Melanesian Religion:

Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth. The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways. As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region, Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field. Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources. This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally. Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root. Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, New Caledonia, and Fiji. Melanesians and Missionaries Darrell L. Whiteman, 2002-05-10 In Melanesians and Missionaries, one of the best of the younger generation of missionary anthropologists demonstrates that a commitment to the missionary enterprise on the part of a solid scholar facilitates rather than hinders the anthropological study of a missionary topic. This is better anthropology because Dr. Whiteman is able to probe more deeply into his topic and demonstrates that he understands and appreciates both Melanesians and missionaries. Charles H. Kraft, Professor of Anthropology, School of World Mission, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena. Powers, Plumes, and Piglets Norman C. Habel, 1979 The World's Religions: The Study of Religion, Traditional and New Religion. Peter Clarke, Stewart Sutherland, 2002-11 Examines the primitive traditional non-mainstream religion and also 20th century sects such as the Moonies and Scientology. Looks at the nature of religion, the general philosophical issues. Written by international specialists. Melanesian Religion G. W. Trompf, 2004-08-19 This study surveys systematically the full scope of Melanesian religion from traditional beliefs and practices to the development of strong indigenous Christian churches and theology. Garry Trompf writes from extensive knowledge of the social and religious aspects and from his own experience living and working in Papua New Guinea. Melanesian Religion provides an invaluable guide and analysis to pressing issues of religious and social change in the Pacific. It provides a useful overview for readers with general interests in the South Pacific region and in the formulation of indigenous responses to external institutions, beliefs, and value systems. The Melanesian peoples of the south west Pacific form about one quarter of the world's cultures, cultures in which a deep sense of spiritual consciousness has engendered rich diversity of religious experience. Professor Trompf argues that to be complete, any interpretation of the social and economic patterns of Melanesian life past and present must take proper account of this religious context. Conceptualizing Religion Benson Saler, 2000 How might we transform a folk category in this case, religion, into an analytical category suitable for cross-cultural research? In this volume, the author addresses that question. He critically explores various approaches to the problem of conceptualizing religion, particularly with respect to certain disciplinary interests of anthropologists. He argues that the concept of family resemblances as that concept has been refined and extended in prototype theory in the contemporary cognitive sciences is the most plausible analytical strategy for resolving the central problem of the book In the solution proposed religion is conceptualized as an affair of more or less rather than a matter of yes or no and no sharp line is drawn between religion and non religion Radical Interpretation in Religion Nancy Frankenberry,2002-09-19 Publisher Description

Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics James Hastings,John Alexander Selbie,Louis Herbert Gray,1916

Transcendence and Violence John D'Arcy May,2003-06-19 The first two parts of this book present four detailed historical studies filled with Geertzian thick description of the encounters of Christianity and Buddhism universal religions with a high quotient of transcendence with various primal religious traditions biocosmic or immanentist of the Asian Pacific region namely Aboriginal Australia and Melanesia Christianity and Sri Lanka and Japan Buddhism In each case the encounters represented a failure of the great traditions In the third constructive and theological part of the book the author shows how an acknowledgment of these failures may provide a back door to dialogue Regional, Critical, and

Historical Approaches Peter Antes,Armin W. Geertz,Randi R. Warne,2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Religion and Retributive Logic Carole M. Cusack,Christopher Hartney,2010 Garry Winston Trompf b 1940 in his outstanding academic career has inspired scholars in the fields of Studies in Religion and the History of Ideals In this volume his colleagues and students critique and expand upon the world of this outstanding academic The book is divided into four parts Melanesia Ancient World Studies Philosophical and Methodological Considerations and Historiography Authors address Trompf s research in works such as The Idea of Historical Recurrence in Western Thought Early Christian Historiography and themes of Melanesian religion that Trompf address in Payback No study in the religions of Oceania or ideals of millennialism should ignore this critical assessment of Garry Trompf s work Que(e)rying Religion Gary David

Comstock,Susan E. Henking,1997-02-01 The first multi disciplinary look at the intersection of queer experience and religious spirituality Interreligious Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology Perry Schmidt-Leukel,Andreas

Nehring,2016-07-14 Can religions be compared For decades the discipline of religious studies was based on the assumption that they can Postmodern and postcolonial reflections however raised significant doubts In social and cultural studies the investigation of the particular often took precedence over a comparative perspective Interreligious Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology questions whether religious studies can survive if it ceases to be comparative religion Can it do justice to a globalized world if it is limited on the specific and turns a blind eye on the general While comparative approaches have come under strong pressure in religious studies they have started flourishing in Theology Comparative theology practices interfaith dialogue by means of comparative research This volume asks whether theology and religious studies are able to mutually benefit from their critical and constructive reflections Can postcolonial criticism of neutrality and objectivity in religious studies create new links with the decidedly perspectival approach of comparative theology In this collection scholars from theology and religious studies discuss the methodology of interreligious comparison in the light of recent doubts and current objections Together with the contributors Perry Schmidt Leukel and Andreas Nehring argue that after decades of critique interreligious comparison deserves to be reconsidered reconstructed and reintroduced Synkrêtic 1 A. P. New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Religious Categories and the Construction of the Indigenous Christopher Hartney, Daniel Tower, 2016-10-18 This volume significantly advances the academic debate surrounding the taxonomy and the categorisation of indigenous religion Developing approaches from leading scholars in the field this edited volume provides the space for established and rising voices to discuss the highly problematic topic of how indigenous religion can be defined and conceptualised Constructing the Indigenous highlights the central issues in the debate between those supporting and refining current academic frameworks and those who would argue that present thinking remains too dependant on misunderstandings that arise from definitions of religion that are too inflexible and from problems caused by the World Religion paradigm This book will prove essential reading for those that wish to engage with contemporary discussions regarding the definitions of religion and their relations
