Madame La Mort And Other Plays:

Madame La Mort and Other Plays Rachilde, 1998 Rachilde was the pseudonym of Marguerite Eymery Vallette 1860 1953 a woman of powerful personality who made her place at the very center of the Symbolist movement in fin de siècle France Though relatively unknown in America Rachilde had a significant influence on the course of French and Western literature and theater She was a pioneer of antirealistic drama and the first to use the term absurd to characterize the new kind of theater that would be a pretext for a dream Rachilde's sexual politics and sardonic humor make her plays more interesting and more performable today than many of those of her more famous contemporaries Where male Symbolists were obsessed with death Rachilde explores the fearful thrill of sexuality Topical challenging and all but lost to contemporary audiences her extraordinary work offers the shock of relevance and freshness of discovery Rachilde and French Women's Authorship Melanie Hawthorne, 2001-01-01 Under the assumed name Rachilde Marguerite Eymery 1860 1953 wrote over sixty works of fiction drama poetry memoir and criticism including Monsieur V nus one of the most famous examples of decadent fiction She was closely associated with the literary journal Mercure de France inspired parts of Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray and mingled with all the literary lights of the day Yet for all that very little has been written about her Melanie C Hawthorne corrects this oversight and counters the traditional approach to Rachilde by persuasively portraying this eccentric as patently representative of the French women writers of her time and of the social and literary issues they faced Seen in this light Rachilde's writing clearly illustrates important questions in feminist literary theory as well as significant features of turn of the century French society Hawthorne arranges her approach to Rachilde around several defining events in the author's life including the controversial publication of Monsieur V nus with its presentation of sex reversals Weaving back and forth in time she is able to depict these moments in relation to Rachilde's life work and times and to illuminate nineteenth century publishing practices and rivalries including authorial manipulations of the market for sexually suggestive literature The most complete and accurate account yet written of this emblematic author Hawthorne's work is also the first to situate Rachilde in the broader social contexts and literary currents of her time and of our own

Staging Politics and Gender C. Beach, 2005-06-15 In Staging Politics and Gender Cecilia Beach examines the political and feminist plays of French playwrights who have largely been overlooked until now Beach highlights the importance of theatrical endeavors which women perceived as a powerful way to promote political opinions The author analyzes the work of Louise Michel Nelly Roussel Marie Leneru Vera Starkoff and Madeline Pelletier and discusses anarchist theatre and forms of social protest theatre at the turn of the century Before Trans Rachel Mesch, 2023-05-25 This thoughtful academic treatise explores the lives of three famous gender nonconformists in fin de siècle Paris Publishers Weekly Before the term transgender existed there were those who experienced their gender in complex ways Before Trans examines the lives and writings of Jane Dieulafoy 1850 1916 Rachilde 1860 1953 and Marc de Montifaud 1845 1912 three French writers whose gender expression did not conform to nineteenth century notions of femininity Dieulafoy fought alongside her husband in the Franco Prussian War later she wrote novels about girls becoming boys and enjoyed being photographed in her signature men's suits Rachilde became famous in the 1880s for her controversial gender bending novel Monsieur V nus published around the same time that she started using a calling card that read Rachilde Man of Letters Montifaud turned to erotic writings for which she was repeatedly charged with offense to public decency she wore tailored men's suits and a short haircut and went by masculine pronouns among certain friends Dieulafoy Rachilde and Montifaud established themselves as fixtures in the literary world of fin de siècle Paris at the same time as French writers scientists and doctors were becoming fascinated with sexuality and sexual difference Even so the concept of gender identity as separate from sexual identity did not yet exist Before Trans explores these three figures efforts to articulate a sense of selfhood that did not align with the conventional gender roles of their day Their personal stories provide vital historical context for our own efforts to understand the nature of gender identity A fresh and original take on trans history Jack Halberstam author of The Queer Art of Failure

Representation and Identity from Versailles to the Present A. Sikes, 2007-08-06 Sikes traces the shifting role of performance in the fashioning of subjectivity from the Modern to the Postmodern eras The book joins history and historiography and is grounded in a body of research about varied performance subjects from court dance ballet opera festivals celebrations propaganda films Hollywood movies to reality TV Fashioning Spaces Heidi

