Philanthropy Patronage And Civil Society Experiences From Germany Great Britain And North America:

Philanthropy, Patronage, and Civil Society Thomas Adam, 2004-02-12 In Philanthropy Patronage and Civil Society Thomas Adam has assembled a comparative set of case studies that challenge long held and little studied assumptions about the modern development of philanthropy Histories of philanthropy have often neglected European patterns of giving and the importance of financial patronage to the emergence of modern industrialized societies It has long been assumed for example that Germany never developed civic traditions of philanthropy as in the United States In truth however 19th century German museums art galleries and social housing projects were not only privately founded and supported they were also blueprints for the creation of similar public institutions in North America The comparative method of the essays also reveals the extent to which the wealthy classes on both sides of the Atlantic defined themselves through their philanthropic activities Contributors are Thomas Adam Maria Benjamin Baader Karsten Borgmann Tobias Brinkmann Brett Fairbairn Eckhardt Fuchs David C Hammack Dieter Hoffmann Simone L ssig Margaret Eleanor Menninger and Susannah Morris Philanthropy and the Philanthropy Sector Theo N.M. Schuyt, 2017-03-02 Offering an introduction to modern philanthropy with regard to the commitment and willingness of citizens funds churches and businesses to contribute voluntarily to society Philanthropy and the Philanthropy Sector An Introduction attempts to map philanthropy and promote a better understanding of its characteristics and features After years of division in welfare state debates between the role and responsibilities of government and the market a renewed focus on philanthropy has shown that many societies also harbour an important and growing voluntary sector Something special is happening at the macro societal level as the traditional government market dyad is being broken by a renewed interest in this third way Intended for students scientists administrators policymakers politicians fundraisers philanthropists and philanthropic organizations this book adopts a social policy approach to look at philanthropy alongside other social arrangements and provide an invaluable introduction for all those interested in this fascinating social mechanism

Charity and Mutual Aid in Europe and North America Since 1800 Bernard Harris, Paul Bridgen, 2012-04-06 This collection examines the variety of relationships between statutory and voluntary sectors and considers two hundred and fifty years of welfare provision on an international scale

The reputation of philanthropy since 1750 Hugh Cunningham, 2020-03-24 Philanthropy a love of humankind is now thought of as the rich giving to good causes The Reputation of Philanthropy explores how this came about and asks why praise for philanthropists has always been matched by criticism Original and accessible the book will inform thinking about the proper role for philanthropy today

Philanthropology, the Science of Philanthropy Theo Schuyt, 2024-09-03 This book sheds a positive light on the prevalence of love for humankind in the form of philanthropy All around our globe people rich and poor urban and rural religious and non religious in advanced and developing societies alike perform acts of philanthropy organizationally embedded and guided by philanthropic values and norms This book therefore attempts to reach a truly international audience because philanthropy is not an exclusively Western phenomenon Besides the growing public interest across the world more and more academic disciplines are taking an interest in philanthropy each scrutinizing philanthropy from their own disciplinary perspective and with a particular focus As a result however the overall picture has rather faded into the background In line with cultural anthropologists the book presents philanthropy as a universal societal system differently arranged in each society that deserves a distinctive academic discipline the science of philanthropology Germany and the World since 1815 Thomas Adam,2024-09-26 This textbook provides a history of modern Germany locating the country's social cultural and political developments within their proper global and transnational context The author argues that most developments in German culture society and politics throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries were caused by wider global and transnational trends A history of the German people rather than the German state the book focusses on non state and non government actors intercultural transfers and applies the approach of thick description to analysing the creation of German culture society and identity from the era of the Napoleonic wars right up to the present post unification Germany This includes an examination of German migrants journeys to their new homes in the Americas and thus the creation of a global German diaspora with cultural and social networks beyond its home country's borders The book further focusses on the transfers that connected German society and culture with those of other countries for instance chapters cover the transfer of football from England to Germany the transfer of the Christmas holiday tradition from Germany to other countries and the development of eugenics in Germany within its global context Stepchildren of the Shtetl Natan M. Meir,2020-07-14 Memoirs of Jewish life in the east European shtetl often recall the hekdeshtown poorhouse and its residents beggars madmen and madwomen disabled people and poor orphans Stepchildren of the Shtetl tells the story of these marginalized figures from the dawn of modernity to the eve of the Holocaust Combining archival research with analysis of literary cultural and religious texts Natan M Meir recovers the lived experience of Jewish society's outcasts and reveals the central role that they came to play in the drama of modernization Those on the margins were often made to bear the burden of the nation as a whole whether as scapegoats in moments of crisis or as symbols of degeneration ripe for transformation by reformers philanthropists and nationalists Shining a light into the darkest corners of Jewish society in eastern Europe from the often squalid poorhouse of the shtetl to the slums and insane asylums of Warsaw and Odessa from the conscription of poor orphans during the reign of Nicholas I to the cholera wedding a magical ritual in which an epidemic was halted by marrying outcasts to each other in the town cemetery Stepchildren of the Shtetl reconsiders the place of the lowliest members of an already stigmatized minority Single People and Mass Housing in Germany, 1850-1930 Erin Eckholdt Sasson,2020-12-10 Unsettling traditional understandings of housing reform as focused on the nuclear family with dependent children Single People and Mass Housing in Germany 1850-1930 is the first complete study of single person mass housing in Germany and the pivotal role this class and gender specific building type played for over 80 years in German architectural culture and society the transnational Progressive reform movement Feminist discourse and International Modernism and its continued relevance Homes for unmarried men and women or Ledigenheime were built for nearly every powerful interest group in Germany progressive reactionary and radical alike from the mid nineteenth century into the 1920s Designed by both unknown craftsmen and renowned architects ranging from Peter Behrens to Bruno Taut these homes fought unregimented lodging in overcrowded working class dwellings while functioning as apparatuses of moral and social control A means to societal reintegration Ledigenheime effectively bridged the public private divide and rewrote the rules of who was deserving of quality housing pointing forward to the building programs of Weimar Berlin and Red Vienna experimental housing in Soviet Russia Feminist collectives accommodations for postwar guestworkers and even housing for the elderly today

