including former advisor to former President Obama Van Jones civil rights advocate and litigator Michelle Alexander economist Julianne Malveaux and friend and speech writer for Dr Martin Luther King Jr Dr Vincent Harding The result was a wide ranging exploration of the hot button issues facing America today from economics education and the law to the cultural impact of mass media Timely and rich in personal wisdom Redefining Black Power connects the dots between past freedom struggles and the future of black civic and cultural life in the United States Redefining Black Power was an important historical rumination on race class power and politics in the Age of Obama The conversations are thoughtful probing nuanced insights into the state of African American political power at this historic moment The book raises challenging questions but rather than offer definitive answers it provokes the reader to personally define Black power and inspires all of us to continue the work of deepening the meaning of democracy Wade Henderson president and CEO of The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights Joanne Griffith is a superb journalist She writes speaks and interviews with great skill sincerity and sensitivity to those she covers Joanne has made it in a tough journalism world one where the white males working for wealthy news organizations have the advantages Her writings and insights are a lesson to all She reflects President Obama s spirited call of fired up ready to go Connie Lawn Senior White House Correspondent since 1968 International broadcast journalist Griffith draws on the archives of radio interviews with black intellectuals to offer a perspective on how the election of the nation s first black president has changed notions of black power and ideas of a multicultural democracy Griffith provides context for each excerpted interview adding to the texture of the analysis of changing perspectives on contemporary black power Booklist Griffith concludes by wondering if progressives have been lulled into a satisfied slumber by Obama s election and whether Dr King s ambitions have been betrayed by this complacency Multifaceted discussions regarding the challenges faced by African Americans during the Obama presidency Kirkus Review Joanne Griffith is an award winning international broadcast journalist who has reported produced and hosted programs for the British Broadcasting Corporation National Public Radio and the Pacifica Radio Network Joanne has spent her career telling the stories of tragedy and triumph throughout the African Diaspora from voting rights in the United States the legacy of slavery in the Caribbean the contribution of immigrants to the United Kingdom and the politics of food and power in southern Africa Ethnic Media in America:: Building a system of their own Guy T. Meiss,Alice A. Tait,2004 Reinventing Race, Reinventing Racism John J. Betancur,Cedric Herring,2012-11-08 Reinventing Race Reinventing Racism provides fresh theoretical insights and policy solutions that address intractable new forms of racism This accessible book tackles important and timely issues that continue to affect the lives of Americans of all shades and ethnicities Redefining Sports Media Jason Kido Lopez,2023-05-29 This book argues that the examination of sports media within cultural and media studies is organized around more than just a shared topic mediated sports What count as sports media in journals books and conferences are extremely diverse they can cover athlete expression on social media shoe commercials gender in sports commentary Indigenous name change activists and fantasy sports Besides being mediated and in some cases loosely connected to sports events and leagues it is hard to see what they all share that could serve as the foundation for a unified field of study Jason Kido Lopez argues that sports media are defined by genre which is reflected in their industries within their content and by their audiences Throughout the media and cultural complex sports and sports media are built on the genre of live and real competition and therefore to study sports media is to study that genre Each chapter will explore how the genre is constructed in commodification of mediated sport representation within sports media athlete expression sports fandom and gaming around sports This book will be of interest to those studying sports media as well as media and cultural studies but also can be used as an introductory survey of the research on sports media from a media and cultural studies perspective Encyclopedia of New Media Steve Jones,2003

This Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive A Z reference on the ongoing revolution in communications The Sociolinguistics of South African Television Kealeboga Aiseng,2024-04-03 This book explores the interwoven relationship between language media and society in post Apartheid South Africa The author examines selected case studies from the sociolinguistic landscape of South African television analysing dominant language ideologies and illuminating the challenges opportunities and potential for transformation He argues for the power of television in shaping language ideologies fostering cultural understanding and advocating for more inclusive and equitable language usage in the media This book contributes to the field of sociolinguistics by emphasizing the complexity of multilingualism in South Africa and inviting ongoing exploration and dialogue in this landscape It will be of interest to students and scholars of Sociolinguistics Media Studies African Culture and History and Language Policy and Planning Redefining Nationalism in Modern China S. Shen,2007-11-13 Why do the Chinese sometimes speak out against U S and yet at other times remain silent This book uses a variety of previously untapped sources including a range of news sources within China itself weblogs and interviews with prominent figures to make a powerful new argument about the causes and consequences of the new Chinese nationalism Democracy