Brevik-Zender, 2015-01-01 In Fashioning Spaces Heidi Brevik Zender argues that in the years between 1870 and 1900 the chroniclers of Parisian modernity depicted the urban landscape not just in public settings such as boulevards and parks but also in dislocations spaces where the public and the intimate overlapped in provocative and subversive ways Stairwells theatre foyers dressmakers studios and dressing rooms were in between places that have long been overlooked but were actually marked as indisputably modern through their connections with high fashion Fashioning Spaces engages with and thinks beyond the work of critics Charles Baudelaire and Walter Benjamin to arrive at new readings of the French capital Examining literature by Zola Maupassant Rachilde and others as well as paintings architecture and the fashionable garments worn by both men and women Brevik Zender crafts a compelling and innovative account of how fashion was appropriated as a way of writing about the complexities of modernity in fin de siècle Paris The Senses in Performance Sally Banes, Andre

Lepecki, 2012-08-21 This ground breaking anthology is the first to be dedicated to assessing critically the role of the human sensorium in performance Senses in Performance presents a multifaceted approach to the methodological theoretical practical and historical challenges facing the scholar and the artist This volume examines the subtle actions of the human senses including taste touch smell and vision in all sorts of performances in Western and non Western traditions from ritual to theatre from dance to interactive architecture from performance art to historical opera With eighteen original essays brought together by an international ensemble of leading scholars and artists including Richard Schechner and Philip Zarrilli

This covers a variety of disciplinary fields from critical studies to performance studies from food studies to ethnography from drama to architecture Written in an accessible way this volume will appeal to scholars and non scholars interested in Performance Theatre Studies and Cultural Studies A Touch of Blossom Alison Mairi Syme, John Singer Sargent, 2010 Explores the art of John Singer Sargent in the context of nineteenth century botany gynecology literature and visual culture Argues that the artist was elaborating both a period poetics of homosexuality and a new sense of subjectivity anticipating certain aspects of artistic modernism Provided by publisher

Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures Magali Compan, 2015-10-13 Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures brings together two complex and powerful loci of meaning violence and the visual As such it offers a comprehensive overview from which one can gain a better understanding of the complexity of the visual rhetoric of violence The visual representations of violence explored in this volume include both fictional works including for example narrative films graphic novels and theatre and non fictional genres such as news media and cultural artifacts This volume s strength is also grounded in its interdisciplinary approach by bringing together scholars from a variety of academic fields to examine a broad range of visual artifacts such as photography graphic novel films paintings objects the book offers a substantive corpus focusing on the rhetoric of violence The essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which visual expressions of violence have infiltrated diverse narrative forms and as such how they both construct and challenge general understandings of contemporary violence They all chart with cultural and historical specificity the way in which images of violence shape the visual imaginary of ethical worlds

