Macmillan Anthology Of Australian Literature:

The Macmillan Anthology of Australian Literature K. L. Goodwin, Alan Lawson, 1990 Poems stories letters and extracts from novels plays and journals present a great variety of responses to Australia and to the art of writing Items have been arranged into 12 groupings that reflect different ways of seeing the material of Australian writing Each section has its own introduction Problems are explained theories and contexts for a wider understanding are offered The book includes biographical guides to all authors and a full chronological table of events in the literary history of Australia The

Macmillan Anthology of Australian Literature Ken Leslie Goodwin, Alan Lawson, 1994 The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica

Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature's responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts The Cambridge Companion to Australian Literature

Elizabeth Webby, 2000-08-21 An indispensable reference for the study of Australian literature Teaching Australian Literature Brenton Doecke, Larissa McLean Davies, Philip Mead, 2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy

Bioregion and Indigeneity in Literary Imagination Aleena Manoharan,2023-06-16 This book highlights the representation of the interface between nature and culture in literary texts and argues that bioregional exegesis of indigenous literatures sensitizes us to place based cultural nuances and can contribute to alleviating the eco cultural apartheid of the modern era Though the bioregional concept has been in vogue since 1970s it has not been adequately adopted into the field of literary criticism This book is a comprehensive study on the concept of the bioregion and is distinctive in three ways Firstly it argues that the bioregional concept hitherto used as a socio political tool can be theorized as an ecocritical tool to employ when reading literary works Secondly it provides a detailed analysis of the concept of bioregion marking out its characteristic features Thirdly in choosing to deal with Aboriginal plays the book again exhibits its distinctiveness in demonstrating how ecocritical concepts which hitherto have focused primarily on prose fictional works can be extended to magnify the scope of plays and performances

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

White Vanishing Elspeth Tilley,2012-01-01 The story of the vulnerable white person vanishing without trace into the harsh Australian landscape is a potent and compelling element in multiple genres of mainstream Australian culture It has been sung in Little Boy Lost brought to life on the big screen in Picnic at Hanging Rock immortalized in Henry Lawson s poems of lost tramps and preserved in the history books tales of Leichhardt or Burke and Wills wandering in mad circles A world wide audience has also witnessed the many layered and oddly strident nature of Australian disappearance symbolism in media coverage of contemporary disappearances such as those of Azaria Chamberlain and Peter Falconio White Vanishing offers a revealing and challenging re examination of Australian disappearance mythology exposing the political utility at its core Drawing on wide ranging examples of the white vanishing myth the book provides evidence that disappearance mythology encapsulates some of the most dominant and durable categories at the heart of white Australian culture and that many of those ideas have their origin in colonial mechanisms of inequality and oppression White Vanishing deliberately and perhaps controversially reminds readers that while power is never absolute or irresistible some narrative threads carry a particularly authoritative inheritance of ideas and power relations through time

The Oxford Companion to Australian Literature William Henry Wilde,Joy W. Hooton,B. G.

Andrews,1994 Unique in its field exhaustive in scope the Oxford Companion to Australian Literature offers a comprehensive account of Australian writing from European settlement in 1788 to the 1990s It presents the most important achievements in the fields of fiction poetry and drama and also covers non fictional prose in journals diaries biographies and autobiographies and the impact of key historical events on Australian literature Fully revised and updated the second edition contains 500 new entries bringing the total to 3050 reflects the greater influence and volume of women s and multicultural writing and includes major new articles on crime fiction and the immigrant experience Written in clear and accessible language this major reference belongs on the shelf of every library and every lover of world literature Australian National

