Faith or Gullibility? David Rex Holt,2016-06-07 Faith or Gullibility was originally written in answer to the author's many friends who asked why he was no longer attending church but as time passed and his studies revealed more and more anomalies in religious beliefs around the world it became very obvious that religious deception was rampant in all doctrines. This was nowhere more obvious than in the political environments in which those doctrines were originally conceived where necessity demanded some sort of unified stance by different groups of people. Much more than today where technology can provide answers in past centuries naturally gifted leaders needed convincing stories to persuade the masses to act in harmony to achieve the best outcomes and so those people were in that environment lauded as prophets and even credited with what became known as divine inspiration although in actual fact their leading was nothing more than intelligent use of their own intellects. Nowhere was this more evident than in cases where their prophecies directly contradicted the laws of physics under the name of miracles. A principal problem with this was that when those so-called prophets expounded their ideas scientific knowledge was almost non-existent so that rank and file people readily accepted them and passed them down from generation to generation often by word of mouth because illiteracy was far more prevalent than it is in modern developed countries. However with increased knowledge human wisdom the sagacious application of knowledge has increased exponentially beyond all reckoning amongst open-minded people of all religions to the point where it is no longer possible to justify those outdated beliefs when they are rationalised against the immutable laws of physics. This is particularly so when one considers that the entire universe and in fact many universes were all made without a single physical law being broken. As studies become more and more logical it becomes more and more apparent that the main reason for religious beliefs whatever they may be is insecurity where human nature cannot accept that life is a finite thing. People cling tenaciously to any doctrine that promises any sort of immortality whether it makes any sense or not and so the purpose of this book increasingly became changed from a mere answer to personal questions to an in-depth study of religious mythology and deception.

Re-envisioning Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2017 Since the early 1980s there has been renewed scholarly interest in the concept of Christian Humanism. Fundamentally humanism aims to explore what it means to be human and what the grounds are for human flourishing. Featuring contributions from internationally renowned Christian authors from a variety of disciplines in the humanities Re-envisioning Christian Humanism recovers a Christian humanist ethos for our time. The volume offers a chronological overview from patristic humanism to the Reformation and beyond and individual examples. Jewell Calvin of past Christian humanisms. The chapters are connected through the theme of Christian paideia as the foundation for liberal arts education.

Reddie, 2016-04-15 Black Theology Slavery and Contemporary Christianity explores the legacy of slavery in Black theological terms Challenging the dominant approaches to the history and legacy of slavery in the British Empire the contributors show that although the 1807 act abolished the slave trade it did not end racism notions of White supremacy or the demonization of Blackness Black people and Africa This interdisciplinary study draws on biblical studies history missiology and Black theological reflection exploring the strengths and limitations of faith as the framework for abolitionist rhetoric and action This Black theological approach to the phenomenon of the trans Atlantic slave trade and the institution of slavery draws on contributions from Africa the Caribbean North America and Europe