An Anthology of Modern French Poetry, 1927 The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics Peter Eckersall, Helena Grehan, 2019-03-14 The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics is a volume of critical essays provocations and interventions on the most important questions faced by today s writers critics audiences and theatre and performance makers Featuring texts written by scholars and artists who are diversely situated geographically culturally politically and institutionally its multiple perspectives broadly address the question How can we be political now To respond to this question Peter Eckersall and Helena Grehan have created eight galvanising themes as frameworks or rubrics to rethink the critical creative and activist perspectives on questions of politics and theatre Each theme is linked to a set of guiding keywords Post post consensus post Brexit post Fukushima post neoliberalism post humanism post global financial crisis post acting the real Assembly assemblage disappearance permission community citizen protest refugee Gap who is in and out what can be seen heard funded allowed Institution visibility darkness inclusion rules Machine biodata surveillance economy mediatization Message performance and conviction didacticism propaganda End suffering stasis collapse entropy Re reset rescale reanimate reimagine replay how to bring complexity back into the public arena how art can help to do this These themes were developed in conversation with key thinkers and artists in the field and the resulting texts engage with artistic works across a range of modes including traditional theatre contemporary performance public protest events activism and community and participatory theatre Suitable for academics performance makers and students The Routledge Companion to Theatre and Politics explores questions of how to be political in the early 21st century by exploring how theatre and performance might provoke unsettle reinforce or productively destabilise the status quo Staging Decadence Adam Alston, 2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradby Monograph Prize How is decadence being staged today as a practice issue pejorative and as a site of pleasure Where might we find it why might we look for it and who is decadence for This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance Adam Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist led growth progress and intensified productivity He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value namely their spectacular uselessness wastefulness outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley UK Hasard Le Sin Finland jaamil olawale kosoko USA Toco Nikaido Japan Martin O'Brien UK Toshiki Okada Japan Marcel I Ant nez Roca Spain Normandy Sherwood USA The Uhuruverse USA Nia O Witherspoon USA and Wunderbaum Netherlands Expect ruminations on monstrous scenographies catatonic choreographies turbo charged freneticism visions of the apocalypse and what might lie in its wake Nineteenth-Century Literature in Transition: The 1890s Dustin Friedman, Kristin Mahoney, 2023-09-07 The 1890s were once seen as marginal within the larger field of Victorian studies which tended to privilege the realist novel and the authors of the mid century In recent decades the fin de siècle has come to be viewed as one of the most dynamic decades of the Victorian era Viewed by writers and artists of the period as a moment of opportunity transition and urgency the 1890s are pivotal for understanding the parameters of the field of Victorian studies itself This volume makes a case for why the decade continues to be an area of perennial fascination focusing on transnational connections gender and sexuality ecological concerns technological innovations and other current critical trends This collection both calls attention to the diverse range of literature and art being produced during this period and foregrounds the relevance of the Victorian era's final years to issues and crises that face us today The Complete Writer's Diary of Franz Kafka Franz Kafka, Kafka's diaries are a mixture of detailing personal mental and health struggles his opinions on plays and other art he encountered the brutality of his work and writing schedule his disdain for marriage and social functions and his thoughts on philosophical subjects Kafka reflects on attending lectures such as those by Paul Wiegler on Hebbel and theatrical readings by Bernhard Kellermann These moments capture Kafka's intellectual engagement with German literature and contemporary cultural dialogues His entries also contain evocative critiques including his thoughts on Goethe's diaries and philosophical musings tied to Zeno's paradoxes Kafka often juxtaposes these insights with raw introspective disclosures of his writing challenges and bouts of existential uncertainty Oftentimes meandering and stream of consciousness these diaries are narrative in style often philosophic and sometimes mundane Kafka notes many of his dreams here which are sometimes surreal and usually disturbing Themes of isolation artistic identity and the tension between self perception and societal roles permeate the diary Kafka's descriptions of his writing process convey an almost Sisyphean struggle for expression and authenticity His entries offer a glimpse into his fluctuating moods from moments of fleeting euphoria to profound self doubt The diary also captures the urban milieu of Prague and Kafka's deep sensitivity to its people sounds and atmosphere painting a vivid if often somber portrait of his inner and outer worlds Kafka records encounters with figures like the dancer Eduardowa whom he describes both in public performance and in mundane settings emphasizing the tension between public image and private reality Themes of existential despair and creative frustration recur with Kafka contemplating his inability to reconcile his office work and literary ambitions This new modern translation from the original German is a fresh accessible and beautifully rendered text that brings to life Kafka's great literary work This edition contains extra amplifying material including an illuminating afterword a timeline of Kafka's life and works alongside of the historical events which shaped his art and a short biography to place this work in its socio historical context