Invocations of Europe Sabina Cismas,2016-09-12 The book examines the early history of music theatre in Romania in the nineteenth century and how it was instrumentalised as a vehicle for the overall modernization and Europeanization of the country It deals with the complex interaction between the aristocrats who imported the opera the local public the foreign power holders in the time of the Russian Protectorate and the opera companies and musicians who came to Romania and shaped the musical life of the country Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World, 1800-2000 Thomas Adam,2011-11-29 For far too long the history of the modern era has been written as a history of isolated nation states This book which presents both interpretation and primary source documents challenges a nation centred account exploring the interconnected and interrelated nature of societies in the nineteenth and twentieth century Responding to the burgeoning interest and number of courses in global and world history Intercultural Transfers and the Making of the Modern World introduces both the methods and materials of transnational history Case studies highlight transnational connections through the examples of cooperatives housing reform education eugenics and non violent resistance By embracing the interconnected nature of human history across continents and oceans and by employing the concept of intercultural transfer Adam explores the roots and global distribution of major transformations and their integration into local regional and national contexts This is an invaluable resource for the study of global world and transnational history We Come as Members of the Superior Race Obed Mfum-Mensah,2020-10-06 Westerners have long represented Africans as backwards primitive and unintelligent distortions which have opened the door for American philanthropies to push their own education agendas in Africa We Come as Members of the Superior Race discusses the origin and history of these dangerous stereotypes and western infantilization of African societies exploring how their legacy continues to inform contemporary educational and development discourses By viewing African societies as subordinated in a global geopolitical order these problematic stereotypes continue to influence education policy and research in Sub Sahara Africa today Global Best Practices for CSO, NGO, and Other Nonprofit Boards BoardSource,2018-04-10 An ideal resource for boards everywhere There are at least 10 million Civil Society Organizations CSO s in the world each of them with a board composed of individuals doing their best to govern well and wisely There is no single model of governance to emulate but are there universal principles and practices that can help boards everywhere perform at the highest level This book takes us for a trip around the world to look at what is working for boards Its discoveries will help not only boards but also nonprofit staff leaders seeking to assist their boards to optimal performance and capacity builders looking to strengthen their civil society sector Even if your organizational concerns extend no further than city boundaries this book is for you One of the greatest governance challenges today is a lack of diversity on the board This can seriously hamper an organization's ability to realize mission and to understand and serve its community Reading this book will provide a greater understanding of how the cultural context affects governance and will sensitize the reader to different ways of thinking about governance Global Best Practices For CSO NGO and Other Nonprofit Boards presents case studies from different parts of the world that illustrate effective practice identifies and discusses interesting and significant differences and explores global governance trends with implications for us all Tests for universal truths about roles responsibilities and practices using criteria established by BoardSource the premier voice on nonprofit governance Provides information that builds exceptional nonprofit boards Discusses cultural differences in governance that will help all boards to better function in increasingly diverse environments Offers inspiration to NGO boards in any part of civil society Reflects on the future of governance worldwide If you're a capacity builder a board member or an executive leader looking for guidance on governance this is the book you'll want to have on hand American Philanthropic Foundations David C. Hammack, Steven Rathgeb Smith, 2018-04-16 Once largely confined to the biggest cities in the mid Atlantic and Great Lakes states philanthropic foundations now play a significant role in nearly every state Wide ranging and incisive the essays in American Philanthropic Foundations Regional Difference and Change examine the origins development and accomplishments of philanthropic foundations in key cities and regions of the United States Each contributor assesses foundation efforts to address social and economic inequalities and to encourage cultural and creative life in their home regions and elsewhere This fascinating and timely study of contemporary America's philanthropic foundations vividly illustrates foundations commonalities and differences as they strive to address pressing public problems Charity in Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Traditions Julia R. Lieberman, Michal Jan Rozbicki, 2017-07-25 This collection of essays by a team of international scholars addresses the topic of Charity through the lenses of the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam The contributors look for common paradigms in the ways the three faiths address the needs of the poor and the needy in their respective societies and reflect on the interrelatedness of such practices among the three religions They ask how the three traditions deal with the distribution of wealth in the recognition that not all members of a given society have equal access to it and in the relationship of charity to the inheritance systems and family