Tiso,Anthony C. Zinni,2025-08-05 Colonel Tiso s experience with operational planning and combat service with multinational forces in Iraq provides an exceptional background for this riveting exciting and most interesting book that superbly captures the challenges of Coalition Warfare Lieutenant General Retired Joseph W Kinzer USA The decision to not deploy reoriented trained Iraqi divisions and other allied forces in numbers significant enough to adequately stabilize the situation in Iraq in 2003 04 resulted in significant shortages of manpower and equipment that eventually led to a less than satisfactory ending to the campaign and significantly challenged the entire Coalition effort in the first year of Operation Iraqi Freedom. The roles and missions assumed by allies were vitally important in the under resourced effort to bring order to the chaos of Iraq but would remain relatively unheralded throughout most of the campaign. Colonel Tiso's account of this time offers unique insights into the challenges of planning the Iraqi campaign and the intricacies and challenges of multinational service through the lens of his assignments as a war planner at U.S. Central Command, Senior Military Adviser of the Arab Peninsula Shield Force and the Polish led Multinational Division Central South and Chief of Staff and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations C-3 of the Coalition Military Assistance Training Team tasked to develop the New Iraqi Army. His observations cast significant light on the missions these units undertook and the challenges they confronted. His firsthand account of operational planning for war in Iraq captures the concerns of the military planners and senior commanders to liberate and stabilize the country enabling the reader to better understand the challenges of operational war planning, coalition warfare, the difficulty of stabilizing Iraq after the fall of Baghdad, the development of the New Iraqi Army and ultimately a deeper understanding of America's long war in Iraq. Armor, 1998. The magazine of mobile warfare.

From Storm to Freedom John R. Ballard, 2010-04-15. From Storm to Freedom analyzes and assesses the strategic interaction between Iraq and the United States from 1990 to 2009 from the perspective of a single if discontinuous conflict. With this longer term perspective covering both Operation Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom, the book clarifies the long road of war against Iraq. This work recounts, presents the evolution of counterinsurgency operations from 2003 to 2009, explains the misunderstanding and miscommunication between government leaders in Iraq and the United States throughout the period and describes the ineffective nature of the UN sanctions, the inefficient efforts of the Clinton Administration and the impact of the preemptive strategy of the Bush Administration that led to conflict in 2002. The book first identifies the influence of the Vietnam era on the use of U.S. military power and the decision for war in 1990. The book then outlines the important factors of Iraqi history and culture which dominated relations between the two nations during the 1980s and 1990s. In subsequent chapters, the 1991 campaign of Desert Storm is analyzed from both the U.S. and Iraqi perspectives, then the military, economic and diplomatic actions of the period between the two more conventional military parts of the conflict are assessed. The final chapters analyze the highly successful 2003 conventional campaign from both perspectives, the ineffective post war stabilization operations in Iraq which began with the failure to transition under the Coalition Provisional Authority and the eventual development and implementation of a more effective strategy in Iraq combining new doctrine and a Surge of forces to protect the population in a renewed counterinsurgency campaign. In a concluding chapter, the key lessons for the future are reviewed, including the importance of effective strategic decision making and the mindset required to prosecute modern war. Hearings on National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2001--H.R. 4205 and Oversight of Previously Authorized Programs, Before the Committee on Armed Services, House of Representatives, One Hundred Sixth Congress,
