A MYSTICAL CONNECTION

H. Torrevillas, M.D., 2011-03 From early childhood through high school medical school and in his practice of Medicine in the Philippines and Australia he had encountered strange experiences some snatched him from the claws of death These experiences Part I inspired him to write this book The author's mother during World War II had a near death experience She was told to take care of the eldest the author because God has a design for him Is this call now 65 years later coming to its fulfillment At age 20 a voice communicated with the author At age 30 he was possessed for 20 minutes and messages were given to him At 48 Jesus Christ appeared before him in the cloud There are many other strange encounters in the life of the author A key was given to him to DECODE the symbologies in the Book of Revelation What is the real meaning of 666 The Dragon With Seven Heads and Ten Horns and many more Are these delusional Read carefully the book Life John Ames Mitchell,1908 New Faiths, Old Fears Bruce B. Lawrence,2004-10-20 As a result of immigration from Asia in the wake of the passage of the 1965 Hart Celler Immigration Act the fastest growing religions in America faster than all Christian groups combined are Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Sikhism In this remarkable book a leading scholar of religion asks how these new faiths have changed or have been changed by the pluralist face of American civil society How have these new religious minorities been affected by the deep rooted American ambivalence toward foreign traditions Bruce Lawrence casts a comparativist eye on the American religious scene and explores the ways in which various groups of Asian immigrants have and sometimes have not been integrated into the American polity In the process he offers several important correctives Too often Lawrence argues profiles of Asian American experience focus exclusively on immigrants from East Asia to the exclusion of South Asian and West Asian voices New Faiths Old Fears seeks to make all Asians equally important and to break free of traditional geographic markers most reflecting nineteenth century imperial values that artificially divide the people of the Middle East from the rest of Asia with whom they share certain religious and cultural ties Iranian Americans in particular emerge as a vital bridge group whose experience tells us much about how Asians of many different backgrounds have found their way in their new nation Beyond simply expanding and refining our conception of who Asian Americans are Lawrence draws instructive comparisons between Asian Americans experience and those of Native African and Hispanic Americans exposing undercurrents of racial and class antagonisms He concludes that we cannot fully comprehend the contours and valences of culture and religion in America without understanding how this racialized class prejudice shapes the views of the dominant class toward immigrants and other marginal groups The Anglo American ,1844 American Lumberman ,1911 American Illustrated Magazine ,1928 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1873 Crossing the Borders of Time Leslie Maitland,2013-01-08 On a pier in Marseille in 1942 with desperate refugees pressing to board one of the last ships to escape France before the Nazis choked off its ports an 18 year old German Jewish girl was pried from the arms of the Catholic Frenchman she loved and promised to marry As the Lipari carried Janine and her family to Casablanca on the first leg of a perilous journey to safety in Cuba she would read through her tears the farewell letter that Roland had slipped in her pocket Whatever the length of our separation our love will survive it because it depends on us alone I give you my vow that whatever the time we must wait you will be my wife Never forget never doubt Five years later her fierce desire to reunite with Roland first obstructed by war and then in secret by her father and brother Janine would build a new life in New York with a dynamic American husband That his obsession with Ayn Rand tormented their marriage was just one of the reasons she never ceased yearning to reclaim her lost love Investigative reporter Leslie Maitland grew up enthralled by her mother's accounts of forbidden romance and harrowing flight from the Nazis Her book is both a journalist's vivid depiction of a world at war and a daughter's pursuit of a haunting question what had become of the handsome Frenchman whose picture her mother continued to treasure almost fifty years after they parted It is a tale of memory that reporting made real and a story of undying love that crosses the borders of time
