Religion And Custom In A Muslim Society The Berti Of Sudan:

Religion and Custom in a Muslim Society Ladislav Holý, 1991-07-26 Among the Berti of Northern Darfur Sudan as among many Muslim societies the formal religious practices are predominantly the concern of men while local unorthodox customary rituals are performed mainly by women It is usual to dismiss such local popular practices as pre Islamic survivals but Professor Holy shows that the customary rituals constitute an integral part of the religious system of the Berti Carefully analysing the symbolic statements made in Berti rituals Professor Holy demonstrates that the distinction between the two classes of rituals is an expression of the gender relationships characteristic of the society He also examines the social distribution of knowledge about Islam and explains the role of the religious schools in sustaining religious ideas The work is not only an ethnographic study of ritual belief and gender in an African society It also makes a significant contribution to current anthropological discussion of the interpretation and meaning of rituals and symbols Religion and Sexuality in Cross-Cultural Perspective Stephen Ellingson, M. Christian Green, 2014-03-18 Issues of sexuality and gender are hotly contested in both religious communities and national cultures around the world In the social sciences religious traditions are often depicted as inherently conservative or even reactionary in their commitments to powerful patriarchal and pronatalist sexual norms and gender categories In illuminating the practices of religious traditions in various cultures these essays expose the diversity of religious rituals and mythologies pertaining to sexuality In the process the contributors challenge conventional notions of what is normative in our sexual lives The Sudan Handbook John Ryle, 2011 The handbook offers a concise introduction to all aspects of the country rooted in a broad historical account of the development of the Sudanese state from publisher description The Post-Colonial State and Civil War in Sudan Noah R. Bassil, 2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies Being Muslim the Bosnian Way Tone Bringa, 2020-09-01 I have been able to follow a Bosnian community over a period of six years during which it has undergone dramatic changes In the late 1980s people were working hard against economic crisis In 1990 they were full of optimism for the future In January 1993 the village was in fear surrounded by war on all sides In April 1993 it was attacked by Croat forces In October 1993 none of the Muslims in the village remained They had either fled been placed in detention camps or been killed Thus begins Tone Bringa's moving ethnographic account of Bosnian Muslims lives in a rural village located near Sarajevo Although they represent a majority of the population in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina Bosnian Muslims are still members of a minority culture in the region that was once Yugoslavia The question of ethno-national identity has become paramount in this society and the author focuses on religion as the defining characteristic of identity Bringa pays particular attention to the roles that women play in defining Muslim identities and she examines the importance of the household as a Muslim identity sphere In so doing she illuminates larger issues of what constitutes nationality This is a gripping and heartfelt account of a community that has been torn apart by ethno-political conflict It will attract readers of all backgrounds who want to learn more about one of the most intractable wars of the late twentieth century and the people who have been so tragically affected

Transformation Des Identités Féminines Eva Evers Rosander,1997 Contains 13 essays which discuss formal women's organizations informal associations related to rural and semiurban organization of work women's religious associations and individual strategies outside the framework of associations

Submitting to God Sylva Frisk,2009 This study of the everyday religious practice of pious women within Kuala Lumpur's affluent Malay middle class reveals that women play an active part in the Islamization process by organizing and participating in public programs of religious education transforming the traditionally male dominated space of the mosque and breaking men's monopoly over positions of religious authority Sylva Frisk is a lecturer in the School of Global Studies at Gothenburg University Sweden

Social Reproduction and History in Melanesia Robert John Foster,1995-04-27 In much of Melanesia the process of social reproduction unfolds as a lengthy sequence of mortuary rites feast making and gift giving through which the living publicly define their social relations with each other while at the same time commemorating the deceased In this study Robert J Foster constructs an ethnographic account of mortuary rites in the Tanga Islands Papua New Guinea placing these large scale feasts and ceremonial exchanges in their historical context and demonstrating how the effects of participation in an expanding cash economy have allowed Tangans to conceive of the rites as customary in opposition to the new and foreign practices of business His examination synthesizes two divergent trends in Melanesian anthropology by emphasizing both the radical differences between Melanesian and Western forms of sociality and the conjunction of Melanesian and Western societies brought about by colonialism and capitalism

In the City of the Marabouts Geert Mommersteeg,2011-09-11 From the opening pages amidst the throes of Ramadan during the hottest and driest season in Mali Dutch ethnographer Geert Mommersteeg welcomes readers into the religious culture of a historic city uniquely filled with Islamic scholars known as marabouts This finely crafted English language translation provides a remarkable contribution to the study of Islamic practices and beliefs observed in local contexts in sub-Saharan Africa with a focus on the interrelationship between public and secret knowledge of maraboutage in everyday reality This inviting personal narrative of an anthropologist's long term fieldwork in Djennfor centuries a center of West African culture scholarship and architecture is full of valuable methodological insights Mommersteeg with unassuming honesty becomes absorbed in the knowledge of the Holy Word and slowly enters the closed world of religious practice in which marabouts serve as intermediaries between God and their clients While marabouts do not claim to be all knowing they do know how God can be addressed most effectively which amulets are the most powerful and which alms are best for nudging the future in the right direction

