Madame De Lambert 1647 1733 Ou Le Feminisme Moral:

Madame de Lambert (1647-1733), ou, Le féminisme moral Marie-José Fassiotto, 1984 Connue pour son célèbre salon de l'hôtel de Nevers où elle reçut pendant plus de vingt ans 1710-1733 des écrivains des savants et des artistes tels Montesquieu Fontenelle et Marivaux la Marquise de Lambert jouit aussi en son temps d'une solide réputation littéraire Représentant un aspect essentiel de la pensée française au début du XVIII^e siècle elle fut en outre une féministe convaincue Sa pensée féministe pendant à tout d'abord et bien souvent faussement interprétée certains trouvant la Marquise trop timide dans son féminisme d'autres allant jusqu'à l'accuser d'antiféminisme même L'itude détaillée de son essai Reflexions nouvelles sur les femmes le plus original et le plus personnel de tous ses écrits montre bien au contraire que Madame de Lambert mettant directement le monde masculin en accusation sut passer et s'élever de constatations hardies de réprimandes et d'accusations vives et manifestes de fortes et franches revendications Et que ce faisant elle a bel et bien posé de nouveaux jalons pour la condition féminine

Writings by Pre-Revolutionary French Women Colette H. Winn, Anne R. Larsen, 2017-09-29 The present volume covers 30 Pre Revolutionary French women providing a representative sampling of their manifold and varied contributions to intellectual and cultural history This volume is unique in its grouping of essentially French writers from the Pre Revolutionary period The authors included here range from those prominent because of their social position or literary fame to those slowly becoming part of a new canon of Old Regime women writers authors whose works were known to their contemporaries but who have slipped into near invisibility in the following centuries until their recent rediscovery and reassessment

The Meaning of Literature Timothy J. Reiss, 2018-10-18 In this searching and wide ranging book Timothy J. Reiss seeks to explain how the concept of literature that we accept today first took shape between the mid sixteenth century and the early seventeenth a time of cultural transformation Drawing on literary political and philosophical texts from Central and Western Europe Reiss maintains that by the early eighteenth century divergent views concerning gender politics science taste and the role of the writer had consolidated and literature came to be regarded as an embodiment of universal values During the second half of the sixteenth century Reiss asserts conceptual consensus was breaking down and many Western Europeans found themselves overwhelmed by a sense of social decay A key element of this feeling of catastrophe Reiss points out was the assumption that thought and letters could not affect worldly reality Demonstrating that a political discourse replaced the no longer viable discourse of theology he looks closely at the functions that letters served in the reestablishment of order He traces the development of the idea of literature in texts by Montaigne Spenser Sidney Shakespeare Lope de Vega and Cervantes among others through seventeenth century writings by such authors as Davenant Boileau Dryden Rymer Anne Dacier Astell and Leibniz to eighteenth century works including those of Addison Pope Batteux and Hutcheson Burke Lessing Kant and Wollstonecraft Reiss follows key strands of the tradition particularly the concept of the sublime into the nineteenth century through a reading of Hegel's Aesthetics The Meaning of Literature will contribute to current debates concerning cultural dominance and multiculturalism It will be welcomed by anyone interested in literature and in cultural studies including literary theorists and historians comparatists intellectual historians historical sociologists and philosophers

The Iron Pen Julia Epstein,1989 Best known as a novelist and social satirist whose work anticipated Jane Austen's Frances Burney 1752-1840 has also been recognized as an important writer in the history of feminist literature Julia Epstein now offers a new interpretation of Burney and her work that Burney's anger at the economic and social conditions of women emerges in her writing in moments of barely contained violence and that her representations of violence and hostility provide a key to Burney's literary power The Iron Pen situates Burney's writings within the sociopolitical context of the late eighteenth century and proposes a new approach to the development of the novel of manners In addition Epstein presents a comprehensive study of the reception of Burney's work from its original publication to the present This study illuminates the history of popular book reviewing and of academic literary scholarship as political enterprises Beginning with an examination of Burney's journals and letters including an account of the mastectomy she underwent without anesthesia while in exile in Paris in 1811 Epstein then offers readings of Burney's four novels paying close attention to the depiction of repressed anger and violence that characterizes all her work The final section traces critics' responses to Burney's published writings from 1778 when her first novel Evelina appeared anonymously to the present in readings informed by psychoanalysis post structuralism and feminist literary theory Drawing upon the work of critics of eighteenth century culture such as Mary Poovey Ellen Pollak Ruth Perry and Margaret Doody Epstein is successful in two ways in combining an analysis of a set of texts with an analysis of a particular set of cultural assumptions and in her intentional underscoring of the complex nature of critical practice

Myth, Man, and Sovereign Saint Maureen Slattery, 1985 This work demonstrates a methodology to extract the full cultural richness of a medieval text composed within a largely oral culture Maureen Slattery re examines the traditional literary manner of reading Joinville s classic medieval portrait of the famous thirteenth century king and saint Louis IX of France By distingui shing and analyzing the royal motifs of Joinville s oral eye witness and written sources the study illustrates a plurality of social meanings surrounding King Louis Joinville s oral sources speak the collective popular myths and primi tive mentalities surrounding the French monarchy His visual witness one of the first lay accounts of a Capelian king individualizes Louis with the emerging modern vision of noble lineage His written sources eulogize the king within clerical literary traditions of the public monarch and sovereign saint This textual analysis unearths distinct layers of tradition surrounding the king Both Louis and Joinville emerge very different from what they were in earlier scholarship

Marivaux and Reason D. J. Culpin, 1993 This publication is a study of the ideas of Marivaux the French novelist and playwright It covers the fields of literature history and intellectual history and aims first to shed light on both Marivaux the man and his writing and then to situate him within the context of the early Enlightenment The author identifies Marivaux with the philosophical tradition of innate ideas which was increasingly displaced among intellectuals by materialism as the Enlightenment progressed The consequences of this affiliation are followed through in successive chapters devoted to metaphysics morality religion and politics A substantial conclusion suggests a number of influences that might have combined to form Marivaux s intellectual outlook This book is the only work to provide a synthesis of Marivaux s ideas that then acts as the frame work for resolving contradictory interpretations of his work that have been offered by other scholars