Reinvented Hollie Russon Gilman,2016-01-05 Participatory Budgeting the experiment in democracy that could redefine how public budgets are decided in the United States Democracy Reinvented is the first comprehensive academic treatment of participatory budgeting in the United States situating it within a broader trend of civic technology and innovation This global phenomenon which has been called revolutionary civics in action by the New York Times started in Brazil in 1989 but came to America only in 2009 Participatory budgeting empowers citizens to identify community needs work with elected officials to craft budget proposals and vote on how to spend public funds Democracy Reinvented places participatory budgeting within the larger discussion of the health of U S democracy and focuses on the enabling political and institutional conditions Author and former White House policy adviser Hollie Russon Gilman presents theoretical insights indepth case studies and interviews to offer a compelling alternative to the current citizen disaffection and mistrust of government She offers policy recommendations on how to tap online tools and other technological and civic innovations to promote more inclusive governance While most literature tends to focus on institutional changes without solutions this book suggests practical ways to empower citizens to become change agents Reinvesting in Democracy also includes a discussion on the challenges and opportunities that come with using digital tools to re engage citizens in governance Redefining Multicultural Families in South Korea Minjeong Kim,Hyeyoung Woo,2022-06-17 Redefining Multicultural Families in South Korea Reflections and Future Directions aims to reinvigorate contemporary discussions about Korean families that include immigrants by expanding the scope of what we consider to be multicultural families to include the families of undocumented migrant workers divorced marriage immigrants the families of Korean women with immigrant husbands and by providing a nuanced look at their lives in Korea not as newcomers but as first generation immigrants The Reinvention of Distinction Van Nguyen-Marshall,Lisa B. Welch Drummond,Danièle Bélanger,2011-11-17 This pioneering collection brings together an international group of scholars to explore the Vietnamese middle class From the leisure pursuits of the colonial middle class to the impact of the new urban rich on landscape of the countryside this interdisciplinary volume explores the ways in which middle classness has been practiced in a wide range of contexts throughout the 20th century and into the 21st In addition to offering insights into how middle classness was and is constituted and negotiated this collection illuminates the cultural and social conditions of two distinctive periods in Vietnamese history Three historical chapters consider how middle class status was experienced and displayed under French colonialism and in 1960s republican These chapters offer examinations of middle classness through recreation consumption and associational life Six contemporary studies examine the modes of experimentation and practice within middle class urban Vietnam Still a sensitive topic politically the contemporary middle class nascent but increasingly powerful is exerting a strong impact on the shape of contemporary society and culture as well as on urban and rural landscapes This volume offers a series of studies which critically interrogate the practices of those who engage in or aspire to urban middle class lifestyles in Vietnam both in the past and in the present Redefining Rape Estelle B. Freedman,2013-09-03 The uproar over legitimate rape during the 2012 U S elections confirms that rape remains a word in flux subject to political power and social privilege Redefining Rape describes the forces that have shaped the meaning of sexual violence in the U S through the experiences of accusers assailants and advocates for change Power, Neoliberalism, and the Reinvention of Politics Amy Allen,Eduardo Mendieta,2022-08-08 Wendy Brown is one of the most prolific and influential political theorists of her generation This collection of essays designed for the undergraduate classroom presents an introduction to and critical assessment of Brown s substantial body of work with a particular focus on her contributions to the tradition of critical theory Coeditors Amy Allen and Eduardo Mendieta provide an overview of Brown s work situating her scholarship in relation to some of the major thinkers and methodologies of the Frankfurt School Brown opens the discussion with a new essay expounding upon the meaning of freedom and the prospects for emancipation in our current political moment Subsequent chapters address different aspects of Brown s corpus including her early feminist interpretation of the history of political theory her influential critiques of identity politics and progressive philosophies of history and her recent interrogation of the rise of neoliberalism and the resurgence of authoritarian politics The volume concludes with Brown's response to her critics where she clarifies and expands upon the implications of her core ideas In addition to Brown and the editors the contributors to this volume include Robin Celikates Loren Goldman Asad Haider Robyn Marasco and Johanna Oksala

The Reinvention of Politics Ulrich Beck, 2018-03-12 Those who advocate ideas about postmodernity and post industrialism offer radical critiques of existing social and political institutions But they provide very little in place of those institutions It is all very well to criticize the limitations of social democracy the welfare state trade unionism and social classes as agents of change but once these have been thrown into crisis what other institutions do we have to depend on The Reinvention of Politics suggests we should think again about forging a new model of politics for our times An active devolved civil society Beck argues can sustain the claim that modernity is inherently democratic For many issues now for example those involving technology environment protest the family or gender relations belong to the domain of what the author calls subpolitics The postmodern critique of modernity in Beck's view is based on mistaken generalizations about a transitional phase in the evolution of modern society What is needed he argues is the reinvention of politics corresponding to the new demands of a society which remains modern but which has progressed beyond the earlier form of industrial society This book will be essential reading for second year undergraduates and above in the fields of social and political theory sociology and political science
