Haight,1920 Low Man on a Totem Pole H Allen Smith,2015-07-27 H Allen Smith has sometimes been referred to as the best selling humorist since Mark Twain

Considering that he wrote against the likes of James Thurber Robert Benchley and S J Perelman that s quite a statement And probably true He sold a million copies of each of his first several books starting with Low Man on a Totem Pole In this book which might be called a fraction of his memoirs Mr Smith claimed he could have filled twenty he recounts the high points of his life amid the human race a race he appreciated and observed with a keen nose for the humor hiding in the most unexpected places Here is a panorama of unlikely people who really existed of inconceivable things that actually happened of the commonplace rarities of our frenzied epoch Among others there is the newspaperman who suffered under the delusion that Herbert Hoover had bladders on his feet the man who thoughtfully and perpetually bounced turtle eggs on a bar a deaf dentist who trained his dog to act as his receptionist a child prodigy who couldn t talk any too well but appeared to know more about swing music than the head usher at the Paramount Theater all these are part of Mr Smith s life and times

Lost in the Horse Latitudes H Allen Smith, 2015-07-24 The horse latitudes are certain zones in the ocean which used to be the despair of sailing vessels They are characterized by dead calms light baffling winds and hot dry weather If a ship came along and got stuck in one of those dead calms drinking water might soon run out and then everyone would go berserk including the horses if they were onboard In fact as passengers and crew clambered around in their berserkness the horses might get thrown overboard At least that s H Allen Smith s story and he s sticking to it Always quick to see the zany side of even the most serious of situations and known as a prankster Smith descended on the Paramount lot like a plague of locusts and then proceeded to offer such vital contributions as mowing the lawn and asking for the men s room He rubbed elbows daily with such great names as Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen W C Fields and James Cagney as well as leading agents directors and producers