Islamic Homosexualities Will Roscoe, Stephen O. Murray, 1997-02-01 The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Islamic Homosexualities Stephen O. Murray, Will Roscoe, 1997-02 The first anthropological collection that reveals patterns of male and female homosexuality in the Muslim World The dramatic impact of Islamic fundamentalism in recent years has skewed our image of Islamic history and culture Stereotypes depict Islamic societies as economically backward hyper patriarchal and fanatically religious But in fact the Islamic world encompasses a great diversity of cultures and a great deal of variation within those cultures in terms of gender roles and sexuality The first collection on this topic from a historical and anthropological perspective Homosexuality in the Muslim World reveals that patterns of male and female homosexuality have existed and often flourished within the Islamic world Indeed same sex relations have until quite recently been much more tolerated under Islam than in the Christian West Based on the latest theoretical perspectives in gender studies feminism and gay studies Homosexuality in the Muslim World includes cultural and historical analyses of the entire Islamic world not just the so called Middle East Essays show both age stratified patterns of homosexuality as revealed in the erotic and romantic poetry of medieval poets and gender based patterns in which both men and women might to varying degrees choose to live as members of the opposite sex The contributors draw on historical documents literary texts ethnographic observation and direct observation by both Muslim and non Muslim authors to show the considerable diversity of Islamic societies and the existence of tolerated gender and sexual variances Ritual and Religion in the Making of Humanity Roy A. Rappaport, 1999-03-25 Roy Rappaport argues that religion is central to the continuing evolution of life although it has been displaced from its original position of intellectual authority by the rise of modern science His book which could be construed as in some degree religious as well as about religion insists that religion can and must be reconciled with science Combining adaptive and cognitive approaches to the study of humankind he mounts a comprehensive analysis of religion s evolutionary significance seeing it as co extensive with the invention of language and hence of culture as we know it At the same time he assembles the fullest study yet of religion s main component ritual which constructs the conceptions which we take to be religious and has been central in the making of humanity s adaptation The text amounts to a manual for effective ritual illustrated by examples drawn from anthropology history philosophy comparative religion and elsewhere Infibulation Esther Hicks, 2018-01-16 Infibulation is the most extreme form of female circumci sion It plays an important role in the Islamic societies of northeastern Africa Until now the social significance and function of this practice has been poorly understood In this volume Hicks analyzes female circumcision as a cultural trait embedded in a historically traditional milieu and shows why it cannot be treated in isolation as a single issue destined for elimination Contesting Realities Susanne Dahlgren, 2010-12-23 As a resident of Aden for more than three years spanning the late years of Marxist South Yemen Dahlgren presents the reader with an intimate portrait of Yemeni men and women in the home in the factory in the office and in the street demonstrating that Islamic societies must be understood through a multiplicity of social spheres and morality orders Within each space she examines the range of legal political religious and social regulations that frame gender relations and social dynamics Highlighting the diversity of women s and men s positions as a continuum rather than as distinct areas Dahlgren presents a vivid picture of this dynamic society providing an in depth background to today s political upheavals in Yemen A Comparative Sociology of World Religions Stephen Sharot, 2001-08 A Sociology of World Religions presents a comparative analysis of the world s religions focusing on the differences and interrelationships between religious elites and lay masses In each case the volume contextualizes how the relationships between these two religious forms fit within and are influenced by the wider socio political environment After introducing the book s major themes the volume introduces and builds upon an analysis of Weber s model of religious action drawing on Durkheim Marxist scholars and the work of contemporary sociologists and anthropologists The following chapters each focus on major religious cultures including Hinduism Buddhism Catholicism Protestantism Islam Judaism and the religions of China and Japan This ambitious project is the first to offer a comparison of the popular or folk forms of religion around the world Sharot s accessible introductions to each of the world religions synthesizing a vast literature on popular religion from sociology anthropology and historians of religion make the project ideal for course use His comparative approach and original analyses will prove rewarding even for experts on each of the world religions Sexuality and Medicine John Wiltshire, Paul A. Komesaroff, Philipa Rothfield, 2004-07-29 There is no available information at this time Cultural Rights in International Law and Discourse Stephenson Chow, 2018-01-22

Challenging questions arise in the effort to adequately protect the cultural rights of individuals and communities worldwide not the least of which are questions concerning the very understanding of culture In Cultural Rights in International Law and Discourse Contemporary Challenges and Interdisciplinary Perspectives Pok Yin S Chow offers an account of the present day challenges to the articulation and implementation of cultural rights in international law Through examining how culture is conceptualised in different stages of contemporary anthropology the book explores how these understandings of culture enable us to more accurately put issues of cultural rights into perspective The book attempts to provide analytical exits to existing conundrums and dilemmas concerning the protections of culture cultural heritage and cultural identity The Politics of Female Circumcision in Egypt Maria Frederika Malmström, 2016-03-22

The percentage of women aged 15 49 in Egypt who have undergone the procedure of female circumcision or genital mutilation cutting FGM C stands at 91% according to the latest research carried out by UNICEF Female circumcision has become a global political minefield with Western interventions affecting Egyptian politics and social development not least in the area of democracy and human rights Maria Frederika Malmstrom employs an ethnographic approach to this controversial issue with the aim of understanding how female gender identity is continually created and re created in Egypt through a number of daily practices and the central role which female circumcision plays in this process Viewing the concept of agency as critical to the examination of social and cultural trends in the region Malmstrom explores the lived experiences and social meanings of circumcision and femininity as narrated by women from Cairo It is through the examination of the voices of these women that she offers an analysis of gender identity in Egypt and its impact on women s sexuality The Architecture of Memory Joëlle Bahloul, 1996-07-28

Recalling life in a single house occupied by several Jewish and Muslim families in the generation before Algerian independence this is a micro history of a period which came to an end in the early 1960s People of the Sea Rita Astuti, 1995-03-23

The Vezo a fishing people of western Madagascar are known as the people who struggle with the sea Dr Astuti explores their identity showing that it is established through what people do rather than being determined by descent Vezo identity is a way of doing rather than a state of being performative rather than ethnic However her innovative analysis of Vezo kinship also uncovers an opposite form of identity based on descent which she argues is the identity of the dead By looking at key mortuary rituals that engage the relationship between the living and the dead Dr Astuti develops a dual model of the Vezo person the one defined contextually in the present the other determined by the past
