whose hard work has given them plenty of material for equally good stories Jim Hoy grew up in the Flint Hills on a ranch at Cassoday that's been in his family for five generations and boasts roots as deep as those of bluestem grass in black soil bottomland He now draws on this area's rich cowboy lore as well as on his own experience working cattle breaking horses and rodeoing to write a folk history of the Flint Hills spanning a century and a half Hoy blends history folklore and memoir to conjure for readers the tallgrass prairies of his boyhood in a book that richly recalls the ranching life and the people who lived it Here are cowboys and outlaws rodeo stars and runaway horses ordinary folks and the stuff of legends Hoy introduces readers to the likes of Lou Hart a top hand with the Crocker Brothers from 1906 to 1910 whose poetic paean to ranch life circulated orally for fifty years before seeing print And he tracks down the legend of Bud Gillette considered by his neighbors the world's fastest man until he fell in with an unscrupulous promoter He even unravels the mystery of a lone grave supposed to be that of the first cowboy in the Flint Hills Hoy also explains why a good horse makes up for having to work with exasperating cattle and why not all horses are created or trained equal And he traces Flint Hills cattle culture from the days of the trail drive through the railroad years to today's trucking era with most railroad stockyards torn down and only one section house left standing Writes Hoy I feed on the stories of the Hills and the characters who tell them as the cattle feed on the grasses His love of the land shines throughout a book so real that readers will swear they hear the click of horseshoes on flint rock with every turn of the page     Madeleine Carroll John Pascoe, 2020-04-17 At the height of her celebrity Madeleine Carroll 1906-1987 was the world's highest paid actress She worked alongside such greats as Laurence Olivier and Charles Laughton British directors Victor Saville and Alfred Hitchcock and Hollywood directors John Ford and Otto Preminger She also did radio and television shows all of which she abandoned to become a Red Cross worker Piecing together long lost facts the author describes Carroll's almost indescribable life narrating her personal highs and lows as well as her fervent commitment to helping others particularly child victims of war     Frank Stitt's Southern Table Frank Stitt, 2004-01-01 Presents a collection of traditional and not so traditional Southern U.S. recipes from Alabama chef Frank Stitt including fish and shellfish farm birds and game birds meats vegetables basics and a chapter on techniques and tools     What I Know Now Ellyn Spragins, 2008-04-08 If you could send a letter back through time to your younger self what would the letter say In this moving collection forty-one famous women write letters to the women they once were filled with advice and insights they wish they had had when they were younger Today show correspondent Ann Curry writes to herself as a rookie reporter in her first job telling herself not to change so much to fit in urging her young self It is time to be bold about who you really are Country music superstar Lee Ann Womack reflects on the stressed-out year spent recording her first album and encourages her younger self to enjoy the moment not just the end result And Maya Angelou leaving home at seventeen with a newborn baby in her arms assures herself she will succeed on her own even if she does return home every now and then These remarkable women are joined by Madeleine Albright Queen Noor of Jordan Cokie Roberts Naomi Wolf Eileen Fisher Jane practices be viewed in relation to these historical approaches How do emerging trends in museum practice designed to counter prejudiced stereotypical representations of disabled people relate to broader developments in disability rights debates in disability studies as well as shifting interpretive practices in public history and mass media What approaches can be deployed to mine and interrogate existing collections in order to investigate histories of disability and disabled people and to identify material evidence that might be marshalled to play a part in countering prejudice What are the implications of these developments for contemporary collecting How might such purposive displays be created and what dilemmas and challenges are curators educators designers and other actors in the exhibition making process likely to encounter along the way How do audiences disabled and non disabled respond to and engage with interpretive interventions designed to confront undercut or reshape dominant regimes of representation that underpin and inform contemporary attitudes to disability

The Great Karoo Fred Stenson, 2009-09-08 From award winning author Fred Stenson comes a richly evocative new novel at once brutal and tender spare of language and profoundly moving The Great Karoo begins in 1899 as the British are trying to wrest control of the riches of South Africa from the Boers the Dutch farmers who claimed the land The Boers have turned out to be more resilient than expected so the British have sent a call to arms to their colonies and an a great number of men from the Canadian prairies answer the call and join the Canadian Mounted Rifles a unit in which they can use their own beloved horses They assume their horses will be able to handle the desert terrain of the Great Karoo as readily as the plains of their homeland Frank Adams a cowboy from Pincher Creek joins the Rifles along with other young men from the ranches and towns nearby a mix of cowboys and mounted policeman who for whatever reason feel a desire to fight for the Empire in this far off war Against a landscape of extremes Frank forms intense bonds with Ovide Smith a French cowboy who proves to be a reluctant soldier and Jefferson Davis the nephew of a prominent Blood Indian chief who is determined to prove himself in a white man s war As the young Canadians engage in battle with an entrenched and wily enemy they are forced to realize the bounds of their own loyalty and courage and confront the arrogance and indifference of those who have led them into conflict For Frank disillusionment comes quickly and his allegiance to those from the Distict of Alberta soon displaces any sense of patriotism to Canada or Britain or belief that he s fighting for a just cause The events of the novel follow the trajectory of the war The British strategy of burning Boer farms destroying herds and moving Boer families into camps weakens the Boer rebels but they refuse to give up The thousands of Boer women and children who die in the camp make the war ever more unpopular among liberals in Britain In fact this conflict marked the first use of the term concentration camp in war Seeing the ramifications of such short sighted military decisions and how they affect what happens to Frank and the other Canadians is crucial to depicting the reality of the Boer War By focusing on the experiences of a small group of men from southern Alberta Fred Stenson brings the reality of what it would have been like to be a soldier in this brutal war to vivid life The Great Karoo is a deeply satisfying novel marked by the complexities of its plot the subtleties of its relationships and the scale of its terrain Exhilarating and gruesome by turns it explores with passion and insight the lasting warmth of friendship and the legacy of devastation occasioned by war     Madeleine's Cowboy Rolofson, 2000
