Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David-Neel, 2021-02-25 Born in 1868 to a respectable French family Alexandra David Neel became the most remarkable female travel writer of the Twentieth century David Neel studied at the Sorbonne at a time when women were not allowed to formally matriculate and converted to Buddhism after viewing a statue of the Buddha in the Guimet Museum In 1911 she set off alone to travel around India for the second time and in 1914 she secluded herself in a cave in the Himalayas for two years intensively studying the mysteries of Tibetan Buddhism as well as the mystic legends that surrounded Buddhist monks From 1918 she spent three years in a Buddhist monastery translating texts into French and English By 1924 she had travelled to the forbidden city of Lhasa and returning to France in 1927 began to write recording her extraordinary experiences She died in 1969 101 years old still travelling and an inspiration for a generation that included Jack Kerouac and Allen Ginsberg Magic and Mystery in Tibet like Seven Pillars of Wisdom attempts to bring ancient wisdom into the modern age David Neel records the seemingly magic feats performed by Buddhist monks telepathy tumo breathing the art of generating body heat to keep warm in freezing conditions the ability to run for days at a time the ability to defy gravity and the ability to become invisible As a child David Neel had wanted to search for the unknown and as an adult she went beyond the Western world and into areas unexplained by Western science No other Western writer has ever been so immersed in Tibetan culture and Buddhism and few other books have entranced readers for seventy years Seeker adventurer pilgrim and scholar David Neel was the first European woman to explore the once forbidden city of Lhasa This memoir offers an objective account of the supernatural events she witnessed during the 1920s among the mystics and hermits of Tibet including levitation telepathy and the ability to walk on water Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David Neel, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1932 edition Magic and Mystery in Tibet Alexandra David-Neel, 2019-09-26 Alexandra David Neel was among the first Westerners to extensively explore Tibet In these memoirs she tells of her encounters there the people and their culture and fervently Buddhist society The author's early years wherein her enthusiasm for travel and curiosity of faraway cultures grew are excluded from these pages Rather we begin with David Neel's first trip to Tibet and her initial impressions of the country The friends she makes and the various officials and Buddhist priests of varying rank and station are recounted vividly As a Western woman David Neel did not always encounter friendliness or tranquility in those she met many were less than welcoming or even hostile to her presence As she was a pioneer in Tibet it is for these explorations that David Neel is most remembered The complex traditions of the Tibetan lamas and how its people existed upon the high plateau of the Himalayas fascinated many in Europe Allowed meetings with religious officials including the 13th Dalai Lama it was only after a decade of exploring the Tibetan culture that David Neel dared to go yet farther by travelling incognito to Lhasa the capital city forbidden to all foreigners A classic memoir known for inspiring the writers and poets of the Beat Generation Magic and mystery in Tibet, introd Alexandra David-Néel, Magic and Mystery in Tibet. Adventures with the Buddha Jeffery Paine,2005 Paine has assembled the adventures of nine Westerners in a book that yields an understanding of Buddhism not by its metaphysics or rituals but through real characters and true stories as dramatic as those in the most imaginative novel Tibetan Magic Cameron Bailey,Aleksandra Wenta,2024-03-07 This book focuses on the theme of magic in Tibetan contexts encompassing both pre modern and modern text cultures as well as contemporary practices It offers a new understanding of the identity and role of magical specialists in both historical and contemporary contexts Combining the theoretical approaches of anthropology ethnography religious and textual studies the book aims to shed light on experiences practices and practitioners that have been frequently marginalized by the normative mainstream monastic Buddhist traditions and Western Buddhist scholarship which focuses primarily on meditation and philosophy The book explores the intersection between magic folk practices and Tantra a complex socio religious phenomenon associated not only with the religious and political elites who sponsored it but also with marginal ethnic groups and social milieus as well as with lay communities at large who resorted to ritual agents to fulfil their worldly needs The Sacred Life of Modernist Literature Allan Kilner-Johnson,2022-06-16 Probing the relationship between modernist literary experimentation and several key strands of occult practice which emerged in Europe from roughly 1894 to 1944 this book sets the work of leading modernist writers alongside lesser known female writers and writers in languages other than English to more fully portray the aesthetic and philosophical connections between modernism and the occult Although the early decades of the twentieth century the era of cocktails motorcars bobbed hair and war are often described as a period of newness and innovation many writers of the time found inspiration and visionary brilliance by turning to the mysterious occult past This book's principle intervention is to reimagine the contours and boundaries of literary modernism by welcoming into the conversation a number of significant female writers and writers in languages other than English who are often still