Possessing The Land God Promised:

The Land Cries Out Salim J. Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2011-10-21 Our theology does not exist in a vacuum but must relate to the world we inhabit and must influence our moral and ethical actions This is especially true when discussing theology of the land in the context of a violent territorial conflict The Holy Land has seen so much bloodshed that the earth itself is crying out to God The chapters presented in this book form a unique collection of voices speaking from different perspectives on the issue of the theology of the land These voices include Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian theologians and scholars who live in the Holy Land as well as others from around the world The various chapters reflect a wide spectrum of opinion and reveal how much disagreement still exists among followers of Christ However the dialogue generated by having these opposing voices side by side speaking to each other rather than past each other is encouraging This book is both challenging and inspirational and contributes in an innovative way to this important discussion The Promises of God Kevin P.

Conway, 2014-10-29 This study is the first to investigate why Paul makes exclusive use of epangelia for the divine pledge when referring to the Abrahamic covenant a usage of the term never found in the OT LXX After examining Jewish writings and Greek literature of the classical and Hellenistic periods this study demonstrates that Paul is rather unique in his exclusive use of the epangelia word group for the divine pledge and for using the term predominantly in reference to the Abrahamic promises This exclusive usage is further deemed unexpected in that the horkos and omnymi lexemes are by far the terms most commonly associated with God's promises to Abraham in the OT the literature with which Paul was most familiar The study then moves to explain why Paul has chosen this path of discontinuity where it is argued that Paul's exclusive choice of epangelia for the divine promise is driven by its conceptual and linguistic correspondence with the euangelion one of the terms Paul adopted from the early church that forms the core of his ministry This conceptual word study of the divine promise will benefit Pauline scholars interested in Paul's use of the OT as well as his association of the euangelion and epangelia word groups Theological Dictionary of the New Testament Gerhard Kittel, Gerhard

Friedrich, Geoffrey W. Bromiley, 1985-07-10 Geoffrey W Bromiley has abridged this monumental theological dictionary into a convenient one volume edition that is accessible to all readers Possessing Your Pleasant Mountains Divas

Makoni, 2025-03-12 Possessing Your Pleasant Mountains is a religious motivational book It is based on Joshua 17 14 18 The children of Joseph complained about the piece of land that they received when they got to the Promised Land They knew that God had promised to give them a large land of milk and honey However when they finally received it they discovered that it was too small for them The land was also inhabited by people who had dangerous weapons The leader named Joshua reminded them that the land was good and their portion could be enlarged to accommodate all their people He told them that they had been empowered to possess their mountains regardless of the challenges All they needed was a new mind set I then motivate people today that they can do anything that they put their mind on regardless of their background education race or

The Works of Jonathan Edwards: Volume I □ VI Revised Jonathan Edwards, Color Me Yellow Sarah Raquel Gautier, 2019-03-14 You hold a powerful voice inside of you A voice that adds color to God's canvas on earth God is a master artisan painting a beautiful canvas filled with vibrant colors We are those colors We see the beauty of the canvas when we find our colors Those colors release their fullest expression when we communicate with our God designed voice In a world where we constantly consume the voices of others it can be tempting to mimic the voices we hear When we allow other voices to become our voices we can easily dilute the unique color that God designed within us But we are not the echoes of other people's voices We are uniquely designed colors Together we can begin to add our color to God's masterpiece

Nature and Creation Richard H. Hiers, 2023-04-18 People have lived on Earth since before recorded history depending on nature to provide for and clean up after them But Nature cannot do it all anymore Too many people too much trash and too much toxic waste People have long lived in interdependence with other living things Yet humans now degrade and destroy the global environment that nurtures all species including human beings Human activities contaminate earth air and sea causing thousands of species to go extinct Rising global heat produces vicious cycles of catastrophic drought fires horrific storms floods famines and massive migrations by desperate climate refugees We don't hear much anymore about man's conquest of nature Nature God's creation now clearly has the last word Contrast the theocentric faith and ethics embedded in the Old and New Testaments Here the good world that God created and continues to create was made to be shared with all other living things All alike are made from the earth and destined to return to it Humans were meant to till the soil appreciate enjoy and care for life around them and trust their Creator for what is yet to be
