Madness In Its Place:

Madness in its Place Diana Gittins, 2006-10-19 This fascinating study presents a unique history of psychiatry in the twentieth century. It brings together the memories and narratives of over sixty patients and workers who lived or were employed in Severalls Psychiatric Hospital, Essex, UK. Personal accounts are contextualised both in relation to wider developments and issues in twentieth century mental health and in relation to policies and changes in the hospital itself. Organised around the theme of space and place and drawing upon both quantitative and qualitative material, chapters deal with key areas such as gender divisions, power relations, patterns of admission and discharge, treatments and the daily lives and routines of patients and nurses of both sexes.

N-Space Larry Niven, 2007-08-21 This retrospective collection of stories from all phases of Niven's writing career is rich with gossip, storytelling, vigor and sheer science-fictional play.

The Sublime Object of Psychiatry Angela Woods, 2011-08-25 Schizophrenia has been one of psychiatry's most contested diagnostic categories. The Sublime Object of Psychiatry studies representations of schizophrenia across a wide range of disciplines and discourses: biological and phenomenological psychiatry, psychoanalysis, critical psychology, antipsychiatry and postmodern philosophy.

Feminist mental health activism in England, c. 1968-95 Kate Mahoney, 2023-12-12 Feminist mental health activism in England c. 1968-1995 provides the first in-depth examination of feminist mental health activism in England, employing original oral history interviews alongside detailed case studies of unexplored feminist initiatives. It charts how feminist activists in the late 1960s initially rejected psychological approaches before employing a range of therapies to understand themselves and support one another. This book charts the emergence of feminist mental health groups in the early 1970s, the development of feminist therapy across the 1980s and the influence of feminist politics on national charity. Mind in the 1990s examines what participation in feminist activism felt like, demonstrating how these emotions have influenced the construction of its history. The book simultaneously forges a new direction in the history of mental healthcare in postwar England, establishing how feminists' grassroots support for women redefined community care.

Eventful Bodies Michael Schillmeier, 2016-04-22 Disrupting, questioning and altering the taken-for-granted cosmos of everyday life, the experiences of illness challenge the different ways in which social normalcy is remembered, maintained and expected. This book explores the manifold experiences of life-threatening infectious or non-curable illnesses that trouble the practices and relations of human and social life. Challenging a mere deficit model of illness, it examines how the cosmopolitics of illness require and initiate an ethos that cares for difference and diversity. Eventful Bodies presents rich qualitative and ethnographic data alongside print and online media sources from Germany and North America, exploring case studies involving Alzheimer's disease, stroke and the global threat of infectious diseases such as SARS. The book engages with debates in cosmopolitics and exposes the agency of those overlooked by contemporary discourses of cosmopolitanism, thus developing a new theory of illness and delineating a novel empirical agenda and conceptual space for sociological and anthropological research A rigorous examination of the changes wrought in the social world by illness and the implications of this for social and political theory Eventful Bodies will appeal to sociologists anthropologists social and political theorists geographers and scholars of science and technology studies with interests in medical sociology health illness and the body