relegated to the fringes of modernist studies Well remembered poets and novelists such as Ezra Pound W B Yeats and Aleister Crowley were tied to occult beliefs and this book sets these leading figures alongside less well remembered but equally splendid modernists including Paul Brunton Mary Butts Alexandra David Neel Florence Farr Dion Fortune Hermann Hesse and Rudolf Steiner From the little magazines where occultism and Fabianism were comfortable companions to consulting rooms of psychoanalysts where archetypes were revealed to be both mystical and mundane to the forbidden mountain trails that led to formidable spiritual teachers the conditions of modernism were invariably those conditions which inspired a return to the occult traditions that many thinkers believed had long evaporated Indeed in many ways these traditions were the making of the modern world By uncovering hidden hopes and anxieties that faced a newly modern Western Europe this book demonstrates how literary modernists understood occultism as a universal form of cultural expression which has inspired creative exuberance since the dawn of civilisation

W. Y. Evans-Wentz, 2000-09-28 This life story of Milarepa the important Tibetan religious leader who lived over 800 years ago is part of a remarkable four volume series on Tibetan Buddhism produced by the late W Y Evans Wentz all four of which are being published by Oxford in new editions While there are many parochial differences among the several sects of Tibetan Buddhism each holds the Great Yogi Milarepa in the highest reverence and esteem For exemplified in Milarepa's life as we discover in these pages are all of the teachings of the great yogis of India including those of Gautama the Buddha the greatest yogi known to history Amid his detailed introductory and explanatory notes for this text Evans Wentz also reveals compelling similarities between the life and thought of Milarepa and those of Jesus Gandhi and saints in ancient China or India or Babylonia or Egypt or Rome or in our own epoch In composing this translation from the original Tibetan the late Lama Kazi Dawa Samdup who was Evans Wentz's guru for many years

aimed to show Western readers one of our great teachers as he actually lived much of which is couched in the words of his own mouth and the remainder in the words of his disciple Rechung who knew him in the flesh For this third edition Donald S Lopez author of Prisoners of Shangri La Tibetan Buddhism and the West has written a critical foreword that updates and contextualizes this crucial part of Evans Wentz's scholarship within the yoga tradition The Tibetan Book of the Great Liberation, Or, The Method of Realizing Nirvāṇa Through Knowing the Mind Walter Yeeling Evans-Wentz, 2000 To introduce this great published work on the Eastern yoga inspired method of attaining enlightenment Evans Wentz presents 100 pages of explanatory notes Psychoanalyst C G Jung offers commentary on the differences between Eastern and Western thought and Donald S Lopez Jr writes the Foreword 9 halftones The Tibetan Book of the Great Liberation W. Y. Evans-Wentz, 2000-09-28 The Tibetan Book of the Great Liberation which was unknown to the Western world until its first publication in 1954 speaks to the quintessence of the Supreme Path or Mahāyāna and fully reveals the yogic method of attaining Enlightenment Such attainment can happen as shown here by means of knowing the One Mind the cosmic All Consciousness without recourse to the postures breathings and other techniques associated with the lower yogas The original text for this volume belongs to the Bardo Thödol series of treatises concerning various ways of achieving transcendence a series that figures into the Tantric school of the Mahāyāna Authorship of this particular volume is attributed to the legendary Padma Sambhava who journeyed from India to Tibet in the 8th century as the story goes at the invitation of a Tibetan king Padma Sambhava's text per se is preceded by an account of the great guru's own life and secret doctrines It is followed by the testamentary teachings of the Guru Phadampa Sangay which are meant to augment the thought of the other gurus discussed herein Still more useful supplementary material will be found in the book's introductory remarks by its editor Evans Wentz and by the eminent psychoanalyst C G Jung The former presents a 100 page General Introduction that explains several key names and notions such as Nirvāṇa for starters with the lucidity ease and sagacity that are this scholar's hallmark the latter offers a Psychological Commentary that weighs the differences between Eastern and Western modes of thought before equating the collective unconscious with the Enlightened Mind of the Buddhist As with the other three volumes in the late Evans Wentz's critically acclaimed Tibetan series all four of which are being published by Oxford in new editions this book also features a new Foreword by Donald S Lopez The Tibetan Book of the Dead Karma-glin-pa, 2000-09-28 As a contribution to the science of death and dying not to mention the belief in life after death or the belief in texts of the world for its socio cultural influence in this regard is without comparison BOOK JACKET The White Woman's Other Burden Kumari Jayawardena, 2014-04-23 In The White Woman's Other Burden Kumari Jayawardena re-evaluates the Western women who lived and worked in South Asia during the period of British rule She tells the stories of many well known women including Katherine Mayo Helena Blavatsky Annie Besant Madeleine Slade and Mirra Richard and highlights the stories of dozens of women whose names have been forgotten today In the course of this telling Jayawardena raises the issues of race class and gender which are part of current debates among feminists throughout the world
