Psychedelic Immortality: Nietzschean Perspectives on Reincarnation, Femtheogens, and Philosophy Joseph I. Breidenstein Jr., 2025-09-02 Recent research has revealed a psychedelic inspiration for Nietzsche's philosophy and far from being a novelty in the history of philosophy there is significant evidence that several of the first western philosophers ingested psychedelics as well In his first book Joseph I Breidenstein Jr PhD maintained that western philosophy began as what we today would call a feminist religious reformation in the sense that many prominent presocratic philosophers were reviving a paleo neolithic goddess centered religiosity of rebirth within the largely patriarchal and death glorifying culture of archaic Greece And in this book Dr Breidenstein Jr proposes that the presocratics psychedelic reincarnationist feminine model of education and or worldview is better suited for democracy in the twenty first century than the economic model of education that takes the west's mainstream materialistic secular worldview for granted For several decades now researchers have acknowledged both that the empirical evidence for reincarnation is overwhelming and that psychedelics can evoke past life recollections but explanations for either reincarnation or how psychedelics do this have yet to be offered By combining Nietzsche's philosophy with the work of other thinkers Psychedelic Immortality both provides explanations for each of these phenomena and explores how situating education and democracy within the context of reincarnation can incite a renaissance of American culture and politics For Nietzscheans and philosophers in particular this book illustrates the contemporary relevance of two neglected aspects of Nietzsche scholarship i e psychedelics and reincarnation and for researchers in such fields as feminist philosophy of religion ecotheology philosophy of education social political philosophy and eastern philosophy it offers a more plausible and healthier worldview in which to explore possibilities in their respective fields that are diminished by the mainstream paradigm For spiritual seekers of all paths it offers a conception of philosophy as a practice of awakening goddess consciousness that unfolds over the course of successive lifetimes human life is this For a spirit to be fused to flesh to make man like God who is not flesh but spirit not animal but supernatural For the flesh when it declines in its evening to fall like a slough and covering into the nothingness from which it was taken and the spirit to return to its life Blessed if it lived Damned if it perished for having made the flesh its lord instead of making God the lord of its spirit For that spirit from the hereafter whose details you uselessly wish to know without contenting yourselves with believing in its existence to wait with a fearful trembling or a joyful thrill to see the flesh rise again to clothe itself therein once again on Earth s last day and to plunge with it into the abyss or penetrate into Heaven also glorified in matter with which you have overcome because it has been your natural enemy changed into a supernatural ally by you But how could you take on one flesh at the time of my sublime review and go to condemnation or glory with it if each spirit had many fleshly existences And which would it choose from among them The first or the last And how could you invoke the blessed if they were already reincarnated And how could you call your deceased yours if at that moment they were already the children of others And life Oh life once over never returns You are given an hour of eternity a moment of eternity to conquer Eternity I give you time This is at once love and justice What would you say if I struck you at the first mistake You would say Why Lord If You had given me time to reflect I would have repented I leave you time You are at fault one two ten seventy times and I could strike you I give you time So that you cannot say to Me You did not show benignity
