Culture in the Third World Jeff Haynes,2016-07-27 A unique focus on the relationship between religion and political culture in the Third World using a comparative and thematic approach Specific issues of religion politics interaction in the Third World in recent times include the rise of Islamic fundamentalist groups throughout the Middle East and other parts of the Muslim world the political effects of the decline of Catholicism and the rapid growth of Protestant evangelical sects in Latin America communal conflict between Hindu nationalist groups and the politicisation of Buddhism in South East Asia The common effect of such developments is to challenge existing forms of relationship between states and societies with religion used as a political resource Constellations of Value Christoph Jedan,2013 In Western public discourse there is a long tradition of opposing secular and religious values In consequence religion has been increasingly excluded from the public domain and relegated to the realm of personal motivation From different perspectives this present collection of essays shows that religion still has an important role to play in the public domain In exploring the possibility of a rapprochement between religious and secular values the book s contributions offer important insights for ongoing debates on the question whether Western and particularly European democracies have entered a post secular phase Series Theorizing the Postsecular International Studies in Religion Politics and Society Vol 1 Religion and Modernization in Southeast Asia Fred R. religious exiles and missionary field observations to studies from a variety of academic disciplines so enabling a multitude of voices to be heard The articles are grouped in sections dealing with the Islamic period the Iberian Catholic period the Jewish diaspora the Russian Orthodox church the epoch of Protestant culture and finally Asian immigrant religions in the West a substantial introduction contextualizes these chapters in terms of both historical and contemporary approaches

Modernity, Religion, and the War on Terror Professor Richard Dien Winfield,2013-05-28 The war on terror cannot be truly understood without investigating the legitimacy of modernity the challenge that religion presents to modernization the inescapable conflicts attending the emergence and expansion of modernity and the post colonial predicament from which Islamist reaction arises Richard Dien Winfield illuminates the war on terror in light of these issues presenting an anti foundationalist justification of the rationality and freedom of modernity while assessing how religion can stand in opposition to modernity and why Islam has been a privileged vehicle of anti modern religious revolt Winfield shows that the privatization that religion must undergo to be compatible with modern freedom involves no capitulation to relativism but rather is a theological imperative on which the truth of religion depends Exposing the limits of any purely secular modernization of Islam Winfield shows how Islam can draw upon its core tradition to repudiate the oppression of Islamist reaction and become at home in the modern world