Ballyn Jenney,1996 Uni-Wissen An Introduction to the Study of English and American Literature (English Version) Vera Nünning,Ansgar Nünning,2015-02-23 A compact introduction to the central subject matter approaches and research domains attention is paid primarily to the most important issues and categories of literary studies to the methodology of poetry drama narrative and media analysis and to the most important elements of English and American literary history German version Grundkurs anglistisch amerikanistische Literaturwissenschaft Print ISBN 9783129390290 epub 9783129391136 Literary History and Avant-Garde Poetics in the Antipodes A. J. Carruthers,2024-03-05 Avant garde poetry in the Antipodes causes all sorts of trouble for literary history It is an avant garde that seems to arrive too late and yet right on time In 1897 Christopher Brennan made his own version of Un Coup de Des the same year Mallarme published it in Cosmopolis In the 1940s the same period avant gardism was declared dead or fatally injured due to the Ern Malley affair Harry Hooton began writing a significant body of experimental poetry From the 1950s to the 1970s Australian Dada emerged belatedly through figures like Jas H Duke Tristan Tzara had previously sung Aboriginal songs at the Cabaret Voltaire in 1916 First Nations and Migrant poets then began reinventing avant garde poetry in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book maintains that such a confounding literary history poses a distinct challenge to the theories of the avant gardes we have become accustomed to and changes our perspective of avant garde time Transcultural Graffiti Russell West-Pavlov,2005 Transcultural Graffiti reads a range of texts prose poetry drama in several European languages as exemplars of diasporic writing The book scrutinizes contemporary transcultural literary creation for the manner in which it gives hints about the teaching of literary studies in our postcolonial globalizing era Transcultural Graffiti suggest that cultural work in particular transcultural work assembles and collates material from various cultures in their moment of meeting The teaching of such cultural collage in the classroom should equip students with the means to reflect upon and engage in cultural bricolage themselves in the present day The texts read from C saire s adaptation of Shakespeare s Tempest via the diaspora fictions of Marica Bodrozic or David Dabydeen to the post 9 11 poetry of New York poets are understood as graffiti like inscriptions the result of fleeting encounters in a swiftly changing public world Such texts provide impulses for a performative risk pedagogy capable of modelling the ways in which our constitutive individual and social narratives are constructed deconstructed and reconstructed today

A Companion to Postcolonial Studies Henry Schwarz, Sangeeta Ray, 2008-04-15 This volume examines the tumultuous changes that have occurred and are still occurring in the aftermath of European colonization of the globe from 1492 to 1947 Ranges widely over the major themes regions theories and practices of postcolonial study Presents original essays by the leading proponents of postcolonial study in the Americas Europe India Africa East and West Asia Provides clear introductions to the major social and political movements underlying colonization and decolonization accessible histories of the literature and culture and separate regions affected by European colonization Features introductory essays on the major thinkers and intellectual schools that have informed strategies of national liberation worldwide Offers an incisive summary of the long history and theory of modern European colonization in local detail and global scale

Crabtracks, 2021-12-28 The essays in this collection celebrate the signal achievement of Dieter Riemenschneider in helping found and consolidate the study of postcolonial anglophone literatures in Germany and Europe As well as poems a short story drawings of the Indian scene the first and abiding focus of this scholar s work and letters of reminiscence one quite grave there are revealing contributions of a literary historical nature on the establishment of anglophone especially African literatures as an academic discipline within Germany the UK and Northern Europe generally as well as a group of searching reflections on such topics of postcolonial import as globalization and the applicability of models to the literature of the indigene in Canada and Australia The largest section is devoted to individual topics each treatment implicitly keyed to approaches to the teaching of New Literatures texts Writers covered include Anita Desai landscape and memory Salman Rushdie painting in The Moor s Last Sigh Charlotte Bront imperial discourse in Jane Eyre Derek Walcott Omeros and cultural cohabitation and Witi Ihimaera his rewriting of Katherine Mansfield Topics dealt with include music and radio in West Africa the African literary hit parade the New Zealand prose poem Canadian and Australian war fiction the Middle Passage in the American and Caribbean novel Paul Theroux s uneasy relations with V S Naipaul and the colonial discourse of illness and recuperation The volume closes with Dieter Riemenschneider s very first and most recent critical essays the one a classic on Mulk Raj Anand the other a challenging and doubtless controversial thesis on postcolonial minority writing A select bibliography of Riemenschneider s work books edited publications journal articles and book contributions reviews and broadcasts rounds off this substantial collection

Peter Carey Keyvan Allahyari, 2023-04-11 Peter Carey The Making of a Global Novelist recounts Peter Carey s literary career from his emergence in the Australian literary scene as a contributor to local literary magazines to when he published his fiction exclusively with large conglomerate publishers As Australia s most decorated author for a period nearing half a century Carey s career gives unparalleled insights into the global contemporary publishing and the making of global literary prestige from the periphery and significant cultural currency for Australian literature and culture worldwide Carey s fiction is not only a product of the global dynamic in literary publishing of the last quarter of the twentieth century but also it holds something of its productive tension for Australian writing and writers Allahyari retraces the fraught synthesis of an individual literary proclivity with a growing commercial cultural appetite the coincidence of Carey s career with the conglomeration of global publishing pushed further towards anti elitist popular aesthetics Meanjin ,1996 Meanjin is a quarterly literary journal publishing the best new writing from established voices and emerging talents For over 70 years Meanjin has articulated questions of national importance questions of art culture policy and identity as well as introducing some of the greatest literary names Australia has ever produced