structures They reveal systemic patterns that are similar norms virtue theological validations exclusionary rules private responsibility to society issues that have implications for intercultural and interfaith understanding Conversely the essays inquire how the three faiths differ in their understanding of poverty wealth and justifications for charity International Organizations and Global Civil Society Daniel Laqua, Wouter Van Acker, Christophe Verbruggen, 2019-03-21 The Union of International Associations UIA was founded in 1910 aiming to coordinate the relations and interests of international organizations across the world Its long history makes it a prism through which to study the field of international organizations and its dynamics Bringing together experts from fields including history political science and international relations architecture historical sociology digital humanities and information studies International Organizations and Global Civil Society is the first scholarly book to cover both the UIA s early years and its more recent past Key issues explored include the UIA s importance for the field of scientific internationalism the relations between the UIA and other international organizations and the changing position of the UIA when facing geopolitical challenges such as totalitarianism the World Wars and the Cold War This important book addresses a number of current scholarly concerns the concept of global civil society the development of international relations as a field of study the investigation of transnational factors in modern and contemporary history and the tracing of forerunners to the information society Sponsoring Nature Maano Ramutsindela, Marja Spierenburg, Harry Wels, 2013-11-05 Saving the world s flora and fauna especially high profile examples such as chimpanzees whales and the tropical rain forests is big business Individuals and companies channel their resources to the preservation of nature through various ways one of which is the funding of environmental non governmental organizations ENGOs and community based organizations CBOs This book is the first to comprehensively address this issue and focus on a dominant theme in environmental philanthropy the links between ENGOs and CBOs and their sponsors especially the private sector It has been argued that donor support is based on recipient s perceived expertise and needs with no favouritism of flagship environmental organizations as recipients of donor funds A counterview holds that the private sector prefers to fund mainstream ENGOs for environmental research and policy reforms congenial to industrial capital The authors show that the debate about these arguments together with the empirical evidence on which they are based may shed light on certain aspects of the nature of environmental philanthropy The book evaluates practical examples of environmental philanthropy from Africa and elsewhere against philosophical questions about the material and geographical expressions of philanthropy and the North South connections among philanthropists and ENGOs and CBOs The TransAtlantic reconsidered Charlotte A. Lerg, Susanne Lachenicht, Michael Kimmage, 2018-10-05 Is the Atlantic World in a state of crisis At a time when many political observers perceive indeed a crisis in transatlantic relations critical evaluation of past narratives and frameworks in Transatlantic Relations and Atlantic History alike become crucial This volume provides an academic foundation to critically assess the Atlantic World and to rethink transatlantic relations in a transnational and global perspective The TransAtlantic reconsidered brings together leading experts such as Harvard historians Charles S Maier and Bernard Bailyn and former ERC scientific board member Nicholas Canny All the scholars represented in this volume have helped to shape re shape and challenge the narrative s of the Atlantic World and can thus re evaluate its conceptual basis in view of historiographical developments and contemporary challenges British Female Emigration Societies and the New World, 1860-1914 Marie Ruiz,2017-07-11 This book focuses on the departure of Britain s surplus women to Australia and New Zealand organised by Victorian British female emigration societies Starting with an analysis of the surplus of women question it then explores the philanthropic nature of the organisations the Female Middle Class Emigration Society the Women s Emigration Society the British Women s Emigration Association and the Church Emigration Society The study of the strict selection of distressed gentlewomen emigrants is followed by an analysis of their marketing value and an appraisal of women s imperialism Finally this work shows that the female emigrants under study partook in the consolidation of the colonial middle class Islam in Indonesia Jajat Burhanudin,Kees Dijk,2025-10-01 While Muslims in Indonesia have begun to turn towards a strict adherence to Islam the reality of the socio religious environment is much more complicated than a simple shift towards fundamentalism In this volume contributors explore the multifaceted role of Islam in Indonesia from a variety of different perspectives drawing on carefully compiled case studies Topics covered include religious education the increasing number of Muslim feminists in Indonesia the role of Indonesia in the greater Muslim world social activism and the middle class and the interaction between Muslim radio and religious identity Nonprofits in Crisis Nuno S. Themudo,2013-09-26 Why do some countries have a vibrant nonprofit sector while others do not Nonprofits in Crisis explores the theory of risk as a major mechanism through which economic development influences the nonprofit sector Nuno S Themudo elaborates this idea by focusing on Mexican nonprofit organizations which operate and strive to survive in a risky environment The study of these nonprofits generates broader lessons about philanthropy and the nonprofit sector that complement wider cross national statistical analysis
