'Rock On': Women, Ageing and Popular Music Abigail Gardner, 2016-03-16 For female pop stars whose star bodies and star performances are undisputedly the objects of a sexualized external gaze the process of ageing in public poses particular challenges Taking a broadly feminist perspective Rock On women ageing and popular music shifts popular music studies in a new direction Focussing on British American and Latina women performers and ageing the collection investigates the cultural work performed by artists such as Shirley Bassey Petula Clark Madonna Celia Cruz Grace Jones and Courtney Love The study crosses generations of performers and audiences enabling an examination of changing socio-historical contexts and an exploration of the relationships at play between performance strategies star persona and the popular music press For instance the strategies employed by Madonna and Grace Jones to engage with the processes and issues related to public ageing are not the same as those employed by Courtney Love or Celia Cruz The essays in this insightful collection reflect on the ways that artists and fans destabilise both the linear trajectories and the compelling weight of expectations regarding ageing by employing different modalities of resistance through persona reinvention nostalgia postmodern intertextuality and even early death as the ultimate denial of age Culture Wars Roger Chapman, 2015-03-17 The term culture wars refers to the political and sociological polarisation that has characterised American society the past several decades This new edition

Female Celebrity and Ageing Deborah Jermyn, 2016-04-29 Female Celebrity and Ageing Back in the Spotlight interrogates the myriad ways in which celebrity culture constructs highly visible ideologies of femininity and ageing and how ageing female celebrities have negotiated the media in a variety of industrial historical and national contexts In the era when the baby boomers have started drawing their pensions the boundaries of what constitutes old age have never seemed more fluid and ageing has never been presented by advertisers and marketers in a more dynamic fashion However the fact remains that ageing is still widely feared and growing old is an inherently gendered process in which ageing women are paradoxically both rendered invisible and subjected to damning scrutiny Nowhere is this conflicting state of affairs more evident than in celebrity culture where ageing female stars are praised for growing old gracefully one moment and condemned for letting themselves go the next when they fail to age appropriately Examining a variety of themes and ageing women in the spotlight from Barbara Stanwyck to Madonna to Charlotte Rampling the essays collected here forge new critical and conceptual insights into how women grow older in the media and the implications of this for what Susan Sontag memorably called the double standard of ageing This book is based on a special issue of Celebrity Studies     Feeling Italian Thomas J.
