Ruins Barry N. Malzberg,2007-04-01 Barry N Malzberg reflects back over four decades of writing science fiction giving an insider's view of the field during that time which few can match both for its authority and for the sharp and witty way he describes the highs and lows of one science fiction writer's career He also writes vivid profiles of writers and editors ranging from the titans who transformed the field such as John W Campbell to once popular writers who are now all but forgotten such as Hugo Award winner Mark Clifton If there is any particular cachet to my perspective he writes it comes because my career is perhaps more than some metaphoric The original shorter version of the book was widely praised as by the San Francisco Chronicle Contains literary criticism ranging over the whole history of the field this is a mordant brilliant book and by The Washington Post Book WorldMalzberg makes persuasively clear that the best of science fiction should be valued as literature and nothing else Breakfast in the Ruins is an indispensable book for every science fiction reader At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Memoirs and Wonderful Achievements of Wellington the Great Christopher Kelly,1853 Many Memories of Life in India, at Home, and Abroad John Henry Rivett-Carnac,1910

Secret Memoirs of the Shoguns Isaac Titsingh,2006-03-17 Isaac Titsingh was intermittently head of the Japan factory trading station of the Dutch East India Company 1780-94 He was a career merchant but unusual in having a classical education and training as a physician His impact in Japan was enormous but he left disappointed in the ability of the country to embrace change After many years in Java India and China he came to London and then settled in Paris where he devoted himself to compiling translations of prime Japanese texts It is one of the most exciting anthologies of the period and reveals the almost unknown world of eighteenth century Japan discussing politics history poetry and rituals The Illustrations of Japan appeared posthumously in 1821-1822 in English French and Dutch This fully annotated edition makes the original English version available for the first time in nearly two centuries A Memoir of Love Science and Adventure- My life with Svante Wold Nouna Kettaneh,2023-08-23 This book is the story of my life with Svante Wold Svante was a brilliant Swedish scientist who started the field of Chemometrics how to extract information from large datasets We met at a conference in New Hampshire when Chemometrics was in its infancy and fell madly in love Everything separated us We lived in different countries were from differing cultures had established careers and were in long term relationships But love and destiny won We got married lived together worked together and were never apart We founded a company and succeeded in growing and expanding the field of Chemometrics to what it is today a forever young discipline showing the capacity to adapt and solve new challenges in the Natural and Life Sciences Simca the software we started has become the standard of Multivariate Analysis Above all this book is a love story and a tribute to a wonderful and unique man Fables, Memories, Adult Jokes Rosaria Wills,2017-11-27 To you that cry for your dead If you love me do not cry If you know the immense secret of the sky where now I live if you could see and hear what I hear and see in these horizons without end and in this light that goes through you you would not cry if you love me Now I am absorbed in the enchantment of God in his whole beauty Things from the past are so small and worth nothing comparing to this I only have my love for you a tenderness that I have never known before We have loved each other and known each other but at that time it was limited and fast I live in a serene and happy world waiting for you to come within us in your internal battle Think of this as a beautiful house where there is no death and where we can be together in the purest and intense love to the fountain of joy and love that will never end Don't cry if you really love me The Works with Notes Critical and Explanatory, and a Biographical Memoir, by W. California Dreamin': A 19-year Old Indian Sikh's Memoir: Journey to California, Romance, Trials & Tribulations Rajinder S. Khokhar,2016-10 California Dreaming is about my journey to America for higher studies in 1961 and my difficult first 2 years On the way I had a wonderful shipboard romance with Kavita a tall Indian woman We parted in Italy and we were heartbroken Before we could meet in America she had to rush back to India because Grandmother had a heart attack Later she visited with her mother The highlight was her trying on a bikini What a beautiful sight voluptuous breasts curvy body long legs It was huge turn on and later we enjoyed passionate lovemaking Love of my life could not stay and had to return to India I wondered if I would see her again College in Indiana was great but I could not handle snow and California was calling Driving there in an old car was adventurous Discrimination was high against a turbaned Sikh No decent jobs were available to me Finally I got a job at a packinghouse It was hard keeping my head above water while studying at Fresno State Where is Kavita Are we destined to be together A Pound of Paper John Baxter,2025-09-23 In the rural Australia of the fifties where John Baxter grew up reading books was disregarded with suspicion owning and collecting them with utter incomprehension Despite this by the age of eleven Baxter had collected his first book The Poems of Rupert Brooke He'd read the volume often but now he had to own it This was the beginning of what would become a major collection and a lifelong obsession His book hunting would take him all over the world but his first real find was in London in 1978 when he spotted a rare copy of a Graham Greene children's book while browsing on a stall in Swiss Cottage It was going for 5 pence This would also fortuitously be the day when he first encountered one of the legends of the book selling world Martin Stone At various times pothead international fugitive from justice and professional rock musician he would become John's mentor and friend In this brilliantly readable and funny book John Baxter brings us into contact with such literary greats as Graham Greene Kingsley Amis J G Ballard and Ray Bradbury But he also shows us how he penetrated the secret fraternity of runners or book scouts sleuths who use bluff and guile to hunt down their quarry and joined them in scouring junk shops markets auction rooms and private homes for rarities In the comic tradition of Clive James's Unreliable Memoirs A Pound of Paper describes how a boy from the bush came to be living in a Paris penthouse with a library worth millions It also explores the exploding market in first editions What treasures are lying unnoticed in your garage
