Relations Selected Poems 1950 1985:

Relations Philip Booth, 1986 The poet examines the world we inhabit and our relation to it Contemplating his mother he observes that horizon lighting traps her in a quick exposure of old fears Later as he gardens Weeds like conscience clog my rake Booth's language is flinty and uncompromising often drawn from the Maine coast that is one of his favorite subjects

The Selected Letters of George Oppen George Oppen, 1990 Objectivist poet George Oppen 1908 1984 along with his contemporaries Lorine Niedecker Charles Reznikoff and Carl Rakoski provide an important bridge between the vanguard modernist American poets and the later works of poets such as Robert Creeley In work often compounded by the populist urbanity of city lives the Objectivists explored the social statements poetry can make Because Oppen wrote only one essay and one essay review his correspondence in effect constitutes his essays Oppen is emerging as one of the major poets of the postwar era he was the recipient of an American Academy and Institute of Arts and Letters Award the PEN West Rediscovery Award and a Senior Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts His collection Of Being Numerous received the 1969 Pulitzer Prize for Poetry These working papers include a rich correspondence letters which provide access to the sustained perceptive body of critical and aesthetic thinking of Oppen's poetic career Provocative and witty comments on poetry and poetics especially interesting for the development of an Objectivist aesthetics and shrewd deeply felt assessments about the politics of the twentieth century and its moral dilemmas are some of the issues attended to This edition offers primary documentation about an influential poetics a little known movement and its active figures Given the aggressive studies of the politics of canon formation the interest in describing a historical context for individual literary achievement and current debates about mainstream poetry the rethinking of the Objectivist movement and the collection of documents contributing to its poetics is an important achievement in literary scholarship Seeing Mary Plain: A Life of Mary McCarthy Frances Kiernan, 2002-05-17 A revealing portrait of the dramatic life of writer and intellectual Mary McCarthy From her Partisan Review days to her controversial success as the author of The Group to an epic libel battle with Lillian Hellman Mary McCarthy brought a nineteenth century scope and drama to her emblematic twentieth century life Dubbed by Time as quite possibly the cleverest woman America has ever produced McCarthy moved in a circle of ferociously sharp tongued intellectuals all of whom had plenty to say about this diamond in their midst Frances Kiernan's biography does justice to one of the most controversial American intellectuals of the twentieth century With interviews from dozens of McCarthy's friends former lovers literary and political comrades in arms awestruck admirers amused observers and bitter adversaries Seeing Mary Plain is rich in ironic judgment and eloquent testimony A Los Angeles Times Best Book of 2000 and a Washington Post Book World Rave Gender and Feminist Theory in Law and Society Madhavi Sunder, 2017-11-30 This volume chronicles a quarter century of feminist theorizations on equality and liberty The essays demonstrate a continuing commitment to feminist method a democratic notion that all people have a right to participate in the production of knowledge of the world including legal knowledge and manifest feminism's continuing critical tradition namely theorists' willingness to see multiple factors including feminism itself as obstructing enlightened constructions of the world. Taken together, the essays suggest that liberty to make the world is not just a means to an end, equality but is a substantive end in itself. Selves Philip Booth, 1991-01-01 Booth's eighth poetry collection with its evocations of compassion, tenderness, and invading darkness implies that redemption will come only from having loved well and wisely. Publishers Weekly remarked Booth is a traveler keenly, almost mystically aware that how you get there is where you'll arrive. John Ciardi Vince Clemente, 1987-01-01 Some men make so indelible a mark on the lives of others that a place in time is reserved for them. In this memorial volume, some whose lives have been touched by such a man share their thoughts and memories of the poet, translator, editor, teacher, student, father, son, and husband they knew as John Ciardi. X J Kennedy and Lewis Turco discuss Lives of X, a neglected American classic which chronicles the years Ciardi spent growing up in Medford, Massachusetts, studying at Tufts and serving as a gunner in World War II. Richard Eberhart remembers Ciardi's unforgettable presence while John Holmes and Roy W. Cowden remember him as a brilliant student and poet at Tufts and at Michigan where he won the Avery Hopwood Award. Others remember him as a teacher at Harvard and Rutgers. Dan Jaffe writes, "If John Ciardi held to any cause, it was the notion of precision to an uncompromising excellence, to the notion that to strive was in itself not enough; that one needed to judge honestly, to assess courageously, and to respond without flinching." William Heyden and Norbert Krapf tell how the books I Marry You and How Does a Poem Mean influenced them as young men. In John Ciardi: The Many Lives of Poetry, John Nims claims Ciardi as our Chaucer. John Williams, Maxine Kumin, Diane Wakoski, and John Stone write about the Ciardi they knew at the Bread Loaf Writers Conference. Gay Wilson Allen describes the list of contributors to Measure of the Man: A Who's Who in American Literature. Certainly, it is an impressive gathering of poets, critics, and friends who have been touched by John Ciardi. We are all in his debt. Norman Cousins writes in his essay Ciardi at The Saturday Review, and it is important that we say so. The Environmental Imagination Lawrence Buell, 1996-09-01 With Thoreau's Walden as a touchstone, Buell offers an account of environmental perception, the place of nature in the history of Western thought, and the consequences for literary scholarship of attempting to imagine a more ecocentric way of being. In doing so, he provides a profound rethinking of our literary and cultural reflections on nature. Trying to Say it Philip Booth, 1996 Essays that reveal the pulses of a teacher's mind and a poet's heart. International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up-to-date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets. Interdisciplinary/Multidisciplinary Woolf Ann Martin, Kathryn Holland, 2013-06-01 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars linking inter- and multidisciplinary scholarship to the intellectual and creative projects of Virginia Woolf and her modernist peers. Introspections Robert Pack, Jay Parini, 1997 Fifty-five essays by major American poets reflecting on their own work. Ironwood, 1987. A Companion to American Literature and Culture Paul Lauter, 2010-02-12 This expansive Companion offers a set of fresh perspectives on the wealth of texts produced in and around what is now the United States Highlights the diverse voices that constitute American literature embracing oral traditions slave narratives regional writing literature of the environment and more Demonstrates that American literature was multicultural before Europeans arrived on the continent and even more so thereafter Offers three distinct paradigms for thinking about American literature focusing on genealogies of American literary study writers and issues and contemporary theories and practices Enables students and researchers to generate richer more varied and more comprehensive readings of American literature