Staging Nationalism Kiki Gounaridou, 2005-05-05 When a nation wants to reconnect with a sense of national identity its cultural celebrations including its theatre are often tinged with nostalgia for a cultural high point in its history Leaders often try to create a neo classical cultural identity Artificially returning to an imagined pinnacle however can fail to take into account new aspects of national identity such as the infusion of other cultures and languages This collection of essays discusses the relationship between political power and the construction or subversion of cultural identity The collection takes a wide historical perspective from distinct periods and cultures from all over the world A few of the topics examined include how theatre in 18th century Poland tried to reconstitute the identity of an imagined classical heritage clung to by Polish nobles how festival practices during the French Revolution tried to give meaning to recent events and rein in anxiety about split loyalties how Athenian prologues cemented early American culture how romantic admiration of peasant culture spread from Germany throughout Europe how Greek tragedy in postwar Japan reflects the conflict of Japan's imposed identity as a Western style democracy with its prewar identity as a samurai nation and how Mexican archeological performance links the indigenous past with a post revolutionary identity as a mixed race country

Rilke, Modernism and Poetic Tradition Judith Ryan, 1999-11-25 If the rise of modernism is the story of a struggle between the burden of tradition and a desire to break free of it then Rilke's poetic development is a key example of this tension at work Taking a sceptical view of Rilke's own myth of himself as a solitary genius Judith Ryan reveals how deeply his writing is embedded in the culture of its day She traces his often desperate attempts to grapple with problems of fashion influence and originality as he shaped his career during the crucial decades in which modernism was born This 1999 book was the first systematic study of Rilke's trajectory from aestheticism to modernism as seen through the lens of his engagement with poetic tradition and the visual arts It is full of surprising discoveries about individual poems Above all it shifts the terms of the debate about Rilke's place in modern literary history Theatre Histories Daphne P. Lei, Tobin Nellhaus, Tamara Underiner, Patricia Ybarra, 2024-07-30 This updated fourth edition of Theatre Histories offers a critical overview of global theatre drama and performance spanning a broad wealth of world cultures and periods integrating them chronologically or thematically and showing how they have often interacted Bringing together a group of scholars from a diverse range of backgrounds and approaches to the history of global theater this introduction to theatre history places theatre into its larger historical contexts and attends to communication's role in shaping theatre Its case studies provide deeper knowledge of selected topics in theater and drama and its Thinking Through Theatre Histories boxes discuss important concepts and approaches used in the book Features of the fully updated fourth edition include Deeper coverage of East Asian and Latin American theater Richer treatment of popular culture More illustrations photographs and information about online resources New case studies include several written by authoritative scholars on the topic Pronunciation guidance both in the text and as audio files online Timelines An introduction on historiography A website with additional case studies a glossary recordings of the pronunciation of important non English terms and instructor resources A case studies library listing including both those in print and online for greater instructor choice and flexibility This is an essential textbook for undergraduate courses in theatre history world theatre and introduction to theatre and anyone looking for a full and diverse account of the emergence development and continuing relevance of theatre to cultures and societies across the world

Who's who in the Theatre, 1914 Death in modern theatre Adrian Curtin, 2019-02-15 This book analyses representations of death and dying in modern Western theatre from the late nineteenth century onward examining how and why historically informed conceptions of mortality are dramatized and staged Edward Bulwer-Lytton: Collected Works Edward Bulwer-Lytton, 2022-05-17 Edward Bulwer Lytton Collected Works is a comprehensive anthology that captures the breadth of Bulwer Lytton's literary genius showcasing his contribution to Victorian literature Known for his intricate narrative style and rich vocabulary this collection reveals his exploration of themes such as social reform existential angst and the interplay between fate and free will Included are classic novels such as Night and Morning and The Last Days of Pompeii each illustrating Bulwer Lytton's penchant for vivid description and psychological depth all set against the backdrop of a rapidly changing 19th century society Edward Bulwer Lytton 1803-1873 was a prominent English novelist playwright and politician whose prolific output made him one of the most popular authors of his time His diverse career choices ranging from parliamentary service to early involvement in spiritual and philosophical movements alongside his friendships with leading literary figures enriched his narratives with layers of meaning Facing shifting paradigms of romanticism and realism Bulwer Lytton's work often reflected his concerns about morality and human nature This collected works offers readers an invaluable opportunity to delve into the mind of a visionary thinker and writer For those interested in the intersections of literature and society this collection is not only a testament to Bulwer Lytton's literary prowess but also an essential resource
