Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artists Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimaged art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

Women in International and Universal Exhibitions, 1876-1937 Rebecca Rogers, Myriam Boussahba-Bravard, 2017-08-14 This book argues for the importance of bringing women and gender more directly into the dynamic field of exposition studies Reclaiming women for the history of world fairs 1876-1937 it also seeks to introduce new voices into these studies dialoguing across disciplinary and national historiographies From the outset women participated not only as spectators but also as artists writers educators artisans and workers without figuring among the organizers of international exhibitions until the 20th century Their presence became more pointedly acknowledged as feminist movements developed within the Western World and specific spaces dedicated to women s achievements emerged International exhibitions emerged as showcases of modernity and progress but also as windows onto the foreign the different the unexpected and the spectacular As public rituals of celebration they transposed national ceremonies and protests onto an international stage For spectators exhibitions brought the world home for organizers the entire world was a fair Women were actors and writers of the fair narrative although acknowledgment of their contribution was uneven and often ephemeral Uncovering such silence highlights how gendered the triumphant history of modernity was and reveals the ways women as a category engaged with modern life within that quintessential modern space the world fair Montmartre: A Cultural History Nicholas Hewitt,2017-06-30 Montmartre A Cultural History offers an engaging tour of one of the most fascinating areas of Paris exploring a rich history from the Belle Epoque to the Occupation The work explores many iconic areas of Paris such as the Moulin Rouge and Sacre Coeur The Cultural Legacy of the Royal Game of the Goose Adrian Seville,2025-10-01 The Game of the Goose is one of the oldest printed board games dating back 400 years It has spawned thousands of derivatives simple race games played with dice on themes that mirror much of human activity Its legacy can be traced in games of education advertising and polemic as well as in those of amusement and gambling and games on new themes are still being developed This book by the leading international collector of the genre is devoted to showing why the Game of the Goose is special and why it can lay claim to being the most influential of any printed game in the cultural history of Europe Detailed study of the games reveals their historical provenance and reversing the process gives unusual insights into the cultures which produced them They therefore provide rich sources for the cultural historian This book is beautifully illustrated with more than 90 illustrations many in color which are integrated throughout the text Report Upon the Condition and Progress of the Museums for the Year Ending ... Brooklyn Museum,1928
