Madam Millie Max Evans,2013-02-15 Mildred Clark Cusey was a whore a madam an entrepreneur and above all a survivor The story of Silver City Millie as she referred to herself is the story of one woman s personal tragedies and triumphs as an orphan a Harvey Girl waitress on the Santa Fe railroad a prostitute with innumerable paramours and a highly successful bordello businesswoman Millie broke the mold in so many ways and yet her life s story of survival was not unlike that of thousands of women who went West only to find that their most valuable assets were their physical beauty and their personality Petite at five feet tall with piercing blue eyes Millie captured men s attention by her very essence and her unmistakable joie de vivre Born to Italian immigrant parents near Kansas City she and her sister were orphaned early and separated from each other Millie learned hard lessons on the streets but she never gave up and she vowed to protect and support her ailing older sister Caught in a domestic squabble in her foster home Millie wound up in juvenile court with Harry Truman as her judge This would be only the first of many brushes in her life with prominent politicians When physicians diagnosed her sister with tuberculosis and recommended she move West to a Catholic home in Deming New Mexico Millie moved with her Expenses ran high and after a brief stint waiting tables as a Harvey Girl Millie found that her meager tips could easily be augmented by turning tricks Thus out of financial need and devotion to her sister Mildred Cusey turned to a life of prostitution and a career at which she soon excelled and became both rich and famous Ol' Max Evans Slim Randles,2004 In this biography of Max Evans learn why Charles Champlin Entertainment Arts editor emeritus Los Angeles Times said Max Evans is one of these guys you can take anywhere and still be ashamed of him Good Time Girls of Arizona and New Mexico Jan MacKell Collins,2019-08-21 As settlements and civilization moved West to follow the lure of mineral wealth and the trade of the Santa Fe Trail prostitution grew and flourished within the mining camps small towns and cities of the nineteenth century Southwest Whether escaping a bad home life lured by false advertising or seeking to subsidize their income thousands of women chose or were forced to enter an industry where they faced segregation and persecution fines and jailing and battled the other hazards of their profession Some dreamed of escape through marriage or retirement and some became infamous and even successful but more often found relief only in death An integral part of western history the stories of these women continue to fascinate readers and captivate the minds of historians today Arizona and New Mexico each had their share of working girls and madams like Sara Bowman and Dona Tules who remain notorious celebrities in the annals of history but Collins also includes the stories of lesser known women whose roles in this illicit trade help shape our understanding of the American West Frontier Madam June Read,2007-11-01 This is the first biography of Dell Burke whose estate sale drew national attention when she died in 1981 at age 93 Painstakingly researched for over five years June Willson Read s landmark history tells the story of a broken young woman who saw opportunities in the Alaskan gold rush the copper mines in Montana and the oil fields in Wyoming But it wasn t mining that made Burke s fortune she focused on the entertainment needs of the lonely men who poured into the uncharted west to strike it rich In 1919 the genteel and gracious Burke opened the Yellow Hotel brothel in Lusk Wyoming where she reigned for six decades until 1978 Although condemned for her profession she was beloved for her generosity and her devotion to the community For example during the Depression Burke financed Lusk s water power system and single handedly saved the town from going bankrupt Read interviewed locals historians and Burke descendents to present a fascinating story of a little known entrepreneurial powerhouse Restoring the Pitchfork Ranch A. Larger Than Life Ferenc Morton Szasz,2006 Larger than Life offers eleven essays that touch on New Mexico s history through its people places and events

Ferenc Morton Szasz: A Celebration and Selected Writings Mark T. Banker,2018-09-17 Ferenc Morton Szasz was a lifelong student who became a professor of history at the University of New Mexico As a one year appointment at the Albuquerque campus evolved into a forty year career Szasz glimpsed the predictable unpredictability that he would eventually discern as one of history's most enduring and elusive traits. The connections and consequences along the way forged a truly exceptional life and career. A master of the United States history survey, Szasz enthralled and inspired tens of thousands of students with energy, enthusiasm, provocative insights, and good will. Ambitious undergraduates regularly vied with graduate students for coveted seats in his upper level courses where he offered insights into World War II, American religious history, and popular culture. Szasz's interests, he insisted, were the ideas of the people and how they shift over time. In an era when historical scholarship became increasingly specialized, he pursued an eclectic array of research interests and challenged his doctoral students to do the same. The ten selections of Szasz's writings that are the primary content of this volume balance insights into history's great moments with attention to events and details often overlooked by more conventional historians. Szasz's crisp, accessible prose reveals both the unique and universal in the human experience and offers heartfelt glimpses into humanity's paradoxical promises and perils.

Back cover New Mexico Magazine, 2002 Montana, 2003 A Cherokee Encyclopedia Robert J. Conley, 2007-12-16. A Cherokee Encyclopedia is a quick reference guide for many of the people, places, and things connected to the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokees, as well as for the other officially recognized Cherokee groups, the Cherokee Nation and the Eastern Band of Cherokees.

From A Cherokee Encyclopedia Crowe, Amanda. Amanda Crowe was born in 1928 in the Qualla Cherokee community in North Carolina. She was drawing and carving at the age of 4 and selling her work at age 8. She received her MFA from the Chicago Arts Institute in 1952 and then studied in Mexico at the Instituto Allende in San Miguel under a John Quincy Adams fellowship. She had been away from home for 12 years when the Cherokee Historical Association invited her back to teach art and woodcarving at the Cherokee High School.

Fields, Richard. Richard Fields was Chief of the Texas Cherokees from 1821 until his death in 1827. Assisted by Bowl and others, he spent much time in Mexico City, first with the Spanish government and later with the government of Mexico, trying to acquire a clear title to their land. They also had to contend with rumors started by white Texans regarding their intended alliances with Comanches, Tawakonis, and other Indian tribes to attack San Antonio.

Three Roads to Magdalena David Wallace Adams, 2016-06-03. Someday Candelaria Garcia said to the author, "you will get all the stories." It was a tall order in Magdalena, New Mexico, a once-booming frontier town where Navajo, Anglo, and Hispanic people have lived in shifting, sometimes separate, sometimes overlapping worlds for well over a hundred years. But these were the stories, and this was the world that David Wallace Adams set out to map in a work that would capture the intimate, complex history of growing up in a Southwest borderland. At the intersection of memory, myth, and history, his book asks what it was like to be a child in a land of ethnic and cultural boundaries. The answer, as close to all the stories as one might hope to get, captures the diverse, ever-changing experience of a Southwest community defined by cultural borders and the nature and role of children in defending and crossing those borders. In this book, we listen to the voices of elders who knew Magdalena nearly a century ago and the voices of a younger generation who negotiated the community's shifting boundaries. Their stories take us to sheep and cattle ranches Navajo ceremonies Hispanic fiestas mining camps First Communion classes ranch house dances Indian boarding school drill fields high school social activities and children s rodeos Here we learn how class religion language and race influenced the creation of distinct identities and ethnic boundaries but also provided opportunities for cross cultural interactions and intimacies And we see the critical importance of education in both reinforcing differences and opening a shared space for those differences to be experienced and bridged In this Adams s work offers a close up view of the transformation of one multicultural community but also of the transformation of childhood itself over the course of the twentieth century A unique blend of oral social and childhood history Three Roads to Magdalena is a rare living document of conflict and accommodation across ethnic boundaries in our ever evolving multicultural society Published in Cooperation with the William P Clements Center for Southwest Studies Southern Methodist University New Mexico Historical Review Lansing Bartlett Bloom,Paul A. F. Walter,2002 SIROW ,2002
