National Brands and Global Markets Nikolas Glover, David M. Higgins, 2023-02-02 Between Brexit efforts to Make America great again and ongoing appeals for patriotic consumption to boost economies the intersection between national identity marketing campaigns and consumer choices has been brought to the fore This book maps out this terrain and provides a framework for how research on Made in campaigns and programmes in individual countries can be placed into a broader historical context The book argues that the history of Made in can be used to shed light on society at large the actors that have promoted it the institutions that have regulated it and the cultural environments that have attributed it meaning At times Made in has been a basic descriptive trade mark while in other periods it has been a key component of carefully developed commercial brands and in yet other instances it has been used in attempts to forge and redefine national identities The book opens with an introduction to the three key factors which have featured prominently in Made in campaigns commercial logic national economic policy and its use as an instrument in political discourse and it provides an overview of the evolution of Made in from a marketing perspective This is followed by country specific discussions of Made in with case studies including countries in Western Europe the US Japan and the antipodes This book will be of significant interest to students and scholars of economic history business history and marketing Chapter 7 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license and demands for Marines and units prepared to operate under these conditions waxed and waned with the real world requirements of deployed forces This was reflected in the realities of conflicts in the Korean Peninsula the Cold War's northern and southern flanks and in the current Global War on Terrorism fight in Afghanistan and elsewhere While the future is often uncertain this firm look at the past is useful to show how previous challenges have prompted creative and innovative responses This is as much a story of evolution as an institution p iii The Grove Press Reader, 1951-2001 S. interpreting and representing industrial society in Italy on the part of the architects artists and designers who lived through its emergence and who to some extent invented it The exhibition with around 400 works chosen from among the most representative of artistic research and the culture of design in Italy in the twentieth century is arranged chronologically with four sections that define the different periods in the philosophical economic and aesthetic discourse that has accompanied the recent history of art and design in Italy The survey brings to light the philosophies of design and the aesthetics that found a strong and dialectical expression right through the last century in Italy and that are at the root of the country's characteristic and lively cultural debate between art and design This catalogue is published in conjunction with Il modo italiano Italian Design and Avant garde in the 20th Century an exhibition produced by the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts in collaboration with the Royal Ontario Museum Toronto and the Mart Museo di Arte Moderna e Contemporanea di Trento e Rovereto Interiors, 2001-04 Un oceano di stile AA.