The Humble Story of Don Quixote Cesáreo Bandera, 2006 Don Quixote is often called the first modern novel many would argue it is the greatest novel ever written But compared with other world masterpieces from the Iliad to Paradise Lost or from Oedipus the King to Hamlet or Life is a Dream for example the storyline of Don Quixote is remarkably uninspiring and lowly a middle aged man becomes mad reading novels and makes a fool of himself by believing he is a hero The first great modern novel is a warning about the reading and the writing of novels In this original study by Cesáreo Bandera the intimate connection between the simplicity and humility of the story and its greatness is explored Other comparisons are also made the story of the picaresque rogue on the one hand and the psychological insights of the pastoral novel on the other Through these analyses the meaning and significance of Cervantes novel are developed The book takes into critical account Mikhail Bakhtin's theory of the novel as well as Michel Foucault's views about madness and civilization in order to bring into relief the modernity of Don Quixote From another angle the contrasting views on human desire of such critics as Unamuno and René Girard become central to a new understanding of Don Quixote's madness as well as to the development of the main connection between the humility of the story and its greatness ABOUT THE AUTHOR Cesáreo Bandera professor emeritus of Spanish literature at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is author of several books and numerous essays in English and Spanish including The Sacred Game The Role of the Sacred in the Genesis of Modern Literary Fiction PRAISE FOR THE BOOK The originality of Bandera's approach and the novelty of his focus are grounded not only on a solid knowledge of history and literary theory but also of philosophy history of religion anthropology etc Bandera's study attracts from its first pages by confronting the reader with concepts which are fundamental to an understanding of the culture and literature of the West in the 17th century José María de Ez Borque Madrid Universidad Complutense We are dealing with a book different from all others that have come out on the occasion of the Fourth Centenary It is full of intuitions accurate judgments and above all it is organized and written by an author ready to make tabula rasa of all Cervantine bibliography in order to reexamine ab ovo the state of questions that are still relevant to those who study the best classical novel Hector Briosio Universidad de Alcalá Bandera discusses the historical social and spiritual developments that in the Renaissance made a revival of the old epic an impossibility and paved the way to the invention of the modern novel He presents an immensely intelligent sensitive innovative and readable book on this immortal work René Girard Member of the French Academy Honorary President of the Colloquium on Violence and Religion Bandera offers an insightful analysis of Cervantes techniques including mimesis parody and irony Highly recommended M V Ekström Choice The book contains brilliant insights into the picaresque and the pastoral Julio Baena Renaissance Quarterly Professor Bandera enriches our understanding of the

Being Mauss's The Gift as well as essays by Benveniste and Levi Strauss that assume Mauss's legacy. It is however a short tale by Baudelaire Counterfeit Money that guides Derrida's analyses throughout. At stake in his reading of the tale to which the second half of this book is devoted are the conditions of gift and forgiveness as essentially bound up with the movement of dissemination, a concept that Derrida has been working out for many years. For both readers of Baudelaire and students of literary theory, this work will prove indispensable.

Making Space for Indigenous Feminism, 3rd Edition Gina Starblanket, 2024-05-23T00:00:00Z. The third edition of the iconic collection Making Space for Indigenous Feminism features feminist, queer, and two-spirit voices from across generations and locations. Feminism has much to offer Indigenous women and all Indigenous Peoples in their struggles against oppression. Indigenous feminists in the first edition fought for feminism to be considered a valid and essential intellectual and activist position. The second edition animated Indigenous feminisms through real-world applications. This third edition, curated by award-winning scholar Gina Starblanket, reflects and celebrates Indigenous feminism's intergenerational longevity through the changing landscape of anti-colonial struggle and theory. Diverse contributors examine Indigenous feminism's ongoing relevance to contemporary contexts and debates, including queer and two-spirit approaches to decolonization, gendered and sexualized violence, storytelling and narrative, digital and land-based presence, Black and Indigenous relationalities, and more. This book bridges generations of powerful Indigenous feminist thinking to demonstrate the movement's cruciality for today.

The Message of a Course in Miracles Elizabeth A. Cronkhite, 2010-07-30. Mind Body Spirit. Philosophy of Communication Briankle G. Chang, Garnet C. Butchart, 2012-08-10. Classical, modern, and contemporary philosophical writings that address the fundamental concepts of communication. To philosophize is to communicate philosophically. From its inception, philosophy has communicated forcefully. Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle talk a lot and talk ardently. Because philosophy and communication have belonged together from the beginning and because philosophy comes into its own and solidifies its stance through communication, it is logical that we subject communication to philosophical investigation. This collection of key works of classical, modern, and contemporary philosophers brings communication back into philosophy's orbit. It is the first anthology to gather in a single volume foundational works that address the core questions, concepts, and problems of communication in philosophical terms. The editors have chosen thirty-two selections from the work of Plato, Leibniz, Hegel, Husserl, Heidegger, Wittgenstein, Benjamin, Lacan, Derrida, Sloterdijk, and others. They have organized these texts thematically rather than historically in seven sections: consciousness, intersubjective understanding, language, writing, and context; difference and subjectivity; gift and exchange; and communicability and community. Taken together, these texts not only lay the foundation for establishing communication as a distinct philosophical topic but also provide an outline of what philosophy of communication might look like.
