm re create and re work the city as a symbolic place that both authentically and contextually represents the Beatles The Contemporary Law Review, with Current English and Foreign Decisions ,1913 The Solicitors' Journal and Weekly Reporter ,1912 The Law Journal Reports ,1912 The Swimmer Patrick Barkham,2023-05-25 BEST BOOK OF 2023 ACCORDING TO THE NEWSTATESMAN AND OBSERVER The Swimmer is a wonderful original achievement teeming with stories glittering with images and experimental in form and tone Robert Macfarlane Roger Deakin author of the immortal Waterlog was a man of many parts maverick ad man cider maker teacher environmentalist music promoter and filmmaker But above all he was the restorer of ancient Walnut Tree Farm in Suffolk the heartland where he wrote about all natural life with rare attention intimacy precision and poetry Roger Deakin was unique and so too is this joyful work of creative biography told primarily in the words of the subject himself with support from a chorus of friends family colleagues and lovers Delving deep into Deakin s library of words Patrick Barkham draws from notebooks diaries letters and recordings to conjure his voice back to glorious life in these pages A rich strange and compelling work of creative memoir that beautifully honours and elevates the life and work of its subject Alex Preston Observer The All England Law Reports Reprint George Frederick Leslie Bridgman, Lawrence Adrian Whitfeld, 1969 Vols for 1558 1834 selected from early authorised reports vols for 1835 1935 selected from the Law times reports Writing the Rural Professor Paul J Cloke, Professor Marcus A Doel, Dr David Matless, PhD, Professor Nigel Thrift, Dr Martin Phillips, 1994-07-28 This book arises out of an ESRC project devoted to an examination of the economic social and cultural impacts of the service class on rural areas The research was an attempt to document these impacts through close empirical work in a set of three rural communities but something happened on the way The authors found that the rural became a real sticking point Respondents used it in different ways as a bludgeon as a badge as a barometer to signify many different things security identity community domesticity gender sexuality ethnicity nearly always by drawing on many different sources the media the landscape friends and kin animals It became abundantly clear that the rural whatever chameleon form it took was a prime and deeply felt determinant of the actions of many respondents Yet it was also clear that to the authors they possessed no theoretical framework that could allow them to negotiate the rural to deconstruct its diverse nature as a category Rather each of the extended essays in the book is an attempt by each author to draw out one aspect of the rural by drawing on different traditions in social and cultural theory

Contemporary Literary Landscapes Daniel Weston, 2017-05-15 Writing landscapes inevitably occurs in dialogue with a long textual and pictorial tradition but first hand experience also provides key stimuli to many writers accounts This monograph employs a comparative lens to offer an intervention in debates between literary scholars who focus on genre and those cultural geographers who are concerned that self perpetuating literary tropes marginalize practical engagements Suggesting that representation and experience are not competing paradigms for landscape Daniel Weston argues that in the hands of contemporary writers they are complementary forces building composite articulations of place In five case studies Weston matches a writer to a mode of apprehending place W G Sebald with picturing Ciaran Carson with mapping Iain Sinclair with walking Robert Macfarlane with engaging Kathleen Jamie with noticing Drawing out a range of sites at which representation and experience interact Weston s argument is twofold first interaction between traditions of landscape writing and direct experience of landscapes are mutually influential and second writers increasingly deploy style form and descriptive aesthetics to recover the experience of place in the poetics of the text itself As Weston shows emergent landscape writing shuttles across generic boundaries reflecting the fact that the landscapes traversed are built out of a combination of real and imaginary sources Globalization and International Investment Fiona Beveridge, 2017-07-05 This volume brings together a broad range of articles on international law and foreign investment which together provide a contemporary overview of the diverse range of issues and perspectives which continue to exercise policy makers and scholars alike Central to this collection is the tension between market oriented reforms on the one hand raising issues of market access and protection of investors and corporate social responsibility discourses on the other raising concerns about environmental protection and respect for human and labour rights Regional perspectives on these issues reveal differing priorities and approaches Journal of Mormon History ,2009 The Law Times ,1911 The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction, 1945-2010 David James,2015-10-06 The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 provides insight into the critical traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain Marxism and World Politics Alexander Anievas,2012-07-26 This book brings together internationally distinguished scholars from History Philosophy Development Studies Geography and International Relations IR to examine recent developments in Marxist approaches to world politics Offering original and stimulating analyses of subjects traditionally at the forefront of Marxist studies of world politics the collection also considers issues which have yet to be fully explored within a number of disciplines Examining a wide array of topics ranging from the imperialism globalization debate the connections between social structures and foreign relations the role of identity and imperialist norms in world politics to the relationship between Marxist and Realist IR Theory the contributors seek to further theoretical discussions and their implications for emancipatory radical politics These contributions are structured around two major themes The relationship between capitalist modernity and the states system in explaining the changing patterns of inter state conflict and cooperation The debates within Marxist and IR discourses on the theoretical significance of the international covering topics including uneven and combined development and passive revolution An impressive collection that seeks to advance dialogue and research Marxism and World Politics will be of interest to students and scholars of IR International Political Economy Political Science and Historical Sociology The Missionary Magazine and Chronicle ,1855 Nature and Culture Sarah Pilgrim,Jules N. Pretty,2010-09-23 There is a growing recognition that the diversity of life comprises both biological and cultural diversity But this division is not universal and in many cases has been deepened by the common disciplinary divide between the natural and social sciences and our apparent need to manage and control nature This book goes beyond divisive definitions and investigates the bridges linking biological and cultural diversity The international team of authors explore the common drivers of loss and argue that policy responses should target both forms of diversity in a novel integrative approach to conservation thus reducing the gap between science policy and practice While conserving nature alongside human cultures presents unique challenges this book forcefully shows that any hope for saving biological diversity is predicated on a concomitant effort to appreciate and protect cultural diversity Thinking Through the Environment Mark J. Smith,2005-09-30 This reader brings together material from ecological thought environmental policy environmental philosophy social and political thought historical sociology and cultural studies The extracts tell the story of the way the natural environment has been understood in the modern world and how this has recently been questioned as contemporary societies are seen as characterised by uncertainty and complexity The literature guides the reader through the conventional grounds for thinking about rights and obligations in relation to future generations non human animals and the biotic communities bringing each into question This then leads into a critical examination of social and political theories and their capacity for drawing on ecological thought Each of the seven sections of readings is introduced by the editor who locates the set of readings within the specific themes and issues at the heart of each section This broad reaching and thought provoking set of readings stresses the diversity of response to environmental problems both within and between anthropocentric and ecocentric approaches and will encourage the reader to examine how they are manifested in the areas of environmental ethics policy analysis and social and political theory
