Nautilus Magazine of New Thought Elizabeth Jones Towne,1907 Books Out Loud ,2007 Star Authors Joe Moran,2000-02-20 In America authors are as likely to be seen on television talk shows or magazine covers as in the more traditional settings of literary festivals or book signings Is this literary celebrity just another result of dumbing down Yet another example of the mass media turning everything into entertainment Or is it a much more unstable complex phenomenon And what does the American experience tell us about the future of British literary celebrity In Star Authors Joe Moran shows how publishers the media and authors themselves create and disseminate literary celebrity He looks at such famous contemporary authors as Toni Morrison J D Salinger Thomas Pynchon Don DeLillo John Updike Philip Roth Kathy

Acker Nicholson Baker Paul Auster and Jay McInerney Through an examination of their own work biographical information media representations and promotional material Moran illustrates the nature of modern literary celebrity He argues that authors actively negotiate their own celebrity rather than simply having it imposed upon them from reclusive authors such as Salinger and Pynchon famed for their very lack of public engagement to media friendly authors such as Updike and McInerney Star Authors analyses literary celebrity in the context of the historical links between literature advertising and publicity in America the economics of literary production and the cultural capital involved in the marketing and consumption of books and authors World Authors 1990-1995 Clifford Thompson,1999 Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author s principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available New York Magazine ,1991-03-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
